Fromour Third Edition of Yesterday. From Washington.

[Special Despatch to the Bulletin.] WASHINGTON, April 16.-The specia, Senate Committee appointed to inquire into the propiety of establishing a National Telegram Company, with the view of reducing the present exorbitant rates, have had the natter under consideration, but have reached no conclusion. Some of the committe arc in favor of connecting it with the Posta system, they all favor a change of the preent system.

The cobred celebration has been postponed uitil Thursday, owing to the inclemency of he weather.

The Senate Military Committee to-day unanimously instructed Senator Wilson to report the House resolution tendering the thanks of Congress to General Hancock. The tax bill will be reported either tomorrow or next day. It suggests some important changes, and will reduce the revenue from fifty to seventy-five millions of

The President has just sent to the Senate the name of Henry A. Smythe, President of the Central National Bank New York, as Collector of the port of New York. He belongs to none of the cliques. Judge Stanbury, of Ohio, was to-day nominated for Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court, vice Catron, deceased.

[Correspondence of the Associated Press.]
WASHINGTON, April 16.—The President to-day nominated to the Senate for confirmation, Mr. Smythe, President of the Central National Bank, to be Collector for the port of New York. Samuel G. Courtney for United States Attorney for the Southern District of New Cork, vice Dickinson de--ceased.

It is rumored, and on such authority as to leave little if any doubt of its truth, that Henry Stanbury, of Ohio, has been appointed Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, Sixth Judicial District, vice Justice Catron, deceased. The New York Cotton Market.

The P H was in the act of crossing the steamer's bow, and finding she could not do it, sitered the helm to go astern; falling in that, altered the helm again to cross the bow; the engines of the steamer were reversed, but not in time to avoid the collision. The City of Paris carried away her foretopgallant mast. The crew of the schooner were all saved and taken on board the steamer, and afterwards sent to New York in a tug. The P H registered 95 tons, and was built at Egg Harbor in 1849.
