Pennsylvania Legislature.

[CLOSE OF YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.]

SENATE.—The following bills on the private calendar passed finally: Extending the time of the completion of their road by the Frankford and Holmes-burg Railroad Company. Incorporating the Dunbar Iron and Coal Company.

An act to allow passenger railways cars to

An act to allow passenger rathways cars to run on Sunday in Philadelphia came up. Mr. Donovan said the people of his District and the large majority of the people of Phila-delphia were in favor of the bill. He could not understand why the rich should ride in silver-mounted carriages to church, when the poor were compelled to walk. This was merely a contest between the poor and the rich, between liberty on one side and bigotry and fanaticism on the other. Mr. Donovan called the yeas and nays, and the bill was defeated by a vote of 8 yeas to 23 nays, Messrs. Cowles, Donovan, Glatz, James, Latta, Randall, Ridgway and Schall voting aye, and Messrs. Bigham, Brown, Champ-neys, Connell, Dunlap, Graham, Haines, Hall, Hoge, Hopkins, Householder, Landon, Lowry, McConaughy, Mongomery, Nichols, Royer, Shoemaker, Wallace, Wales, Worthington and Fleming voting nay.

Mr. Connell, in voting, said that he was in favor of submitting the question to the people, and would vote for such a bill.

The following passed;
Allowing the Wilkesbarre and Philadelphia Railroad Company to borrow money, and connect with other roads. Extending the time nine months for the removal of petroleum refineries in Philadelphia. Relative to the publication of election notices in the city of Chester.

For the relief of Casper M. Berry, late Brigade Inspector.

Extending the time enabling State banks to become National,

Relative to the election of Councilmen and School Directors in Bethlehem.

Appointing additional Notaries Public in Germantown, and in the Twenty-first Ward Mr. Royer called up and had passed a supplement to the General Railroad law.

During last night's session the General Appropriation bill was passed through the Committee of the Whole. A number of amendments were adopted, among them one which really abolishes the office of Quartermaster General, Inspector General and Commissary General, devolving their duties on the Adjutant General; one increasing the amount for fitting up and completing the State Library rooms, from $22,000 to $39,000; one increasing the amount for the support of soldiers' orphans to $300,000; one striking out the appropriation of $1,000 to the House reporters of the Record; one giving $5,000 to the Gettysburg Memorial Association; and one giving the Governor and the joint committee of the House instructions not to have more than three paintings executed of the battle of Gettysburg. Mr. Donovan made an eloquent appea for the St. Joseph's Hospital, but it had no effect in securing an appropriation.

Afternoon Session.—The following bills One prohibiting any other than regularly licensed druggists and graduated physicians from selling and practising medicine in Lycoming county.

Another, authorizing the Philadelphia
Baptist Institution to sell a lot in the Twenty-fourth Ward. Another, incorporating the Woodland Presbyterian Church. Another, changing the name and reducing the par value of the stock of the National Iron Company.

One, incorporating the Grand United

Order of I. O. O. F. Hall Association. Also, a supplementary act incorporating the Attleborough Railroad Company. The bill relating to the assessments

Philadelphia was postponed. This is the bill on which an amendment was attached giving the assessors an increase of $200 per annum. House.—The following is the copy of an act introduced by Mr. Tingley:

Whereas, The city of Philadelphia, during the late wicked rebellion, contributed largely to the succor of the Union armies passing through said city, and incurred a debt of ten millions of dollars for the raising and equipment of troops, many times in ad-vance of her quota called for by the State and general government; and Whereas, By these and other patriotic efforts her municipal debt and rates of taxation have been greatly increased, therefore Be it enacted, That the city of Philadel phia is hereby released and discharged from a certain judgment recovered against her by the commonwealth of Pennsylvania in the court of Common Pleas of Dauphin county, August term, 1865, No. 18, and of all claims upon which said judgment was recoverd, and of all demands against her by the said commonwealth, and all laws. so far the same are inconsistent, are hereby repealed, and that the Attorney General i hereby requested and directed to enter sat isfaction upon the record of the aforesaid Judgment.

The above bill has been reported negatively by the Committee of Ways and The following bills were considered. Incorporating the Germantown Club.

Incorporating the American Steam, Coal and Wood Company. Passed.

A supplement to the Attleborough Railroad, allowing a connection with other roads, was passed.

An act preventing the Councils of Philadelphia from borrowing any sum more than one-fifth of the annual amount of taxes for any time longer than ninety days without first obtaining the consent of the Legislature, after six months' previous notice, was opposed by Mr. Thomas because it was unnecessary. Mr.Thomas moved its indefinite postponement.

Mr. Quigley said the object of the bill was to prevent extravagance, and the measure was favored by the press and the people. Mr. Quigley caused an article to be read from a Sunday paper (the Despatch) endorsing the measure.

The House refused to lay the bill aside for a second reading by a vote of 24 ayes to 48 nays. The Philadelphians voting in favor of the bill were Messrs. Donnelly. Quigley. Those voting no were Messrs. Adair, Davis, Hood, Josephs, Lee, Ruddiman, Sterner, Subers, Thomas, Wal-Iace, Freeborn and Ghegan. Absent Messrs. DeHaven, Kerns, Marks and Watt.

Adjourned.
Afternoon Session.—An act requiring city passenger cars to take the right hand track provided no person shall be excluded from cars on account of color, was consid-

Mr. Quigley moved to strike out the pro-viso, which was agreed to by 34 yeas, to 32

nays, many Republicans being absent.

Mr. Quigley then moved to go into Committee of the Whole for a general amendment, which was agreed to, and the proviso was reinstated and the pill passed was reinstated and the bill passed finally by a vote of 52 ayes to 30 nays; The Philadelphians voting aye were Adair, Freeborn, Hood, Lee, Ruddiman, Sterner, Subers, Thomas, Wallace, and Watt. Those voting nay were Donnelly Josephs, and Quigley. Absent, Davis, De Haven, Ghegan, Kerns and Marks gan, Kerns and Marks.

The bill allowing interested parties to testify in their own suits passed, The retestify in their own suits passed, and the retestify in their own suits passed. mainder of the afternoon session was occupied with bills of no importance to Philadelphians or the eastern counties. Ad-

Evening Session.—The entire evening session was spent in the discussion of the Reconstruction Resolutions.

Mr. Ruddiman made a lengthy speech on the resolutions and was followed by others, after which the House adjourned.

Meecantile Licenses,—The House of Rep.

resentatives has passed an act for the fur ther classification and more efficient collect tion of licenses from venders of merchandise It provides that in addition to the present classification of licenses of venders of mer-chandise, all dealers who are esteemed and taken to effect annual sales to the amount of five hundred thousand dollars, shall constitute class A, and pay three hundred and fifty dollars; those to the amount of a million of dollars class B, and pay four hundred and fifty dollars; those to the amount of two millions of dollars class C, and pay six hundred dollars, those to the amount of three millions of dollars class D, and pay eight hundred dollars; those to the amount of three millions of dollars class D, and pay eight hundred dollars; those to the amount of four millions of dollars class E, and pay nine hundred dollars; those to the amount of five millions of dollars class F, and pay one thousand dollars. The New Seminary, of St. Charles Borro-Yesterday afternoon the corner-stone of was laid upon the late Remington farm. consisting of one hundred and twelve acres of fine land, situate upon the Lancaster pike, a few miles from the city, which has recently been purchased by the Right Rev. James F. Wood, Bishop of Philadelphia.

At 2 P. M., yesterday, a very large train of cars, well filled with passengers, left West Philadelphia, and reached Remington

farm after a pleasant ride of about twenty minutes. An immense number of people were landed at City avenue, and after a walk of a quarter of a mile, reached the place designated for the imposing ceremony. The space allotted to the proposed seminary is upon an eminence which will add greatly to the architectural beauty of the new and extensive buildings, and afford a pleasing view to those who may occupy the premise

A great number of the Reverend Clergy attended the commencement of the new Seminary, and among them were several Seminary, and among them were several Pastors from distant cities. The venerable Father McElroy, S. J., Reverends A. J. McConomy, Chancellor of the Diocese, John O'Reilly, John J. Elcock, George Strobel, C. J. Carter, J. P. Dunn, F. J. Barbelin and Very Rev. Dr. O'Hara, were conspicuous among the throng among the throng.

About 3 o'clock the Rt. Rev. Bishop, attended by anumber of clergymen in solemn procession, commenced the laying of the corner-stone with impressive services, consisting of prayers, anthems, and responses. as prescribed in the Roman ritual for such occasions. The foundation piece is granite and was blessed, and the usual leaden box was inclosed by the Right Reverend Bishop Was inclosed by the Hight Reverend Bishop Wood, who was assisted as follows: Very Rev. Dr. O'Hara, V. G., Assistant Priest;
Rev. J. O'Connor, Rector of the Theological Seminary, as First Deacon of Honor, and
Rev. J. F. Shanahan, Rector of the Preparatory Seminary, Second Deacon of Honor;
Rev. F. P. O'Neill, Master of Ceremonies.
The following is a list of the contents of The following is a list of the contents of the corner-stone: One and two cent pieces (copper), three-cent (amalgam), three-cent (silver), half-dime, dime, quarter dollar, gold and silver dollar, all of date 1866. D. O. M.—FOR A LASTING MEMORIAL. "On the fourth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the pontificate of our Holy Father, Pius IX., Andrew Johnson, President of the United States; and Andrew G. Curtin, Governor of Pennand Andrew G. Curtin, Governor of Pennsylvania, civil war being ended and peace happily restored, James Frederic, fifth Right Rev. Bishop of Philadelphia, in presence of a large and approving assemblage of the clergy and faithful, laid the cornerstone of this church and Ecclesiastical Seminary of St. Charles Borromeo.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, the Right Rev. Bishop ascended the spacious platform erected for the purpose, and introduced to the immense assemblage of persons present the Rev. James O'Connor, late Bishop of Pittsburgh, who delivered an ap-propriate address.

The new seminary will comprise a centre building 52 by 94 teet; two outlying and parallel structures, 42 by 65 feet, receding slightly from the front line of the centre building, and connected with it each by a wing of 30 by 122 feet; and directly on the rear of these outlying buildings standing at right angles and connected with them by intervening structures of 114 by 30 feet eac are two similar buildings of 44 by 74 feet. It will thus be observed the front line of the building will have a length of nearly 400 feet, with a return of each end of 223 feet, exclusive of an extention to one wing to contain the laundry and other conveniences, of 65x74 feet, which, with the intermediate wings, will be two stories high, while the centre and four main pavilions above described, will be three stories. Also on the rear of the main centre will be a chapel, 42 by 103 feet, capable of containing upwards or 600 persons. The style of architecture will be the modern Italian, without its ex-travagance of embellishment; grace, rather than ornament, being aimed at. The mos noticeable attraction will be a dome on the central edifice, the arcades in front and the arched openings throughout. The main walls will be built of gray stone, quarried on the grounds. The interior arrangements will all look to comfort and utility.

The Case of Bradley T. Johnson.
BALTIMORE, April 4.—The statement that President Johnson had directed the release of the bail in the case of Bradley T. Johnson, a short time since, proves to be erro-neous. The facts in the case are these:

After his arrest on the 27th ult., and re-lease upon bail, entered under protest, Johnson went to Washington and exhibited his parole and pass to Gen. Grant. The latter, under the impression that Johnson under the terms of parole was exempt from civil arrest, wrote a letter con-taining his views to the President, and urged him to take action in the case, with a view to the release of Johnson. This information led to the statement that ne had been released. No instructions from Washington in reference to the matter have the United States Circuit Court, nor any other advices by the counsel for Mr. John-

Rhode Island—Another Union Victory
PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 4.—The State election to-day passed off very quietly, and Gen. Burnside was elected Governor with so little opposition that the vote was very light.

The Journal has returns from all the towns in the State except three, showing a vote for Burnside (National Union) of 7,749; for Lyman Pierce (Democrat), 2,456, and scattering 142. The remaining towns will not materially change the relative result.
Wm. Green is elected Lieutenant Governor, John R. Bartlett is re-elected Secretary of State; Horatio Rogers, Jr., re-elected Attorney-General, and Colonel George W.

Tero, General Treasurer.
The Senate stands 28 Union to 5 Democrats, and the House 65 Union to 7 Democrats. The Union Assembly ticket in this city was elected by about 500 over the Democrate and the Eight-hour men and the bolting Republicans.
