The Captors of the Assassins and of Jeff. Davis.

The Secretary of War yesterday sent to the House of Representatives the report of the Commission appointed to examine and report upon the claims of parties to the rewards heretofore offered by the Government for the approximant of the approximant for the approximant of the approx ment for the apprehension of the assassin of President Lincoln and of his accomplices, and for the capture of Jefferson Davis.

It appears that all these offers were put forth by the same authority, that of the Secretary of War, and that the last, so far as regards the country.

regards the sum to be paid for the appre-hension of Booth, should, as it is conceived, be construed as a substitute for the two This most important arrest not having been effected at the end of nearly a week after the commission of the crime, a new inducement for securing it was resorted to by the Government, by the offer of a greatly increased sum; not, as it is understood, in addition to those announced in the first instance, but as suspending the same and as representing the full and final reward determined to be properly payable for the service in question. But, so far as concerns vice in question. But, so far as concerns the arrest of Payne, the two former publications must, it is thought, be deemed substantive and operative offers of reward; otherwise, indeed, as his arrest was effected prior to the date of the last publication, and no offer of renumeration, therefore, was accordingly made therein, his captors would be left without any compensation whatever.

Moreover, as both these offers were equally authoritative, and there is nothing to show that the one issued on the 16th was intended as a substitute for that of the day before, it is concluded, in view of the importance of the apprehension of this conspirator, and of the apprehension of this conspirator, and of the fact that abundant provision was otherwise subsequently made for the captors of his associates, that half of the sums specified in the two offers, to wit the full amount of the sums specified in the two offers, to wit the full amount of the sum of t of $10,000, should be awarded to those engaged in the capture of this prisoner. It is next to be observed, that before the date of the offer of April 20th, there had already been arrested, and were in custody of the Government, of the conspirators and accomplices of Booth besides Payne—Mrs. Surratt, Mudd, O'Laughlin, Arnold and

The cases of the arrests of these criminals, The cases of the arrests of these criminals, therefore, none of whom, indeed, are alluded to in the publication, are clearly not within the terms of that offer, and it has been perceived that none of them are indicated or apparently contemplated in the offer of the 15th and 16th, where are promised specific rewards for Booth and Payne alone. It his been concluded, therefore, that neither the party nor parties who effected the appreparty nor parties who effected the apprehension of any of these five, "arrested at the time upon suspicion merely, though subsequently ascertained to be conspirators;" nor such party nor parties as may have furnished information conducting thereto, are entitled to any portion of the reward.

But in the case of Atzeroth a specific re-ward for his arrest is offered in the publicaward for his arrest is offered in the publica-tion of April 20th, and the fact that he was taken on the same day should not, it is conceived, exclude his captors from re-ceiving such reward, and they are, there fore, concluded to be entitled to the same. The conclusion is arrived at that the rewards in question are payable generally as

To the parties effecting the arrest of Booth, the sum of $50,000; to the parties effecting the arrest of Harold, $25,000; or to the parties—for they were the same—who arrested Booth and Harold, $75,000; to the parties effecting the apprehension of Atzeroth, $25,000 to the parties effecting the arrest of Payne, $10,000; to the party or parties furnishing, on or subsequent to April 20th, and prior to the arrest of the prisoner, in each case, any information which conduced to the arrest of either Booth, Harold, Atzeroth, or their either Booth, Harold, Atzeroth, or their accomplices, a liberal reward. The commission in the case of the reward for the arrest of Booth and Harold award as Brigadier General L. C. Baker, $3,750; Captain E. P. Doherty, Sixteenth New York Cavalry, $7,500; E. J. Codger, detective, $4,000; Luther B. Baker, detective, $4,000; Sergeant Boston Corbett, Sixteenth New York Cavalry, $2,546; Andrew Wendell, $2,545; Corporals Charles Beimner, Michael Uriac, John Winter, Herman New Garten, John Walz, Oliver Lorpay, and Michael Hormsley, Sixteenth New York Cavalry, $2,291 gach.

The remainder of the reward, namely, $25,000, is distributed among seventeen privates of the same regiment, $2,360 each.

In the case of the arrest of Atzeroth, the rewards were to Major Artman, 213th Pennsylvania volunteers, $1,250, and to Sergeant Genmill, 1st. Delaware cavalry, $3,598.

The remainder of the $75,000 is divided among seventeen privates.

In the case of the arrest of Payne, the reward is thus distributed:

ward is thus distributed:

Brigadier-General H. H. Welles, Provost-Marshal, $625; Colonel H. S. Olcott, Special Commissioner, $625; Brevet Major H. W. Smith, A. A. G., $2,500; Richard C. Morgan, Chief Assistant to Colonel Olcott, $1,796, William M. Werwerskirch, Assistant to Cololcott, $1,436; Ely Devoe, Detective, Chas. H. Rasch, Detective, and Thomas Sampson. Detective, each $1,005 75, making $10,000.

As to the rewards for the arrest of Jeff. Davis, the Commissioner remarks, they As to the rewards for the arrest of Jeff. Davis, the Commissioner remarks, they were offered by the President, in his proclamation of May 2d, last, in which it is set forth that the sum of $100,000 would be paid for the arrest, within the limits of the United States, so that he could be brought to trial. The Commissioners say the arrest of this chief traitor was effected on May 10th last, near Irwinsville, Georgia, by the 4th Michigan Cavalry Regiment, under the command of Lieut.-Col. B. D. Pritchard, who started upon the pursuit with his command from Macon, Georgia, on May 7th.

Macon, Georgia, on May 7th.

The reward in this case, however, is also The reward in this case, however, is also claimed by Lieutenant-Colonel Henry Harnden, who, with his regiment, the let Wisconsin Cavalry, also engaged in the pursuit, and arrived upon the ground but a few minutes after the command of Colonel Pritchard had taken possession of the camp of Davis.

Without discussing at length the charges which have been made by Colonel Harnden in regard to the course adopted by Colonel Pritchard upon this pursuit, it will be sufficient to observe that, upon a careful consideration of all the evidence, these charges are not deemed to be sustained in any particular; and it is concluded by the Commission that the latter officer, both in the pursuit and the capture, acted in entire good faith toward the former, and cannot be held responsible for the momentary unfortunate collision which took place between the two commands.

It was recommended by Colonel Pritchard that all the officers and men, whether present at the seizure or absent on services, abould be included in the distribution of the :award.

The award is to Lieutenant-Colonel Pritchard, $10,000; Captains John C. Hathaway and Charles T. Hudson, $729 60 each; First and Charles T. Husson, $729 60 each; First Lieutenants Ripley, Palmer, Boutell, Bach-ius, Stanber, Fisk and Hazleton, Second Lieutenants Treat, Bennett, Rickford, South-worth, Purimton, Remington and Murphey, Three others receive $660; one, $555; one, $271; one $239; lone $229, ten $250 each. Fifty-one receive $250 each, and about four hundred $66 to $187.

from the West Indies.

The riotous demonstrations attending the negro procession yesterday, in Norfolk, celebrating the passage of the Civil Rights bill, proved to be a more serious affair than was at first reported. The disturbance occurred in a field on upper Union street, in the suburbs of the city, and originated with the rowdy element jeering the procession as it passed by, and a few negroes inflamed with liquor. Fire-arms were discharged, and, as usual in such cases, innocent spectators were the greatest sufferers. The following persons were killed and wounded: Robert persons were killed and wounded: Robert Whitehurst, killed, and his stepmother mortally wounded; John Whitehurst, dangerously wounded; William Masely, a city watchman, badly beaten, and son so dangerously injured that his life is despaired of; Lawrence Hampton colored against the step of the s Lawrence Hampton, colored, seriously wounded with a bayonet. FORTRESS MONROE, April 18.—C. C. Clay, was released this morning on parole.

Clement C. Clay at Liberty. WASHINGTON, April 18.—The following is the memoranda in the case of C. C. Clay, Jr., of Alabama:—Lieut.-Gen. Grant recommends the release of Clay, because he thinks he may safely be left at large on parole or by amnesty. The manner of Clay's surrender is sufficient guarantee for his observance of any parole that might be taken by him to appear when called for be added. him to appear when called for, and recom-mends his release on parole not to leave the limits of the State without permission, and to surrender himself to the civil authorities for trial when called upon.

The Hon. Henry Wilson, United States
Senator, has no hesitation in recommending the release of Clay upon parole, and has no doubt that he will be forthcoming when his presence is required by the Government.

The Hon, Thaddeus Stevens says that he would treat Clay as a belligerent, unless sassinate Mr

Lincoln, which he does not believe.

R. J. Walker has known Clay many years, and pronounces him incapable of the crime of Mr. Lincoln's death, and when his escape was certain he surrendered himself in hope of receiving a trial. Among hundreds of loyal men who have conversed
