UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA. Farewell Testimonial to Prof. Coppe

The students of the University, upon hearing of the intended departure of their highly esteemed Professor of Belles Lettres, and of the English Language and Litera-ture, and President elect of Lehigh University, determined to testify their high regard for him personally and their sincere regret at his departure by presenting him with a sterling memento of "Auld lang syne." This they did with the accompanying note:

RROFESSOR COPPEE: Thestudents of the University of Pennsylvania, with which you have been long and honorably connected, whilst they offer to you their hearty congratulations at your transfer to a new field of usefulness and honor, cannot but express their sincere regret at the departure from the University of one with whom their intercourse has been of unmingled pleasure and benefit.

At a meeting of the students convened for the purpose of taking action in regard to your resignation of the chair which you have filled so acceptably, it was resolved to present you with the accompanying memento, as an expression, feeble though it has of their high esteem for you presently mento, as an expression, feeble though it be, of their high esteem for you personally, and of their appreciation of the inestimable advantages which they have enjoyed under your tuition. Long will they cherish a re-membrance of those gentlemanly and scholarly qualities which, in your inter-course with them, you have exhibited, and ever-grateful will they be for the pure, patri-otic and elevated sentiments which you otic and elevated sentiments which you have inculcated.

Wishing you length of days and eminent happiness in your new sphere of labor and usefulness, we have the honor, on behalf of usefulness, we have the honor, on behalf of the students, to subscribe ourselves your obedient servants, the Committee. following note: UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA, April 1 1866.—Gentlemen: It is difficult to find fitting words in which to answer the exceedingly beautiful letter of the students presented through you, the committees of the four classes, and accompany the very handsome case of silver, their unexpected but highly prized gift. I can only say that while no such demonstration of regard could have been made in a more graceful and refined manner, nothing could have given me greater pleasure. Among my household-gods I shall dedicate this present to the University of Pennsylvania. The letter I shall have appropriately framed and send it down to my children and theirs, as a testimonial—not in official course—but of hearty and spontaneous esteem, never to be extorted and therefore the more highly

Do me the favor to let all those who have joined in this great kindness know how I thank them for it, and believe me, gentlemen, to be, with the sincerest regard for you

Your friend and Professor,

HENRY COPPEE.
The students being assembled for the last time in the second term of the collegiate year enthusiastically applauded their highly popular Professor upon his entrance into the Hall for the last time in his official capacity, in response to which he addressed them as follows:

Gentlemen: As this is the last time that I shall meet you as a professor in the University of Pennsylvania, I have craved and received the kind permission of your provost to say a parting word to you.

I shall not detain you longer than the time occupied in your ordinary declamation, and I am sure you will bear with me

tion, and I am sure you will bear with me if I consume no more than that,
For nearly eleven years that I have held my chair, I have performed my duties, not always well, indeed often imperfectly, but always with a hearty desire to promote the interest of the University, always with a strong purpose to advance the cause of sound education, always with an almost boyish sympathy for the smooth-browed, fresh-lipped young men who have hear fresh-lipped young men who have been daily my companions in the recitation room. In their obedience, respect and advancement, I have met with an abundant return.

Nor must I fail to confess that while I have been a teacher here, it is much more to my advantage that I have also been your fellow-student; I too have been a pupil here; and if I succeed in the new and arduous task before me, much of that success will be due to what I have here acquired in ten years of this normal schooling; much to what I have geined from dell'activity what I have gained from daily contact with your learned and distinguished faculty, and much to my daily practice with the classes which have passed through my hands. Gentlemen, I shall endeavor not to dishonor this part of my training.

For the manner in which I have discharged the duties of my office, I have been, you are aware, directly responsible to another body, the Honorable Board of Trustees.

Let me acquit myself of another responsibility, a moral responsibility to you, gentlemen—students: I have striven to inculcate in all things, reality of life, manliness, truth and Christian honor. I have endeavored to display to you impartiality as a pro-fessor and courtesy as a gentleman. I have held up to you the noble motto of your university, "Literæ sine moribus vanæ." I have not failed; your kind expressions of regret at my departure and God speed on my journey tell me so.

The beautiful gift of silver, presented by your committee; the extremely well-worded and handsome letter which accompanies it, rand nandsome letter which accompanies it, tell me so: and I am happier in these assurances than if, with machine-like accuracy, I had been able to give tenfold the amount of letters without morals and manners.

For your beautiful present I shall make a written acknowledgment, but I beg you to receive in advance my grateful thanks.

receive in advance my grateful thanks,
And new my friends, farewell; long live and long flourish this loved and honored and long flourish this loved and honored College. Happy and prosperous be its excellent Faculty. Thrice happy those bound to me by tender ties who give the parting word to the Professor who now crosses its threshold. God bless you all!

Professor Coppée is about to repair to Bethlehem to make the necessary preparations for the opening of Lehigh University, a new institution owing its origin to the munificent liberality of Gov. Packer. Success will doubtless crown this new effort on the behalf of science and education.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE RAVELS.—Very full and fashionable audiences throng the Academy of Music nightly to witness the superb performances of the forty artists comprising the Ravel of the forty artists comprising the Ravel troupe at present. As may readily be supposed, the pieces are put upon the stage in the most complete manner. Dresses, decorations, scenery and music are all in keeping with the fame of the artists, and whether the piece is "Simon's Mishaps," or "The Red Gnome," or "The Nymph and the Butterfly," it is sure to be illustrated in a superb and costly manner. Young America has improved since his previous visit to our city, and his efforts now are worthy of the city, and his efforts now are worthy of the company of which he is a member. His actions are light and graceful, and directed with an intelligence which make them at all times telling and appropriate. The leading danseuse of the troupe, Signorita Pepita, is well endowed so far as physical charms and developments are elements of ropularity while in pants mind a varyaging.

and executes the most difficult portions of his profession with ease, grace and cer-ainty. M'lle Vandris, M'lle Desiree and Madame Marzetti are all meritorious rists, and fill their respective roles with decided ability. Of course it is superfluous o speak of Antoine and Gabriel Ravel. They are unequaled in their line and have been so for a score of years or more. This evening and during the week, in addition to the already splendid programmes, we are to have the "three flying trapeze," a most wonderful feat, Persons wishing eligible seats should apply early as the heat places. seats should apply early, as the best places are always eagerly taken in advance of each performance

TER ARCH,-Mr. J. E. Murdoch has gained in popularity since his last visit to this city, and crammed houses nightly enjoy his noble personations. This evening he appears in his famous character of Young Mirabel, in "Wine Works Wonders." He will be ably supported. The afterpiece will be "The Kitchen Belle," with Robson, Marlowe and Mrs. Henri in the main parts.

THE CHESTNUT.—"Never too Late to Mend" will be repeated this evening. The Minstrels will furnish the closing portion of the entertainment, their programme being very fresh and spirited.

THE WALNUT.—Mrs. Bowers and Mr. McCollum appear in "Lady Audley's Secret" this evening, the entertainment closing with "Black-Eyed Susan." AT THE AMERICAN a popular and diversified bill is given each evening.

WEST PHILADELPHIA. - A protracted walk through the western portion of the city, this morning, exhibited the unusual backwardness of the spring. Everywhere vegetation seems to be suspended. A visit to the several Green-houses and Nurseries, west of the bridge, developed the fact that the Nursery men are only just beginning to break grounds. Only a few Crocuses are in bloom in the open ground; while the Hyacinth, Tulip and Iris are just appearing above the surface. In the Almshouse grounds this backwardness is especially not be surfaced by the surface of the recent property. diceable, where the supply of early vegeta-bles is an absolute necessity to prevent scurvy. Here everything is at least a month in arrear. Mr. Graham, the gardener in charge, is only just laying out his onion beds, when last year, at this time, the same vegetable was coming in use on the table. Where soup is a daily article of diet, the want of fresh greens is severely elt. The display of pot flowers in Mr. H. A. Dreer's, Mr. Robert Kilvington's, and Mr. James Kent, Jr.'s, establishment, is very large, and the plants in fine condition for "setting out" of doors, which, however, there is no likelihood before the middle of May. Even the pasturage is miserably in-

The police, yesterday, had little or nothing to do, only some cases of vagrancy coming under their notice. In the almshouse, however, there were no less than twenty-two admissions; twelve males and two females, two of which, one of each sex, were admitted to the insane department. Only two deaths occurred in the institution, one in the medical department, (Philadel-hia Hospital), of Phthsis, and the other in the building appropriated to that class of latients of that most disgusting of all diseases of small pox. Quite a number of cases of this disease have been treated in the Louse this spring, the small pox hospital at one time containing no less than twenty-seven patients. They are now almost all removed to the Municipal Hospital (Turner's Lane), to which establishment four were taken on Monday, two adults and two children, who had been sent to the small pox department from the children's asylum. ast week. In a population so great as that of the almshouse, over thirty-six hundred inmates, the greatest care is necessary to prevent the increase of any contagious disase, and so far the Faculty have been pre-eminently successful. The fair of St. Agatha's Church opened yesterday at the Commissioner's Hall, and yesterday at the Commissioner's Hail, and was crowded during the afternoon and evening to overflowing. Each of the principal Catholic Churches have tables, attended by the ladies of the different congre-ations. Their sales were quite large.

This afternoon another of the German Singing Societies—the Young Mænnerchor —will give a concert to the insane in the Insane Department of the Philadelphia Hospital, Alms House, which, from the high character of the vocalists of that celebrated association, premises to be a fine affair. It was directed mainly to showing that certain individuals on the list as voting could not be found at the residence given at the polls. On behalf of Major Weaver, testimony is now to be produced in rebuttal, showing that the witnesses making the canvass for the yoters they could not find were they assert they could not find were mistaken. Some of the voters who could not be found by the canvassers have been produced, while others have been accounted for. The testimony in rebuttal is not con-

FINE ART.—The sixth annual sale of choice oil paintings and pastel pictures from the American Art Gallery, New York, will the American Art Gallery, New York, will take place this evening, continuing to-morrow and Friday evening, at Scott's Art Gallery, 1020 Chestnut street. This collection, amounting to 316 pictures, is well worthy of a special visit. We have noticed works by artists well known to us, whose very name is enough to insure that they must be good. We would sneak particularly of the pastels We would speak particularly of the pastels and crystal medallions. In fact, the whole collection is so well arranged that it strikes an artistic eye in a moment. The sale takes place under the management of Mr. B.

ALLEGED HOUSE ROBBERY.-Before Recorder Eneu, yesterday afternoon, William Alexander was charged with having robbed Alexander was charged with having robbed the dwelling of George Moore, No. 1103 Par-rish street, on the morning of 21st March, of furniture and clothing, amounting in value to about $125. The officers who made the arrest testified that they found a portion of the stolen property in possession of the accused. Alexander was held for a further hearing.

hearing. HEAVY ROBBERY.-Abel Alexander, a colored resident of Germantown, was held yesterday by Alderman Thomas to await a requisition from the Governor of New Jersey. The defendant lived as a servant with John Weldon, at Newark, N. J., and carried off $2,400 in 7-30 bonds and compound interest bearing notes. The property was found under a carpet at Alexander's THEFT.—This morning, a female, pretending to be a beggar, but most certainly a thief, entered the BULLETIN office and stole an overcoat belonging to the faithful porter of the establishment, Mr. Peter Healey. In a pocket of the garment was a book containing a list of subscriptions for the benefit of St. Agatha's Fair. If the thief has any great whatever she will return has any grace whatever, she will return the book.

THE CITY TREASURY.—Nearly $100,000 was paid out, yesterday, at the City Treasurers office, in payment of school teachers', policemen's and other salaries and labor warrants.

ATTEMPTED CHILD-MURDER.-A lady, popularity, while in pantomimic expression she is not deficient. M. Von Hamme, the principal male dancer, is a master of his art, tightly over its mouth, for the purpose, it is supposed, of suffocating it. The cloth was immediately removed, and the child handed over to the care of a colored woman residing in the neighborhood.

LARCENY OF A MULE AND WAGON— John L. Tinsman was arrested yesterday and taken before Ald. Fitch, upon the charge of the larceny of a mule and a wagon. The team was left standing in the street, in the Twentieth ward, and was driven off by Tinsman, who was followed to the Rising Sun village, where the mule and wagon were recovered. The alleged thief was committed ELECTION.—At a meeting of the Board of School Directors of the Third Section, held last evening, Washington J. Jackson was elected to fill the yacancy in the Board, caused by the death of James W. Fletcher, Esq. An unsuccessful attempt was made to elect a Controller, but after several ballotings, it was postponed until the last Tuesday in this month.

Serious Burning.—A young lady, named Annie Russell, aged eighteen years, residing at No. 1326 Brown street, was severely burned about the body, yesterday, by her clothes taking fire from the range. A brother of the young lady was also badly burned, while endesyoning to extinguish burned, while endeavoring to extinguish the flames. FRIENDS OF TEMPERANCE,-An adjourn-

To dress boys well, and with due economy at the same time, is an art. This art has been mastered by Messrs. Cooper & Conard, at their popular establishment, southeast corner Market and Ninth streets; and the advantages of their art are free to everbody. We have examined their superb stock of boys' fashionable clothing, and have no estation in pronouncing it superior in point of taste and neatness of workmanship to any other in the city, and their prices are astonishingly low. Their stock of materials to cut from is also excellent, embracing a splendid line of cloths, cassimeres and ladies' cloakings. Of the latter, which they offer in elegan variety, they are now selling hundreds of yards daily for ladies' sacques, for which they are admirably adapted. LIFE GIVING POWER.
It causes relaxation of the contractile power of the blood vessels of the body and the intestines open their myriad blood vessels and all the albuminous or fleshmaking material passes off from the bowels.

Pure and Healthy Blood Resists Disease. And while there may be no occasion for alarm, those of impure blood are most liable to suffer.

IN THE SPRING MONTHS the system naturally undergoes a change, and HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA is an assistant of the greatest value.

AN INTERESTING LETTER is published in the Medico-Chirurgical Review, on the subject of the extract of sarsaparilla in venereal affections, by Benjamin Travers, F. R. &. &c. Speaking of Syphilis, and diseases arising from the excess of mercury, he states, "That noremedy it equal to the extract of Sarsaparilla; its power is extraordinary, more so than any other drug I am acquainted with. It is in the strictest sense a trnic with this involvable, altribute that it is applicable to a state of the system so sunken and yet, so irritable as renars other substances of the tonic class unavailable or injurious,

TWO TABLESPOONFULS of the Extract of Sar-saperilla, added to a pint of water, is equal to the Lisbon Diet Drink, and one bottle is equal to a gallon of the Syrup of Sarsaparilla, or the decoction as usually made. of the Syrup of Sarsaparilla, or the decoction as usually made.

The decoction is exceeding troublesome, as it is necessary to prepare it fresh every day, and the syrup is still more objectionable as it is weaker than the decoction; for a fluid saturated with sugar is susceptible of holding is solution much less extractive matter than water alone, and the syrup is otherwise objectionable. for the patient is frequently nauseated, and his stomach surfeited by the large proportion of sugar he is obliged to take with each dose of Sarsaparilla, and which is of no use whatever, except to keep the decoction from spoiling. Here the advantages and superiority of the Fluid Extract in a comparative view are strikingly manifest.
