THE ODD-FELLOWS IN VIRGINIA.

Interesting Ceremonies. CARD FROM JUDGE UNDERWOOD.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE.

Courtesies between Northern and Southern Odd Fellows.

Fort Monroe, April 14.—The visit of the representatives of the Greble Lodge of Odd-Fellows at this place, to the Grand Lodge of Virginia, in session at Richmond, Virginia, a few days ago, affords a very noticeable incident of the genuine good feeling, and the general desire of an approximation towards a better understanding between both sections of the country, so long separated by internecine dissension and warfare, as at present existing among the people of Virginia.

The gentleman composing the delegation who visited Richmond speak very highly of the cordial welcome extended them by their brethren of the Old Dominion. The Greble Lodge of Odd Fellows, established here during the war, was organized by persons attached in various capacities to the Government Departments on the Point, and was named after the lamented Lieut. Greble, of Philadelphia, who fell at Big Bethel. It has since become a large and efficient body. The warrant for its institution was granted by the Grand Lodge of the United States, but at the last session of that Lodge it was recommended that it be turned over to the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of Virginia in consequence of its being within their territory.

This transfer of authority was consummated this week in a manner which promises the happiest results and which leads to the belief that the Grand Lodge of Virginia by their action on the case will be solely governed in their deliberations by the high principles on which the order is founded.

From Washington. WASHINGTON, April 15.—Judge Underwood, of the United States District Court of Virginia, has published a card to correct a perverted report of one of his recent opinions in a habeas corpus case. He says: "In that opinion I did not express a doubt of the legality of the late Peace Proclamation, nor was its legality called in question by any one connected with the case, nor did I express the opinion that the writ of habeas corpus could not be executed in one State while the rebellion was not suppressed in another, but the very contrary opinion. My opinion simply was that the late Peace Proclamation did not pretend to revoke the previous Proclamation of President Lincoln, suspending in certain cases the writ in the States lately in insurrection, and I stated that the Peace Proclamation did not include Texas, and that it had not and was not intended to have so broad and general an application as the petitioner supposed, and therefore refused to grant his prayer.

Marine Intelligence. FORT MONROE, April 15.—The brig Undine, which has arrived to-day, from Pernambuco, brings intelligence of the successful loss of the brig Emma, of New York, an American vessel, under English colors, from Richmond with a cargo of flour, bound to Rio Grande de Sul, South America, on the 26th of December, and went to pieces in fifteen minutes, the crew being taken off by the boats from the topsails of the vessel. The English bark Oriza, which arrived here to-day with a cargo of guano, reports having sailed from that port on the 21st of December, in company with the ships Sunday, Eliza N. Bright and Royal Family, all bound to Cork with cargoes of guano for orders, and having seen the two last named vessels off Cape Horn. She had fine weather and light wind the greater part of the passage. The brig Water Witch, from the West Indies, bound to Baltimore, reports having passed Cape Horn April 1st, and saw workmen employed in erecting a light house on the west end of the Key. This will prove a good guide for vessels coming through Crooked Island passage in the right direction. She left no American vessels in port at Santiago de Cuba.

Also arrived here brig Undine, from Pernambuco for New York. Schooner Annie, from James River, for New York. The following vessels arrived in the Capes yesterday afternoon bound to Baltimore, Md., and were quarantined for 15 days. All hands well aboard. Brig Rathway, 16 days from Porto Rico, with a cargo of sugar and molasses. Brig Carolina, 22 days from Mayaguez, Porto Rico, with a cargo of sugar. Brig Chattanooga, 18 days from Mayaguez, with a cargo of sugar. The schooner Clara sailed yesterday for Philadelphia, light.

The Fenian Troubles. EASTPORT, N. Y., April 15.—Nine of the crew of the Fenian privateer captured on the revenue flag on Indian Island, on Saturday night, from under the guns of the British war steamer Pylades. No shots were exchanged and no resistance offered to the capture. The United States gunboat Winoski is at this port. A suspicious rig was brought in by the United States revenue cutter Ashuelot on Sunday night.

Arrival of Steamers. NEW YORK, April 15.—The steamers City of New York and Marathon, from Liverpool, have arrived. Their arrivals have been anticipated. Northern Navigation. ST. CATHARINES, Canada, April 15.—The Welland Canal is clear of ice, and will be opened for navigation to-morrow. A good deal of ice is yet in the lake off Port Colborne, but if the weather proves favorable vessels will be able to navigate through in a few days.
