

From our Third Edition of Yesterday

Confagration at Titusville, Pa. TITUSVILLE, Pa., April 18th.—A fire broke out at 11 o'clock this morning, in a small frame building, the corner of Franklin and Short streets, and thence extended in all directions with great rapidity from the railroad track.

SECOND DISPATCH. TITUSVILLE, April 18th.—The fire is now sweeping with irresistible force northward, and seems impossible to stay the fury of the flames until today is reached. The following are among the losers—Dillingham & Coles, machine shop; Union Hotel, Railroad Hotel, National Hotel, Buffalo Dining Saloon, Adam Goods, foundry and machine works; Muller & Michler's grocery; Olmsted & Jewhart's paint and oil store; Granger, Tuttle & Co., grocery and feed store; Muller's cigar and tobacco factory; William Schow's grocery; Brown & Barrow's hardware store, meat market and shoe store; Smith's grocery, and various other minor buildings.

THIRD DISPATCH. TITUSVILLE, April 18th.—The fire has at last been brought under subjection. McMillen & Bryan's foundry, the Pleasant Hotel, Backus & Co's machine shops, and the bakery north of the Franklin street between Raceway and the railroad. Two parties were arrested on suspicion of having caused the fire. The total loss is estimated at $300,000.

The Presidential Funeral Car. NEW YORK, April 18th.—The Secretary of War has finally consented to the sale of the Presidential funeral car, to Thomas C. Durant, Vice President and general manager of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, tenders its use to his company for the accommodation of officers on special occasions. It will leave New York in a few days, for the West, with several Government Directors, who go out to examine the condition of the work on the road.

Release of C. C. Clay. FORT MONROE, April 18th.—C. C. Clay was released this morning on parole.

From Maine. BELFAST, Me., April 18th.—To-day's Progresser says on authority of W. G. Hitchborn, State Treasurer, that the Senate bill for adding $10,000 additional National Bank capital for New England, reserves $1,500,000 for the nine remaining State Banks of Maine.

A new custom house office is just established at Stockton, in this district, and Captain M. Partridge has been appointed Deputy Collector.

The Powers of United States Assessors. BUFFALO, N. Y., April 18th.—Judge Smail, of the U. S. Circuit Court, has rendered a decision in relation to the powers of the United States Assessors. He decided in the case of Thomas Brown, of this city, that an assessor has no right to force any assessments made by him, and which has been transmitted to the Collector and paid, and that any proceeding under such an assessor's authority is a nullity and without color of law.
