"SPRING FEVER,"—The feeling of prostration and lassitude that is now so prevalent, and which is generally kn.wn as "Spring Fever," is a much more serious matter than many persons imagine. The chanve from winter to Spring is generally followed by a corresponding relaxation of the human system, and healthful stimulants are as necessary to the maintaining of the animal economy as power is to the maintaining of the animal economy as power is to throw the crank over the centre where it is polsed. E. G. Whitman & Co., the famous confectioners of No. 318 Chestnut street, below Fourth, have on hand delicious articles which are flavored with ginger, mint, chnamon and other active natural atimusants, and we know of no more harmless and effective or delightful seasonable remedies. E. G. W. & Co. have also on hand a choice assortment of fancy confections of all kinds, which will commend themselves to the lovers of pure and delicious dainties.

THE SPRING AND HEALTHFUL CGNFECTIONS.—When the winter has clogged the human system with colds, the use of fine confections, when they are pure, is ofgreat service in breaking up the obstructions caused by celds neglected. Nothing sooner ersdicates from the throat and lungs the dangerous secretions than such fine and pure confections as a remanufactured by Mr. Stephen F. Whitman, No. 1210 Market street. They are universally admitted to be the most delictous and excellent ever seen in the mand not only in families but by private individuals, who have learned that in our dry climate preparations of fine sugar are invaluable in preserving health.
