[CLOSE OF YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.]

SENATE.—Mr. Ridgeway read a bill authorizing the Van Deusen Oil Company to borrow money.
Also, one incorporating the Philadelphia Brewers' Association.

Brewers' Association.

Mr. Randall, one repealing the act authorizing the election of one non-resident of the State to be a director in the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company.

Also, one incorporating the Philadelphia Transportation and Freight Company. The company is to have power to contract with the Reading Railroad, Schuylkill Navigation Company and other companies, for the tion Company, and other companies, for the transportation of freight.

Mr. Hall read one incorporating the Huntingdon and Pennsylvania Valley Railroad Company. Passed.

The bill legalizing the street cleaning contract in Philadelphia passed.

Alse, the one incorporating the Lincoln Institute, of Philadelphia.

The bill allowing the Susquehanna Boom Company to build a dam and to greatly in-Company to build a dain and to greatly increase the rates of boomage was considered. After a lengthy argument and the adoption of one or more amendments, the bill was finally passed by a vote of 17 to 12, Messrs. Bigham, Connell, Donovan, Dunlap, Glatz, Horse, Haines, Hoge, Householder, James, Charlet, Hollet, Householder, James, Landon, Latta, Nichols, Randall, Ridgway, Royer, Worthington and Fleming voting aye, and Messrs. Beardslee, Browne. Champneys, Cowles, Hall, Hopkins, Montgomery, Schall, Shoemaker, Wallace, Walls and White voting no gomery, Schall, Shoem and White voting no.

and White voting no.

Afternoon Session.—The following bills passed: Incorporating the Philadelphia Brewers' Association, the Asteroid Mining Company, and the Philadelphia Transportation and Freight Company.

Mr. Nichols read and had passed a bill vesting in the United States the title to Learner Island.

League Island.
Adjourned until evening.

Adjourned until evening.

Evening Session.—Mr. Ridgway presented a bill appointing a collector for outstanding insurance claims of the Board of Health.

The following bills passed: One incorporating the Pennsylvania, Nevada, the Ellen and Louisa, and Great Valley Mining Companies. The General Appropriation bill is under consideration as we close. The Street Cleaning bill, now in the hands of the Governor, provides that it shall be lawful for vernor, provides that it shall be lawful for Councils, without previous estimates or proposals, to authorize the Mayor to make contracts for cleaning the streets with any parties, on terms agreed upon, for a term not exceeding five years, and Councils shall have power to adopt all necessary measures

House.--An act requiring an annual instead of a triennial assessment to be made of property in Philadelphia was discussed.

Mr. Marks moved to amend by giving the assessors $750 per annum, instead of $550. This was opposed by Mr. Freeborn, because it would increase the expenses of the city.

Mr. Davis moved to postpone the whole subject indefinitely, which was not agreed Mr. Davis urged that there was no reason why an annual assessment should be made in Philadelphia and a triennial one in other parts of the State. Mr. Freeborn moved as an amendment that the consent of Councils should be obtained before the assessors' salaries were increased to $750. This was agreed to.

The amendment increasing to $750 was also agreed to, and the bill passed.

Mr. Watt moved to amend by substituting a section providing that a Board "to be composed of the present Board of Revision composed of the present Board of Revision (appointed by authority of an act approved March 28, 1865,) and of the City Commissioners, shall sit during September and October as Board of Revision and Appeals, and all subsequent allowances shall be made by the City Commissioners, who shall appoint one additional reading clerk for appoint one additional reading clerk for making all necessary division of real estate; all inconsistent acts to be repealed."

This amendment was defeated by ayes 28,

The Philadelphians voting aye were Adair, Davis, Hoad, Marks, Sterner and Those voting no were Donnelly, Freeborn, Josephs, Quigley, Ruddiman, Subers, Thomas and Wallace.

An act allowing the Pittsburgh and Con-nelsville Railroad Company to complete its road from Connelsville to the Baltimore and Ohio Railway was considered.

Mr. Lee moved to postpone indefinitely, pending which motion the House adjourned until afternoon.

Afternoon.

Afternoon Session.—The following bills passed: One requiring culverts and gas pipes to be laid so as not to interfere with railway tracks; another authorizing the city of Chester to erect water works; an-other exempting the petroleum works from removal which are situated south of the northline of Reed street and east of east line of Front street; another providing for the grading of Front street, if Councils concur. Adjourned.

Evening Session.—The following bills passed: One incorporating the General assembly of the Church of Christ. Another incorporating the Citizens' Inebriate Association The consideration of numerous private bills continued until a late hour. Adjourned. The New Jersey Senatorial Question, &c. TRENTON, April 3.—The Senate met again this afternoon. It was intended to rescind the resolution requiring that all members should be present and voting, before the resolution to go into joint meeting could be passed, but the Senate adjourned within a few minutes without a meeting, no quorum being present.

In the House there was a lively time during the consideration of the resolutions par-tially endorsing President Johnson, but censuring him for his veto of the civil rights bill. After a very spirited debate, the re-solutions were passed, the Democrats voting against them and declaring their willingess to endorse him all the way through.

Next came the resolutions to procure portrait of Abraham Lincoln, to be placed by the side of Washington. An amendment was offered to place one also of Andrew Mr. Lee offered a resolution to place portrait of James M. Scovel alongside of Washington as a light between virtue and vice, showing how things are getting mixed up, and how wide the breach is growing. The Republican members of the Legisla-ture held a caucus this evening and nomi-nated the Hon. A. G. Cattell for Senator.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, April 3, 1866.—
This Department is informed that frequent attempts are being made to import into the various ports of the United States certain merchandise purporting to be essence of cayenne, essence of ginger, tincture of camphor, tincture of myrrh, &c., &c., which have been found, upon examination, to be composed almost, wholly of alcohol, with but small proportion of other ingredients to give it the color, taste, or flavor of essences and

Collectors of customs are enjoined to exercise unusual vigilance in the detection and prevention of such frauds upon the revenue. and in every instance where any merchan-dise as above described is entered, and they are entirely satisfied that such entry is in fraud of the revenue, and that the article is not intended to be used as an essence, extract, tincture, &c., as represented, but that the real object of the importer is to introduce the alcohol to a lower rate of duty than is provided for in the law, they are hereby authorized to detain such goods and advise the Department forthwith, giving in detail all the facts in the case, in order that the Department may be enabled to instruct intelligibly as to seizure and further proceedings for final condemnation.

Secretary of the Treasury.

The Debate on the Second Veto. WASHINGTON, April 3.—By common consent, Mr. Trumbuil's speech, in reply to the President's second veto was postponed until to-morrow. Exactly when the vote will be taken is not now certain. News has just been received of the appointment of Judge Edmunds, by the Governor of Vermont, in the place made vacant by the death of Mr. Foot. This name, added to the affirmative column, makes 32 votes, according to the astimate of this morning. the affirmative column, makes 32 votes, according to the estimate of this morning. Supposing there has been nochange effected by the result of the election in Connecticut, and the resolutions of the Wisconsin Legislature, instructing their Senators and regislature, the Postsociations of the Connecticut, questing their Representatives to vote for the civil rights bill not with standing the veto, the yeas and nays will be as follows: YEAS—Anthony, Brown, Chandler, Cres well, Clark, Conness, Cragin, Edmunds, Fessenden, Foster, Grimes, Harris, Hender-son, Howard, Howe, Kirkwood, Lane (Ind.), Morrill, Nye, Poland, Pomeroy, Ramsey Sherman, Sprague, Stewart, Sumner, Trum-bull, Wade, Willey, Williams, Wilson

Yates—32. NAYS—Buckalew, Cowan, Davis, Dixon, Doolittle, Guthrie, Hendricks, Johnson, Lane (Kansas), Morgan, McDougall, Nesmith, Norton, Riddle, Saulsbury, Wright, Van Winkle—17.

The election of a Union Senator in New Lossey would make the affirmative count.

Jersey would make the affirmative count stand thirty-three yeas, which, with the ne-gative seventeen, is exactly the number of Senators—fifty. Seventeen votes are suffi-cient to defeat the requisite two-thirds, and that is precisely the full number of the op-position to the vetoed bill. If Mr. Dixon and Mr. Wright are unable to come, through illness, the seventeen will be fifteen, and if they should both be present, and Mr. Lane of Kansas, and Mr. Morgan, New York who voted for the original bill should adher to their position, that also will reduce the number of negatives, and even if they should not vote at all, pass the veto so far as the Senate is concerned. It is now surmised that the vote may be postponed for
