TFor the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.] The Chestnut Street Bridge.

There is an error in your locals about the Chestnut Street Bridge. None of the hands were discharged, but only suspended until the beams at the abutments and each side of the pier are properly adjusted, as required by the Chief Engineer, S. Kneass, Esq. The number of workmen engaged is forty-two, and as fast as different important parts are in proper place, more mechanics will be put on the work. The curb spandrels are re-"quired to be placed in correct position, and these are secured by pipe-braces and bolts 11 in. diameter and forty-two feet long, with screw-nut and threads on each end. and alternate with 11 inch round swivel-bolts and nuts. These parts of the work have to be done with accuracy, so as to make all the parts of the spans, which are nearly 200 feet in length to accept the weight equally all over the bridge. One hundred and fifty-two spandrels are in their places, and as soon as spandreis are in then places, and as soon as properly regulated, the key spandrels will have been prepared. There are in place nineteen of the roadway beams, and ninety of the footway beams, and there is no delay or waiting for any of the beams, as all these are now at the railroad depot. Over 500 of the road-way plates are ready weighing over 500,000 pounds or 250 tons, and can be delivered at the bridge as fast as they can be placed. There are neces-sarily some castings that cannot be made until about the time the work is in place and in justice to the iron works, there is not, required from them, that is not ready for delivery, a quantity exceeding 50 tons as there are now delivered and in plac about 1,250 tons or 2,500,000 pounds of cast iron, and over 50 tons or 100,000 pounds of wrought iron. There have been placed in position since the ice blockade was remove (say 5th of March). over one million pounds of iron. If any persons desire correct in-formation, it will be cheerfully given them by making their wishes known, as almos daily, from 4 to 6 P.M., some person con-nected in interest is always in attendance It is intended that no unnecessary delay, except for the careful adjustment of the work in all parts, will be permitted.

Fortress Monroe. Fortress Monroe, April 16. — A large procession of the colored people of Norfolk and Portsmouth, in honor of the passage of the Civil Rights Bill, took place in those cities to-day. There were about two thou-sand men in the procession, carrying banners and other regalia, and many were armed with muskets. Over a thousand people lined the sidewalks following the procession, and on its reaching the suburbs of Norfelk quite a serious disturbance oc-curred. The origin of the disturbance is at present unknown. The military forces were called upon and succeeded in suppressing the affair before it assumed any very serious results, though it was reported in Norfolk, this afternoon, that several per-sons, black and white, were either killed or woninded.

An easteriy rain storm set in this afternoon. The wrecking steamer Saxon, Captain Beans, arrived here this afternoon, from Savannah, having left there last Thursday. She proceeded to New York.

The schooler John C. Henry, which was found abandoned in the Chesapeake Bay, a few days since, was sold in Norfolk, yester-day, for $980. The damaged coal on board was sold at 24 cents per bushel.

The steamer De Witt Clinton arrived at Norfolk on Saturday, from Savannah and Beaufort, bound to New York.

From our Third Edition of Yesterday, From Washington. [Special Despatch to the Bulletin]. WASHINGON, April 17.-A delegation of Wool Growers were before the Ways and Means Committee, to day, to urge an increase of duty on the foreign article. They allege that unless some protection is afforded to this interest, they will be compelled to abandon the business and stop their factories. The Senate Finance Committee had under consideration to-day Senator Sherman's proposition to equalize the national circulation among the States and Territories. They will probably bring forward a bill in a few days to carry out this idea. The Committee are opposed to increasing the present capital of National Banks.

An effort will be made to defeat the confirmation of Mr. Smythe fon the New York Collectorship on the ground that he is favorable to the President's policy. Stansbury, the new Supreme Court Judge, will be rejected for the same reason.

The Union Pacific Baliroad. OMAHA, N. T., April 16 .- The Government Commissioners examined and accented the Second Section of the Union Pacific Railroad, to-day. The track is now being laid at the rate of a mile per day.

Scalded to Death in a Boiler. An accident of a terrible and fatal character occurred at the blast furnace of Laughlin & Co., in Pitt township, on Saturday last. The firm use two boilers, connected by a "mud cylinder," at the furnace, one of which badly needed repairing, and on Fri-day last a few workmen, accompanied by a boy named William John Moore, visited the mills to put it in order. The steam communication was cut off from one of the boilers, while the other was kept in operation to run the machinery. The engineer blew off steam seven or eight times on Friday, and the cut-off was found to be quite effectual, On Saturday morning the boy Moore en-tered the boiler to hold the rivets while the workmen clinched them outside. By some means unknown the hot steam from the boiler in operation burst through the mud cylinder and enveloped the boy. He was gotten out with much difficulty, and was scalded in a horrible manner, the flesh hanging in threads from his body. He was conveyed to the residence of his parents on the corner of Webster and Washington streets, Sixth ward, and the best of medical aid was summoned to attend him. He suffered most excruciating agony till yesterday morning, when death kindly relieved him of his torture.

A DARING FEAT.—The Montreal Gazette describes a very daring feat of one of the Grand Trunk engineer drivers. Mr. T. Laughland, driver of engine No. 73, was coming down the line on the 28th ult., with No. 7 freight train, when, on crossing round the curve two miles west of Cornwall, he saw a drunken man sleeping on the track. He immediately whistled down the brakes. which the conductor and brakeman applied as quickly as possible; but the distance was so short that it was impossible to pull up in time. Laughland immediately ran out on the cow catcher, and, as the locomotive came up, hestooped forward and seized the man by the neck, and endeavored to pull him on the cow catcher, but being unable to doso, jumped off with the man and succeeded in throwing him clear of the train. The whole train of seventeen cars passed the place before it could be stopped.
