XXXXth CONGRESS.—FIRST SESSION. ICLOSE OF YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.]

SENATE.-Mr. Wilson, from the Military Committee, reported a bill for the equaliza-tion of bounties to soldiers in the late war of rebellion, in a new draft, as follows: of rebellion, in a new draft, as follows:
Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That to each and every goldier who served in the armies of the United States, in the late war of the rebellion, without distinction of color or race, or who has been or who may hereafter be dishonorably discharged therefrom, there shall be paid, except as hereinafter specified, a bounty of eight and one-third dollars per month for each and every month of service rendered: Provided, that troops known as "home guards," or other volun-teer troops organized for local service, which are now excluded from bounties by the rul-ing of the War Department, or under the terms of their enlistment, shall not partici pate in the bounties provided by this act or any part thereof. Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That in calculating the amount of bounty due and to be paid to each soldier under the provisions of this act, deductions shall be made for any and all payments of bounty made or agreed to be made by the United States so that in no case will any soldier receive greater sum in bounty than eight and one third dollars for each or any month of ser vice; and no bounty whatever shall be paid to any soldier who has deserted from the service, nor to any soldier who was a captured prisoner of war at the time of enlistment, nor to any soldier who has been discharged at his own request, unless for transfer to the navy or for the purpose of accepting promotion or appointment in the army or navy, or after two years of service, or who has been discharged at the request of parents, guardians or other persons, or on the ground of minority: Provided, That any soldier discharged from the service on account of wounds received in battle, on picket or skirmish, or in the line of duty where than in actual conflict, and th widow or heirs of any soldier who may have died while in the service of the United States, shall be entitled to the same bounty as though such soldier had served out his full term of enlistment. SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That any soldier who has bartered, sold, assigned, transferred, loaned, exchanged, or given away his final discharge papers, or any interest in the bounty provided by this or any other act of Congress, shall not be entitled to receive any bounty whatever under this act; and when application is made by any soldier for said bounty he shall be required to make oath or affirmation of his identity, and that he has not so bartered, sold, assigned, transferred, exchanged, loaned, or given away either his discharge papers or any interest in any bounty as aforesaid; and no claim for such bounty shall be entertained by the Paymaste General or other accounting or disbursing officer, except upon receipt of the soldier's discharge paper, accompanied by the statement, under oath, as by this section pro-

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That in the payment of the bounty herein provided for, it shall be the duty of the Paymaster General, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War, to cause to be examined the accounts of each and every soldier who makes application therefor, accompanied with his dis-charge and the affidavit required by the preceding section, to ascertain and determine the amount, if any, due him under the provisions of this act, to endorse the same upon his discharge, and to return the discharge to the claimants with a warrant fer the amount due. Such warrant shall in each case be drawn upon an authorized de-pository of the public funds, and shall be made payable to the order of the claimant, provided that the said warrant shall not be negotiated nor paid by the depository upon which it is drawn, or by any other deposi-tory, unless there be affixed to it proof of the identity of the payee and of the genuineness of his endorsement, established by the oath and affirmation of not less than two reputable witnesses, resident in the same county or district with the said payee, and attested by a clerk of a court of record, under the seal of the court; and the said warrant, with such proof and attestation affixed thereto, shall thereafter be negotiable and payable by endorsement in the manner of ordinary checks and drafts, and shall in no case be negotiable and payable without such proof and attestation; and the clerk of the court, before attesting said warrant, shall require the payee to exhibit the discharge, which he will compare with the warrant, and satisfy himself that it agrees in all respects there-

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That under no circumstances whatever shall any agent, attorney, or third person be allowed to act for or take part in the procuring, col-lection remittance or payment of claims for said bounty to soldiers now living, except as herein before provided; nor shall any pow-er of attorney, purchase, sale, transfer or assignment of said bounty, or of any interest therein be recognized or entertained by any accounting officer or disbursing agent of the Government, in the settlement or payment of said bounty to soldiers now living: Provided, That such claims shall be presented to the Paymaster General within twelve months from and after the passage of this act, and in the manner herein prescribed, or the claimants will be forever thereafter deprived from the benefits

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the claims of widows and heirs of deceased soldiers for said bounty shall be received and settled by the Second Auditor of the Treasury, and in case such claims are presented by an agent or attorney, such agent or attorney shall be required to make oath or affirmation that he has no interest whatever in said bounty beyond the fees for collection of the same, which are hereby fixed and established, as follows, viz—For the preparation and prosecution of claims for and the collection and remittance of all sums not exceeding one hundred dollars, ten per cent, upon the amount so collected, and for all sums exceeding one hundred dollars, the sum of ten dollars, and said fees shall include all expenses incident to the collection of said claims, except the expense of the necessary affidavits, which shall be defrayed by the claimant; any agent or attorney who shall charge directly or indirectly, in any case, a greater sum for his services in prosecuting, collecting and remitting said bounty, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction, be punished by fine not exceeding three thousand nor less than one thousand dollars, and shall be forever excluded from procecuting military or nevel claims against prosecuting military or naval claims against the Government. Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That in the reception, examination, settlement and payment of claims for said bounty due the widows or heirs of deceased soldiers, the Second Auditor of Treasury shall be governed by the same restrictions as herein prescribed for the Paymaster General: Provided, That when such claims are presented by or through an agent or attorney, duly emperated to at for the Alexander duly empowered to act for the claimant, the warrant for the amount due may be transmitted to such agent or attorney, but shall not be recognized nor paid by the United States unless it be endorsed, witnessed and attested by the persons and in the manner prescribed by the fourth section of this act, nor shall any claim for said bounty be entertained by the Second Anditor of the tertained by the Second Auditor of the Treasury unless presented in the manner and within the time specified herein.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That the proceeds of any tax now laid and of any tax which may hereafter he laid on cotton, shall be set apart as a fund for the payment collect into a suitable ground, set apart for of the bounties herein provided for, and for that purpose, the remains of the officers and the extinguishment of any debt incurred in payment of said bounties

The above was, on motion of Mr. Wilson, recommitted to the Committee on Military Affairs. Mr. Nesmith, from the Committee on Military Affairs, reported a bill authorizing the Paymaster General to place to the credit of paymasters in California $200,000, to cover loss of money occasioned by the wreck of the Brother Jonathan.

Mr. Wilson, from the Military Committee, reported a bill to authorize the representation of the United States at the International Health Congress of Constantia national Health Congress, at Constantinople.

Mr. Fessenden, from the Finance Committee, reported the House Loan bill, without amendment. Mr. Van Winkle introduced a bill for the classification and graduation of invalid pensions, which provides pensions for disabilities incurred in the military and naval servites in classes.

Mr. Harris called up the bill to reorganize the Judiciary of the United States, which was read with the amendments reported by the Judiciary Committee.
Various amendments were adopted.

Mr. Howe moved to strike out 'ten thou sand dollars in the 7th section, and insert five thousand in lieu of it. Pending the consideration of the bill, the Senate adourned at 43 P. M.O

House,—The resolution introduced by Mr. Rogers (N. J.) this day fortnight and debated last Monday, in relation to United States securities, &c., came up.
Mr. Rogers modified the last resolution of this series by adding the words, "and that all Government securities heretofore issued shall bear their fair share of Federal taxes." The resolutions were referred to the Committee of Ways and Means.

The next business being the call of the States for resolutions, Mr. Ward offered the following resolution:

Whereas, The Housis on a previous occasion instructed the Committee on Military Affairs to report a bill equalizing the bounties of the soldiers and sailors;

And whereas, Early action by Congress is demanded by many of these soldiers and sailors, and the widows and orphans of those who have perished on the field and in the hospitals, and in the rebel prison pens; And whereas, This session of Congress is far spent, and no definite action has yet har spent, and no definite action has yet been had upon the subject; therefore, Resolved, That the Committee on Military Affairs have liberty to report by bill or otherwise on the subject at any time.

The resolution was adopted.

The following resolution, offered by Mr.
Pike (Me.) on March 19th, which then went over under the rules, next came up in order. Whereas. The Governors of several of the British Provinces have publicly warned all fishing fleets off the fishing grounds adja-cent to their coasts, and have thus indicated a design to renew the unreasonable claims Treaty, and to annoy our peaceable com-merce; therefore, Resolved, That the Secretary of the Navy be requested to send sufficient naval force to the fishing grounds to protect our citizens in the enjoyment of their rights, as recognized by the treaty of 1783. Mr. Morrill (Vt.) suggested that there was some question as to whether the rights referred to were recognized under the treaty of 1783, or under subsequent treaties. Mr. Pike, (Me.), acting on that suggestion, modified the resolution by adding the words "and by subsequent treaties."

On motion of Mr. Raymond the resolution was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs, with leave to report at any time. Mr. Raymond offered the following resolution:

Resolved, By the House of Representa-tives, the Senate concurring, That a commission of five persons to be appointed by the President of the United States to consider and to report to Congress at its next session on the necessity of some more rapid cheap and reliable means of transportation between the Western States and the Atlantic seaboard, and to submit some plan, whether by law or treaty, whereby the National Government can aid by providing for such necessity if it shall be found to exist: Provided, That said commissioners shall receive no compensation for their services, and no payment of any kind, except for such traveling expenses as they may actually incur in dis-charging the duties imposed upon them by

Under the rule the resolution went over to

Under the rule the resolution went over to Monday.

Mr. Davis' resolution, offered on the 10th of January, and which then went over under the rule, came up as the next business in order, declaring that this House cherished the most entire confidence in the patriotism and ability of the President of the United States, and in his desire to restore the Union on the basis of permanent prespective and that the co-operative and the co-operative prosperity and peace, and, that the co-operation of this House is pledged to him in support of the general policy of reconstruction inaugurated by him in the modes authorized by the Constitution and consistent with the security of republican institutions.

with the security of republican institutions.
The Speaker announced the expiration of the morning hour, stating that it was the duty of the Chair to call up the special order for this day, the Army bill.

Mr. Schenck, in consequence of the absence of his colleague on the Committee, Mr. Blaine, moved that the Army bill be postponed until the 12th of April, and that in the meantime the bill, with the amendments reported by the Committee, be printed. ments reported by the Committee, be printed, ments reported by the Committee, be printed, with extra copies, which was so ordered.

Mr. Hubbard (N. Y.) offered a resolution, which was adopted, instructing the Committee of Ways and Means to inquire into the expediency of providing by law some means by which the owners of the bonds of the United States heretofore issued may seem their newsort in case of their loss by secure their payment in case of their loss by robbery or accident.

Mr. Myers (Pa.) presented the joint resolution of the Pennsylvania Legislature, for a repeal of the tax on crude petroleum. Referred to the Committee of Ways and Means.

On motion of Mr. Hogan (Me.), the Senate bill to authorize the construction of a bridge across the Mississippi river at the city of St. Louis, in the State of Missouri, and at the city of East St. Louis, in the State of Illinois, was taken from the Speaker's table, read twice, and referred to the Committee on Commerce. Means.

on Commerce.

Mr. Wilson, from the Committee on Judiciary, reported back the Senate bill passed by that body on the 21st of March, more effectively. fectually to provide for the punishment of certain crimes against the United States.

Mr. Wilson (Iowa) asked leave to offer the following resolutions:

Whereas, It is reported that orders have whereas, it is reported that offcers have been issued directing that all colored troops shall be mustered out of service; and Whereas, It is also reported that very many of said troops desire to remain in the service, and that the white volunteers generally desire to be mustered out, in order that they may return to their homes and raily desire to be inustered out, in order that they may return to their homes and engage in their accustomed civil pursuits; therefore,

Resolved, That the Committee on Military Affairs be instructed to inquire whether said reports are true, and if true, that the Committee report all the facts to the House converging said orders and the desire of concerning said orders and the desire of said troops, together with such other in-formation relative to the subject-matter of the inquiry as the Committee may obtain.

Mr. Finck objected. Mr. Schenck remarked that the Committee Mr. Schenck remarked that the Committee on Military Affairs were in possession of all the facts. Subsequently Mr. Schenck presented a communication on the subject from the Secretary of War, which was laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Kasson (Iowa) offered a resolution requesting the Secretary of War to inform the House whether any effort has been made to collect into a suitable ground, set apart for soldiers who were killed and buried on the various battle-fields about Atlanta, Ga., and if not, whether any special appropriation is need therefor.

Mr. Schenk suggested that the inquiry should be addressed to the President, and not to the Secretary of War.

The resolution, being so modified, was Mr. Ward presented a petition which, he said, was fifteen feet long, signed by many hundred citizens of his district, asking that eight hours be declared a legal day's work; and then, at half-past three o'clock, the House FURNITURE AND BEDDING.
