CITY BULLETIN.

THE LATE RAILROAD DISASTER .- Coroner Taylor yesterday resumed the inquest upon the bodies of Robert Burgaman and Samuel Finfrock, who were killed by the railroad disaster in the Twenty-fourth Ward on Wednesday. Lewis Finfrock, son of one of the deceased, testified that subsequent to the accident his father told him that when he had gone down with the line he told the switchman to be sure and have the switch right, and that he would not come up until he had seen the signal. When he came up he had almost stopped the train, when he got the signal from the switch-tender to come on; he did so, only at a rate of three miles per hour. Hugh Kinney testified that he was the regular switchnay testified that he was the regularswitch-tender between the bridge and Haverford; had been there for over two years; was off duty on Tuesday night, having given notice ta the officers of the road; was not acquinted with the man substituted. John Parker testified that he was a conductor on that train for several months; the engineer looks to the signals; was not on the line train that night; after the mails had been arranged, told the engineer all was right to go ahead; the engineer ran very slow; about four miles per hour; heard the signal down breaks; in about a half minute the crash came; saw Young after jumping off the car; he appeared to be coming from the switch house; the switch tender said, "My God! house; the switch tender said, "My God! What is this?" gave him no answer; don't know that he had a signal lamp in his Joseph Sixte testified that the engineer, after the accident, said, "He had had the signal all right, then went on." Young said the switch flew: The inquest then adjourned till to-morrow.

FORGERY.—A bold attempt to pass a forged check on Drexel & Co., bankers, was made yesterday. A man represented that he desired to buy $2,000 in gold, and offered in payment a check purporting to be drawn by James Reilly for $2,562 50. He was requested to take the check to the bank himself and draw the cash, and professing his willingness to do so, he went out and came back in a few minutes with the check marked "good" by the cashier of the bank. But even in this form the check was de clined, until one of the young men in the house could make sure it was all right. In a few minutes the clerk returned with a policeman and the cashier, who denounced what purported to be his signature as a for-But in the meantime the forger had

ROSINE ASSOCIATION.—The annual meeting of the Rosine Association, for the reform of dissolute women, was held yesterday afternoon at the Sansom street Hall. The report showed an increase in the number of inmates in the institution, and favorable results from the efforts of the managers and officers. The Treasury report showed that the receipts of the year amounted to $15,452 60, which with the balance on hand at the previous report treached the sum of $16,141 32. The expenditures amounted to $13,737 95. During the afternoon a number of the children belonging to the Little Wanderers' Home sang a number of hymns, and an address was delivered by Miss Lizzie Mellon, explanatory of the objects of the

KILLED BY A RAILWAY CAR .- Randolph Schwartz, aged four years, was run over and instantly killed by car No. 31, of the Fourth and Eighth streets passenger railway, yesterday afternoon, on Fourth street, near Poplar. It is said that he ran in front of the horses or fell, and before the driver could stop the car the front wheel passed over the back part of the unfortunate child's head, crushing it in a shocking manner. The Coroner's jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

PIANOS-REDUCTION IN PRICE.-We call particular attention to the advertisement of Company. They have made a reduction of 25 per cent, or from $125 to $200 less upon each fine instrument than their schedule prices. They desire to reduce their stock previous to removal to their new quarters. At present their establishment remains at 1021 Chestnut street.

THE EIGHT HOUR LAW.—The Trades' Assembly held a meeting last evening, and adopted resolutions returning thanks to the members of the House of Representatives for the passage of the Eight Hour Law, and also calling upon the Senate to pass the same and requesting the Governor to append his signature.

OIL PAINTINGS.—The closing sale of Oil paintings from the American Art Gallery, New York, takes place this evening, at 72 o'clock, at Scott's gallery, 1020 Chestant street, where the most choice of the collection will be sold, embracing 110 numbers. We advise all who can to attend this sale.

THE MAGNESIUM LIGHT.—The wonderful light produced by burning magnesium is exciting a great deal of interest. Messrs. Wilson & Hood, 626 Arch street, are the agents for the sale of the spiral lights, which are a beautiful and perfectly harmless scientific toy. scientific toy.

A PALATIAL TEA WAREHOUSE.—To note the important changes that occur periodically in the business thoroughfares of our city, is an especial duty of the reporters of the press. To-day we have to an. nounce the opening of the large and elegant warehouse No. 809 Chestnut street, by Messrs. WEST & BROWN the well known Tea merchants, late of No. 140 North Third street. These gentlemen have heretofore bee Third street. These gentlemen have herecolors been engaged solely in the wholesale trade, but preferring to transacta strict y cash business, they have determined at their present stand to retail at wholesale prices. Such a course cannot fail to prove an inducement to all economical housekeepers the more, as the teas are all imported direct by the firm and warranted in every instance free from adulteration. Prom a circular which was handed us, we append the following prices viz: For Oolong, 65 to 85; Fine Imperial, $1 00 to $1 25; Fine English Breakfast Tea $1 00 to $1 20; Fine Japanese $1 20 to $1 30, and other varieties, proportionately low. To be brief, those who would save from 20 to 30 per cent. can do so by purchasing at this establishment, as they thereby deal with first hands and save the

THE VETO AND THE CIVIL RIGHTS BILL.—The Senate did not yesterday take a vote on passing the Civil Rights Bill over the President s veto. and the day was mainly devoted to speech making Some congressional talk is very unprofitable. We can employ our time much better in speaking the praises of the cheap and excellent cold sold by W.W. Alter, 957 North Ninth street. Branch office at Sixth and Spring Garden streets.

New Jersey Matters.

DISHONEST SERVANT.—Yesterday Mayor Budd committed to jail a young woman, calling herself "Anna," on the charge of having been guilty of robbing her employers of various articles. She had lived at service with several families in Camden, among whom was a Mr. Lee, Mr. Hood, and a Mr. Shannon from all of whom she had taken goods. She represented herself as being from the country, and did not think it was wrong to take little articles. Her fate should serve as a lesson to others who have a similar propensity for pilfering.

ANNUAL VISITATION.—On Sunday morning next the Rt. Rev. William H. Odenheimer, Bishop of the Diocese of New Jersey, will make his annual visitation to St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, Camden, at which time he will administer the rite of confirmation. This church, during the past winter has been blessed with a considerable accession to its membership. MISSIONARY ANNIVERSARY.—The third Missionary anniversary of the Sunday Schools of St. Paul's P. E. Church, Camden, will be held in that church, Market street, The exercises will consist of singing by the children, an address by the Rector, and presentation of offerings, with a report of the Schools for the past year.

SLIGHT FIRE.—Some time during last night an old school house, at Cooper's Point, was slightly damaged by fire, which was fortunately discovered in time to prevent its utter destruction.

AMUSEMENTS.

BENEFITS THIS EVENING.—At three of the theatres to-night is dedicated to benefits. For Stage Manager Foster's benefit at the Chestnut a bill of unprecedented attraction is offered. "Never too Late to Mend" will be given with the original cast. This is one of the most striking dramas yet brought out by Manager Sinn. This will be followed by a grand "Pas de Chinois" by the Foster Brothers, a comic duet, a hornpipe and "Robert Macaire." In the latter play the three Foster Brothers appear. At the Walnut, for Mrs. Bowers's benefit, "Macbeth" will be given. Mrs. Bowers appearing as nut, for Mrs. Bowers's benent, "Macbeth" will be given, Mrs. Bowers appearing as Lady Macbeth. The afterpiece will be "The Four Sisters," Mrs. Bowers appearing in four characters. We need not urge her claims. She is one of Philadelphia's greatest favorites. Mr. J. E. Murdech presents his alexicated and claricated will they be honored. favorites. Mr. J. E. Muraecn presents no claims and gloriously will they be honored at the Arch. The seldom presented play of "Money" will be given, Mr. M. appearing in his unrivalled character of Evelyn, with an excellent cast throughout.

THE RAVELS offer a magnificent bill at the Academy of Music to-night. SIGNOR BLITZ will be on hand this evening, as usual, with the Sphynx at Assembly

New Jersey Legislature.

TRENTON, April 5.—The probabilities are very strong that there will be no joint meeting, and no Senator elected. The resolution to go into joint meeting failed in the Senate this afternoon by the contract of the senate of the sen this afternoon by the same vote, Mr. Scove voting against it.

In the House, the resolution to adjourn sine die to-morrow at 12 o'clock, from the Senate, was concurred in.

Both parties watch each other closely.

No one of the majority dare leave his seat for fear a motion to go into joint meeting may be sprung upon them. It is generally conceded that nothing will be done this session.

The feeling between the friends of Mr. Scovel and Mr. Cattell is intense.

The lobbies are comparatively clear, most of the operators having gone home and given up the contest.

Burning of the United States Steamer Convey.

Mobile, April 5.—The schooner Eugenia, MOBILE, April 5.—The schooner Eugenia, from Pensacola, reports the destruction by fire of the United States steamer Convey, Captain Williams, caused by overturning a lamp in the engine room. The Captain and crew were obliged to escape in boats in their night clothes. One was killed and several injured. Nothing was saved.

In Relation to Stamping Instruments Issued Without Stamps, or Insuffi-ciently Stamped. TREASURY DEPARTMENT, OFFICE OF IN-TERNAL REVENUE, WASHINGTON, March 30, 1866.—The first Internal Revenue Acttook effect, so far as related to stamp duties, October 1, 1862. Instruments executed and delivered prior to that date, though they may be recorded afterwards, are not chargeable with stamp duties.

If any instrument subject to stamp duty was issued after October 1, 1862, and prior to August 1, 1864, unstamped, or insufficiently stamped, the appropriate stamp may be affixed in the presence of the Court, Register, or Recorder, as provided by section 163 of the act of June 30, 1864.

Any instrument issued since August 1, 1864, unstamped, or insufficiently stamped. may be stamped by the Collector upon pay-ment for the proper stamp, and of a penalty of fifty dollars; and where the amount of the stamp duty exceeds fifty dollars, on pay-ment also of interest on said duty at the rate of six per cent. from the day on which the stamp should have been affixed.

If the instrument is presented to the Collector within twelve calendar months from its issue,the Collector is authorized to remit the penalty, provided it shall appear to his satisfaction that the omission to stamp it was by reason of accident, mistake, inadvertence, or urgent necessity, and without willful design to evade or delay the payment of stamp duty.

If the instrument is not presented within If the instrument is not presented within twelve calendar months, the penalty and interest must be paid to the Collector before he can render it valid by affixing the appropriate stamp, without regard to the cause of the omission to stamp it at the time of its issue. The Commissioner has no power to comit this papalty.

Deputy Collectors, unless acting as Collectors under section 39, have no authority to affix stamps or remit penalties under section 158 section 158. stamp to be affixed to any instrument is that required by the law existing at the time when the instrument was made, signed and issued. When an instrument is properly stamped under either of said sections, the stamping relates back to the time when the instrument was issued, and renders it from the beginning as valid to all intents and purposes as if it had been duly stamped when made, signed and issued.

The whole amount of penalties paid to Collectors for validating unstamped instruments should be returned on Form 58 with other unassessed penalties, and the money deposited to the credit of the Treasury of the United States with other collections.

E. A. ROLLINS.

Eulogy Upon Tobacco. How many are the moments in a man's life. Let us philosophize for a moment. When the mind, that metaphysical curiosity, that ethereal essence, ever present and never visible, refuses to fix itself; when it floats hither and thither, like the thistledown, seeking some object on which to find rest; when it wanders about from parish to parish, without obtaining relief!

There are times when neither an armchair, with a fender for a footstool; nor a gossip with a pair of glancing eyes; nor a stroll by moonlight; a book, though ever so new, or a bottle though ever so old, can administer the particular balm which our fancies or our faculties require. No! there are certain periods of time, certain points of existence, when nothing in nature can enliven our drooping spirits or restore a tone and vivacity to the imagination but a pinch—a full, fresh and fervent pinch—of snuff, pungent and unadulterated.

There are times when the spirit of man turns in weariness from the wonders that surround it—the glories of art, the enchantments of Naall its wants and wishes, soothes all its anxieties and disappointments, in a genuine Havana. It s the only thing that precisely suits his case. "Blessings on the man," says Sancho, "who first invented slepp!" But what wreath shall we entwine, what reward invoke, upon the head of him who first invented smoke?

A learned Frenchman has said that "it is not every one who knows how to take a walk." With equal truthfulness it may be said that it is not every one who knows how to smoke. There are hose who puff out as much smoke in a year as Mount Etna, without tasting a partiele of it. But to your initiated few, to those to whom Nature has vouch-safed a diviner perception of the beautiful, to them the curly, cloudy column which rises from the lips is ethereal air; it springs up as from an altar, and floats on the air like incense. There is much virtue in a whiff Suppose the antipodes were to arise and carry the glorious weed out of England! We would rather (Rothschild forgive us!) that the Bank should stop payment. Society could not go on. Old Time would stand still, and, taking a pinch of sand, turn his hour-glass into a snuff-box!

A pinch has been the fountain of many friendships. When you cannot converse with a stranger about the opera, or the new act of Parliament, you can tender him your box with a graceful as well as a profitable politeness; and as for a cigar, it is the very symbol of congeniality. You sit in a circle; the smoke rises up in a visible union; 'tis as the meeting of souls!

While many are of the opinion, with Sir Walter and Woodsworth, that smoke is injurious and intoxicating to the intellect, to these we should make a pan-tomimic, yet very philosophic, reply. We should tender them a pinch out of our private box, or a cigar from our favorite receptacle, in the firm belief that they would find a cigar over a cup of good coffee, in spite of Burke, the true sublime and the beautiful!

MR. WHEATLEY Is gratified in again presenting to the Philadelphia Public these old-time favorites, whose genius has maintained through all the changes of their marvelous career, both in this country and in France, pre-eminent and glorious renown as the most versatile, accomplished and graceful exponents of the Charms of the Pantomime known to any stage.

In e Bavels retain, in a really wonderful degree of freshuess, the singular power to attract and to divert which has ever distinguished them, and Mr. Wheatley trusts that the engagement which he has now great pleasure in announcing, may renew in effect the happiest triumphs associated with their fame.

The peculiar attractions of the Ravel's repertoire—comprising several entirely new to the public of Philadelphia—will be produced in a style of elegance and completeness which Mr. Wheatley will endeavor to render worthy of his own reputation and of their FRIDAY EVENING, April 6th,
