CITY BULLETIN.

WEST PHILADELPHIA. -The only public excitement, if excitement it can be called, is the continued success of the Fair for the benefit of the Church of St. Agatha, being held at the Commissioner's Hall. It is nightly crowded with visitors, and the proceeds of the sales will go far toward liquidating the debts of the new edifice, "a consummation," among members of the Catholic persuasion, "most devoutly to be Wished."

We noticed, Tuesday morning, in our walk westward, that a very fine block of buildings, five in number, intended for private residences, is being erected at the southwest corner of Fortieth and Chestnutstreets. The material is Trenton free stone. The enterprising owner is a Mr. Harrison, of West Philadelphia, who owns considerable property in that section of the city.

We made a partial inspection of Mr. Rowished.

perty in that section of the city.

We made a partial inspection of Mr. Robert Kilvington's green and hot-house, on Locust street, and found his collection in a fine state of forwardness. Among his plants we notice, just coming in bloom, the very rare Dione muscipulæ, or "Venus's Flytrap," which we have not seen before for several years. The condition of Locust street is absolutely deplorable. In one square, from Thirty-sixth to Thirty-seventh extreet, not a single whole plant exists. street, not a single whole plank exists, every separate timber being rotten. The whole square will have to be relaid.

On the Almshouse grounds, in the vegetable garden, under charge of Mr. William Graham, who has occupied the position of gardener since 1842, considerable activity prevails. Here we saw and culled the firs hyacinths of the season, but they were very few and far between, although on a south-ern exposure. His vegetables, in frames, especially lettuce, were doing well.

We strolled in-doors again and revisited the bakery, one of the most important adjuncts of the institution, probably the most important, as it would be difficult to walk this weary world unless supported by the "staff of life." The whole affair, which in cludes a corn mill, in the second story of the building, which, when in use, requires the labor of no less than forty men, yielding only nine barrels of meal per diem. Were steam employed it is capable of producing forty herrels.

The bakery, which is located on the first floor, contains four ovens, heated by means of three furnaces. The quantity of bread consumed in such a building as the Alms House, is necessarily very large. The usual allowance per capita, is one loaf to every two inmates, who severally consume from 18 to 19 ounces. In some portions of the house, however, two loaves are apportioned to every three, but the average remains the same. The whole affair is under the charge of a chief baker, who is elected annually by the Board of Guardians of the Poor. The present incumbent is Mr. William Ludericz, who has held the position for upwards of eight years. He is assisted, ordinarily, by twelve hands, although the number rose, last winter, as high as fifteen. On inquiry we learned that he was consuming at present 78 barrels that he was consuming at present 78 barrels of flour per week, turning out no less than 1.850 loaves of bread a day, on six days of the week. Of course their is no baking on the Sabbath. This makes an aggregate of 11,150 loaves per week, and of 579,800 per annum. During the months of January and February last, when the House was crowded to its fullest capacity, Mr. Ludericz informed us, that he worked up no less than 105 barrels of flour per week, producing therefrom the enormous amount of 15,000 loaves in that space of time. This is the highest number ever baked in the House. We should judge the occupation of a baker must be a very healthy one, for Mr. Lude ricz is certainly the largest man in the House, and certainly one of the most amiable and obliging.

On inquiry at the front office, we found that there were 14 admissions, 1 death, 5 discharges and 12 elopements. No less than three foundlings were brought in during the last 24 hours. The census of the House, same date last year, was 3,198; 1866, 3,638; increase, 560.

CHARGED WITH ROBBERY .- Thomas C. Werts had a hearing before Alderman Beitler yesterday afternoon, charged with the larceny of a United States Five-twenty bond to the amount of $350, a promissory note and receipt for $1,000, the property of Mrs. Jane Snyder. The accused was arrested by Detectives Levy and Tryon in Springfield, Chester county. He acknowledged the theft, and said that from circumstances he was compelled to take the money. He had lost $150, and the remainder he expended in buying furniture. The pocket book, note and receipt he destroyed. The prisoner was committed to answer.

THE LATE SHOOTING AFFAIR.-William B. Fries was arraigned before Ald. Beitler yesterday afternoon, charged with shooting and severely wounding Frederick Robinson, bartender in Mr. Stewart's saloon, Fifth and Walnut streets, on Tuesday evening. Mr. James Stewart, Alderman Dougherty and Sergeant Crout were examined as witnesses but no new facts other than those published in yesterday's RULLETIN were brought to light. The accused was committed to await the result of the injuries inflicted.

DARING BURGLARY .- The dwelling of Mr. C. B. Barrett, No. 1704 Wallace street, was entered last night through a back window over a shed. A lot of spoons, forks and clothing were stolen. The burglars got into the sleeping apartment of Mr. Barrett and took his watch and pocket-book from under the pillow upon which he was sleeping. Previous to their departure the thieves proceeded to the kitchen and set out and disposed of quite a repast.

RIOT, &c.-Before Alderman Hutchinson this morning, John McAleer, aged 17 years, was charged with riot and assault and battery. It seems that on Easter Sunday a disturbance occurred in the neighborhood of Seventeenth and Wood streets. Bricks were thrown and Officer Bartles was struck on the head and seriously injured. McAleer is alleged to have been one of the rioters. He was held in $1,200 bail to answer at Court.
