The Oath of Office. The President of the Senate has laid before that body the following communi-

SIR: In response to a resolution of the honorable Senate, passed on the 8th instant, requiring me to inform that body whether, at any time since my report of December last, any persons have been permitted to enter upon the duties of office, and to receive the salary or emoluments thereof without taking the oath prescribed by act of Congress, together with other information relative to the same subject, I have the honor to transmit herewith reports from the Commis-sioner of Internal Revenue and the Commissioner of Customs, which furnish the de-sired information. I have the honor to be very respectfully, yourobedient servant,

H. McCulloch, Secretary of the Treasury The Commissioner of Customs says that the following are the only cases in which the prescribed forms of oath have been modified or altered: Frederic J. Lord, special collector at Wilmington, N. C., adds the words, "It being understood that this oath refers only to any overtacts, and not to personal opinions, feelings, or sympathy. H. D. Gilbert and Thomas M. Gardner, inspectors at Wilmington, N. C., and, "provided that nothing herein contained is to be construed to refer to my feelings or sympathy. to refer to my feelings or sympathies. and alludes only to overt against the United

The Commissioner says that no allowance of salary has been paid where appointees have not taken the oath, and that he has distinctly stated to collectors and surveyors that the rule would be strictly enforced. Returns of official oaths taken have not yet Returns of official oaths taken have not yet been received in a number of cases, as follows: At Galveston, Texas, J. Jonsen, night inspector; Charles Jersig, messenger; A. Rickfelson, night watchman; R. Smith, night inspector. At Pensacola, Florida, Charles M. Fennell, clerk. At Appalachicola, Florida, Braddock Williams, weigher. At Mobile, Alabama, C. D. Williams, clerk; J. O. Brien, and W. Trees, watchmen; J. Espala, bargeman. At Savannah, Georgia, C. P. Burrill, clerk; C. K. Osgood, inspector. At Mobile, E. Murraef, inspector. At Mobile, E. Murraef, inspector. At Charleston, E. Wilmot Walter, inspector; Isaac Hargreaves, porter. At Tappahannock, Virginia, Robert Edmunds, deputy collector. At Brownsville, Texas, George Westerfield, inspector.

Westerfield, inspector.

The commissioner adds that he finds that the acting naval officer at New Orleans took the following oath: "I, Thomas W. Wells, do solemnly swear, in the presence of Al-mighty God, that I will henceforth faithfully support, protect, and defend the Con-stitution of the United States, and the Union of the United States, and the Union of the States thereunder; and that I will obey the laws with reference to slaves, so long and so far as unrepealed, modified, or held void by Congress, or by decision of the Supreme Court; and that I will, in like manner, abide by and faithfully support all proclamations of the President, made during the existing rebellion, having re-ference to slaves, so long and so far as not modified or declared void by decision of the Supreme Court, so help me God." This case was overlooked when the previous statement was made. The Commissioner of Internal Revenue says that no assessor or collector has ever been paid un-less he has taken the oath. He reports four hundred and fifty-nine assistant assessors appointed in the late rebellious States. Of returns received one hundred and seventy-nine are unqualified oaths, and fifty-eight qualified up to the present time. The number not received of those who have entered upon the discharge of their duty is two hundred and twenty-two. One quali-fied oath was received from North Carolina, thirty-five from South Carolina, ten from Georgia, and twelve from Alabama.

Internal Revenue Decision.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has addressed the following letter, containing an important decision, to the assessor of the sixth Indiana collection districts

SIR: The first internal-revenue act took effect, as far as related to stamp duties. October 1st, 1862. Instrument executed and delivered prior to that date, though they may be recorded afterwards, are not chargeable with stamp duties.

with stamp duties.

If any instrument subject to stamp duty was issued after October 1, 1862, and prior to August 1, 1864, unstamped, or insufficiently stamped, the appropriate stamp must be affixed in the presence of the court, register or recorder, as provided by section 163 of the cet of 1 page 30, 1864 163 of the act of June 30, 1864.

An instrument issued since August 1st,

1864, unstamped, or insufficiently stamped, may be stamped by the collector upon payment for the proper stamp, and of a penalty of fifty dollars; and where the amount of the stamp duty exceeds fifty dollars, on payment also of interest on said duty at the rate of six per cent, from the day on which the same should have been af-

If the instrument is presented to the collector within twelve calendar months from its issue the collector is authorized to remit the penalty, provided it shall appear to his satisfaction that the omission to stamp it was by reason of accident, mistake, inadvertence, or urgent necessity, and without wilful design to evade or delay the payment of stamp duty.

If the instrument is not presented within twelve calendar months, the penalty and interest must be paid to the collector before he can render it valid by affixing the appropriate stamp, without regard to the cause of the omission to stamp it at the time of its issue. The commissioner has no power to remit this penalty.

Deputy collectors, unless acting as collector's under section 39, have no authority to affix stamps or remit penalties under section 159

The stamp to be affixed to any instrument is that required by the law existing at the time when the instrument was made, signed and issued. When an instrument is properly stamped under either of said sections, the stamping relates back to the time when the instrument was issued, and renders it from the beginning as valid to all intents and purposes as if it had been duly stamped when made, rigned and issued. The whole amount of penalties paid to collectors for validating unstamped instru-ments should be returned on form 58, with other unassessed penalties, and the money deposited to the credit of the treasury of the United States with other collections. F. A. Rollins, Commissioner.

The President has, in answer to the resolution of the House of the 10th instant, requesting information in regard to the rights and interests of American citizens in the fishing grounds adjacent to the British provinces, transmitted a report from the Secretary of State, to whom the resolution was

To the President: The Secretary of State, to whom was referred a resolution of the House of Representatives of the 10th inst., in the following words: "Resolved, That the President of the United States be respectfully requested to inform this House what steps have been taken to protect the rights and interests of American citizens in the fishing grounds adjacent to the British pro-vinces, and whether any legislation or other action on the part of Congress, in his judgment, is necessary to secure these rights and interests, in consequence of the abrogation of the reciprocity treaty of 1854"—has the honor to report that the Secretary of the Navy has, by the President's direction, taken preparatory measures for sending received by a payel force to the feshion seasonably a naval force to the fishing grounds adjacent to the British North American provinces, which force, it is be-lieved, will be adequate to protect the rights and interests of American citizens against any unlawful violence. It is proper to state, however, that this department has reason to believe that there are at present no good grounds for apprehending any collision or any necessity for the employment of force. The attention of the President, and also the attention of her Majesty's Government, has been directed to the question whether negotiation or legislation could be advantage-ously employed in adjusting the differences which have heretofore existed between the United States and Great Britain, concerning the fisheries. The measures taken in that regard are not sufficiently matured to render it expedient or beneficial to sugges any form of special action by Congress at the present time. Respectfully submitted, WM. H. SEWARD.

PORT WINE, -ANOTHER EVIDENCE THAT WE ARE SUPERSEDING EUROPE IN THE WINE CULTURE.—The following letter of Dr. Pulte, of Cincinnati, speaking of the superior excellence of Speer's Samburg Port Wine, is worthy of particular notice, coming as it does from a physician of the highest standing. Dr. Pulte has written several valuable books, on Materia Medica, which are known throughout this country and Europe, and his authority on this wine is evidence of its superiority:

CINCINNATI, July, 1865.—Having examined the so-called Samburg Wine, manufactured by Mr. Alfred Speer, I have no hesitation to recommend it as a superior wine for medicinal purposes, wherever Port wines heretofore were used. The Samburg Wine is pure, unabulterated, of a fine flavor, and storative powers.
