CITY COUNCILS.

The stated meeting was held yesterday SELECT BRANCH.

The resolution of Common Council, authorizing the Mayor to offer a reward for the detection of the murderer of the Deering fine detection of the martiered of the Doubling family was taken up.

Mr. King remarked that the crime should prove a sufficient incentive to the diligence and sagacity of every member of the police and sagacity of every member of the police. and sagacity of every member of the pouce force. Under the circumstances he looked upon the sum of $1,000 as ample for the oc-casion. The amount was quite adequate, and the offer of $5,000 would not be likely to result in any greater success.

Mr. Freeman considered that the Mayor should fix the amount. His position as Executive of the city, and his knowledge of the material constituting the police force, were sufficient guarantee of the wisdom of whatever course he might adopt whatever course he might adopt,
Mr. Barlow insisted that the reward offered should be $5,000. He would be one of ten citizens to make up a purse of $10,000 for the arrest and conviction of the murderer. He offered an amendment that $5,000 reward shall be offered. Lost by a tie vote of nine Mr. Page moved that the Mayor be authorized to offer such additional reward to the $1,000 already made as in his judgment may seem fit. Agreed to.

A long string of petitions and communications relative to the streets, and to the facilities for gas, water, &c., were referred to sommittees.

A report was presented by Mr. Page, from the special committee appointed to inquire into the condition of the affairs of the Gas Works. The report terminates in a resolution that Councils empower the committee to employ the necessary accountants, an expert in gas manufacture and a phonographer, to make the investigation in a manner at once complete and comprehensive. There was a long debate upon this resolution.

Mr. Charles Thompson Jones, President Mr. Charles Thompson Jones, President of the Board of Trustees, stated for the information of the Chamber that the books of the trust had been regularly audited every year since he had held his present position, and that he had understood from his predecessor in office that such had always been the custom.

The resolution was agreed to.

Mr. Gray offered a resolution to sell the guns now in the city arsenal. There were agents of the Mexican government now in the city, and while the speaker would give the guns, a free gift, to the people who sought to drive the squatter Emperor from Mexico, yet as the city could get a good price for them he proposed that they should now be disposed of. This was agreed to.

A bill authorizing the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to extend their track to their property on Delaware river, was agreed to.

Also, a bill permitting the Hestonville
Railroad to lay certain additional track in Twenty-fifth street.

A resolution directing the Commissioner of City Property to display the national flag at half-mast on the public buildings to commemorate the anniversary of the assassination of Abraham Lincoln, was agreed to.
A bill from Common Council, prohibiting the affixing of advertisements to municipal telegraph poles, was concurred in.
The bill to pave Twenty-second, Aulheer and other streets, was concurred in. Ad-COMMON BRANCH. Mr. Evans offered a resolution to authorize the Mayor to offer a reward of $1,000 for the arrest of the Deering murderer. Agreed A copy of the bill which passed the Legislature authorizing the City Councils, at any time when necessary for the maintenance of the public finances, to issue bonds to the extent of five millions, bearing 7 3-10 interest, reducible fat any period between five and twenty years after the date of the bonds, was received, and was referred to the Finance Committee.

A communication was received from the Trustees of the City Ice Boat stating that Trustees of the City ice Boat stating that the Ice Boat is worn out, decayed in her timbers, weakened in frame and unseaworthy, and recommending the building of a new boat, which can be done for $100,000. Referred to the Committee on Port War-

The Committee on Finance, reported an ordinance to increase the municipal revenue. The bill proposes to lay a tax.

1. $1 on each horse and mule owned in the city of Philadelphia.

2. One per cent, on the assessed value of carriages, two or four-wheeled. 3. One per cent. on the salaries and emoluments of office of any officer not national or

4. Three per cent. of all dividends declared by any institution or company in-corporated in pursuance of the laws of the United States and the State of Pennsyl-vania, when the stock is held by Philadel-

5. Five per cent. on all dividends declared by any bank or incorporated com-pany on stock not held by non-residents of Philadelphia. Three per cent. on all incomes of estates of insolvent debtors.

7. One percent, on all furniture exceeding in value $300. 8. One per cent, on all gold and silver plate exceeding in value $300.

9. Three per cent, on the income of all moneys at interest.

10. One dollar poll-tax.

The bill also provides for the appointment some time this year, and biennially thereafter, of a Commissioner of Personal

Taxes to ascertain and assesses the various items of revenue.

Mr. Marcer moved to file the bill and print it for careful investigation. Agreed to.
The Committee on Highways reported ordinances to grade Twenty-second, Alter and Twenty-third streets, in the Twenty-sixth Ward and to open Diamond street from its present terminus to the Frankford The Select Council amendment to the resolution authorizing the Mayor to offer any reward for the detection of the murderer of the Deering family was concurred in. Mr. Stanton offered a resolution imposing a five of $5 for every bill posted or tacked upon a telegraph pole in the city. Passed.

Mr. Taylor offered an ordinance to the effect that only farmers' wagons can use a market stand, and they only for the sale of produce raised on their own farms.

Mr. Evans offered an ordinance requiring all passenger railways, when laying or repairing their tracks, to pave the rail inside and out with cubical granite blocks, under the same paparate.

A motion to postpone fell. The ordinance was laid over.

Mr. Evans offered a resolution instructing the Commissioner of Highways to have a sewer constructed on Filbert street, from Seventeenth to Twentieth. Referred to Suryey Committee.
The sureties of Messrs. Hill and Smith, contractors for cleansing the streets were submitted to the Chamber and referred to submitted to the Chamber and referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. Evans offered a resolution instructing the Commissioner of Highways to carry into effect an ordinance passed in July, 1857, regulating city passenger railways.

Agreed to.

Mr. Griffiths offered a resolution that a Mr. Grimuns onered a resolution that a joint special committee of five from each Chamber be appointed to consider the expediency and report upon the sale of a part or the whole of the Blockley Almshouse property, and the removal of the buildings elsewhere. From our Third Edition of Yesterday, The Fenian Excitement. CALAIS, April 12.—About fifteen supposed Fenians arrived here last night, from Bangor, and left this morning for Eastport. They could have gone by water at half the expense and time.

From two to three hundred men were under arms all last night.
All approaches to the town are strongly and every preparation is made to guarde receive the Fenians. An attack was expected last night, but everything passed off quietly.

The force at St. Stephens will be increased to-day to about 500. A large number of Fenians are believed to be moving east, but no definite information and he gethered tion can be gathered.

Pennsylvania Legislature.

Harrisburg, April 12, 1856.

Senate—At the opening of the session Speaker Flening said that his term had expired, and it was necessary for an election to be held.

Mr. Worthington presented Speaker Fleming with a beautiful gold mounted ivory gavel, an emblem of his office, in the name of Chief Clerk Hamersly, and as an evidence of his fidelity.

Mr. Fleming accepted it as a testimonial from one capable of judging, and expressed his thanks for the kindness of the Senate and for the gift, which he would lay up as an heirloom.

On ballot for Speaker being taken, Lonis W. Han, of Blair, received the entire Republican vote, and George B. Schall, of Lehigh, the Democratic vote. The former was declared elected.

Mr. Fleming said we had now severed the connection of the session and he desired to thank every member for forbearance and support. He was not aware of anything but good feeling existing between them.

The session had been laborious, but he was satisfied each member had done his duty.

Mr. Lowry said the committee appointed had waited on the Governor, who had no ordere communication to make. The Governor desired to express his thanks for the manner he had been assistanced during the last five years.

Mr. Lowry said this was the last communication we would ever receive from Governor Curtin, who deserved the thanks of every loyal man.

Mr. Hall, on being excorted to the Chair, thanked the Senate for the honor. During the session of the Legislature scenes had taken place of every character and of great importance to the state, but in all he believed each member had done his duty. There are lieved each member had done his duty. There are times is discussions when passion sways judgment, but he kindliest feeling between himself and his brother Senators. He congratulated the Senate on the prosperity of the State and people. The public debt had been diminished, and the tax lightened on real estate. estate. In conclusion, he hoped there would be in future no difference between himself and the Senators as to the belief that each and all have endeavored to act right dinerence ceween nimeri and the Senators as to the belief that each and all have endeavored to act right and with integrity.

Mr. Schall then administered the oath of office.
Resolutions were offered and unanimously carried, the shing the Chief Cherk, Assistant, and Transcribing Clerks, and tue other officers.
One was also sdopted thanking Governor Curtin for his, able administration or affairs during rive yearsoft an eventful period in national history.

Thanks were also given to the clergymen of Harrisburg for officiating as chaplains.
Attwelve o'clock Speaker Hall declared the Senate adjourned sine die.

House—Resolutions of thanks were offered by Democratic members to Speaker Kelly and Clerks Benedict Small and Dennison, all of which passed unanimously.

Mr. Ruddiman offered the following which passed unanimously:

Resolved, That in the name of the State of Pennsylvania, we kender Governor Curtin our thanks for the fidelity with which, during four years of war, when our country was ravaged and free institutions were threatened, he stored by the Government and cast the honor, wealth and strength of the State into the scale of loyalty.

Resolved, That by his devotion to his country, from the dark hour in which he pledged the late lamented President the faith and steadfast support of our people, acter, and while readering himself deserving of he has gained for his name an historical place and characterial space and glory to the name of the Commonwealth over which he presided for two terms of office with so much ability, and that he has tempered dignity with kindness, and won the respectant confidence of the people. The presentations then took place as follows—A gold mounted gavel from the clerks to the Speaker.

A gold headed cane from the officers to the Speaker.

The presentation was made by Mr. Ruddiman.

A gold watch from the Union members to the Speaker of the House. Mr. Ruddiman offered the following which passed

The presentation was made by Mr. Davis.
A gold chain from the Democratic members to the Speaker.
The presentation was made by Mr. Pershing.
An elaborate gold pipe from personal Democratic de sanorate gold pipe from personal Democrations of the Speaker; presentation made by Mr. friends of the Systems Markley.

A gold banded tea set, from Democratic members to Chief Clerk Benedict; presentation made by Mr. Boyle.

Democratic members to Assist Chief Clerk Benedict; presentation made by Mr. Royle.

the Receiver of Taxes has been deteated by the following means: The Senate passed a bill making the repeat take effect at the expiration of the term of the present Receiver. A Committee was appointed by both Houses to harmonize these differences. This Committee consisted of Messrs, Connell, Nicholia, Donovan, Subers, Josephs and Freeborn. When the hour of meeting came none attended but Messrs, Subers and Freeborn, and thus the bill was defeated.

The act changing the system of drawing jurors in Monigomery, York, Fayette and other counties, was defeated by the efforts of Mr. Markley, of Montgomery. gomery. The Eight Hour labor bill fell in the Senate. An effort was made by Philadelphia Senators to call it up but it was unsucressful.

The Speaker made a farewell address, in which he alluded to national affairs and the necessity for extending equal and exact justice to all.

Adjourned tine die.

XXXIXTH CONGRESS—FIRST SESSION. WASHINGTON, April 12.
SENATE.—The Senate concurred in the House amendment to the bill to reimburse Missouri for her war ex-SEWATE.—The Senate concurred in the House amendment to the bill to reimburse Missouri for her war expenses.

The bill to provide that soldiers' individual memorials shall be carried through the mails at the rate of printed matter, was passed.

The bill to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to refund the duties collected on produce being shipped from one port of the United States to another, via Canada, before the expiration of the Reciprocity Treaty was passed.

Mr. Stewart (Nevada) presented a joint resolution rroposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, prohibiting distinctions on account of color and the payment of the rebel debt; and providing that when any one of the eleven seceded States shall comply with these conditions it shall be admitted to representation. Referred to the Committee of Fifteen.

The remainder of the session will be devoted to eulogies on the late Senator Foot.

House.—Mr. Washburne (Ind.) offered a resolution, which was adopted, calling on the Paymaster General to furnish the House with the names of Paymasters in the army against whom stoppages are standing, with the nature and cause of the same.

On motion of Mr. Farnsworth (III.) the vote adopting the resolution was reconsidered.

After a considerable debate on the resolution as learing on the bill pending in the House for the relivior paymasters, the resolution was referred to the Committee on Military Affairs.

The next business in order, during the morning hour, was the bill for the relief of Paymasters of the Army, which had been under discussion yesterday.
