From California. SAN FRANCISCO, April 24.—The steamer John L. Stephens, from Mazatlan, arrived with fifty-five thousand dollars in treasure. In the down trip, the steamer was seized at Cape St. Lucas by order of General Corona, and an effort made to send her to Altata, but she was finally ordered to La Pase, Captain Wakeman forwarded to the United States Consul his protest against the seizure of the vessel, or intermeddling with her cargo. Notwithstanding which a guard of Liberal soldiers was placed on board who eles. As a drunken crowd of Liberals on shore was prepared to commit violence, Captain Wakeman deemed it expedient to give five hundred dollars in cash, and a bond for one thousand five hundred dollars more, when the vessel was released, and she proceeded on her voyage.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 24.—Mexican reports are very much mixed, everything depending on the amount of credulity possessed by correspondents. Those inclined to the Liberals assert that in the recent battles near Mazatlan the Imperialists were totally routed, while Consul Guellen asserts the reports are absolutely false.

When the steamer John L. Stephens was captured by the Liberals she bore the Imperial flag, and was engaged transporting contraband articles and munitions of war in boxes marked hardware and claret, and a considerable portion of ammunition was not on her manifest. The contraband arti-cles found were all confiscated. The steamer Continental, from New York,

MARINE MISCELLANY.

The Eastport Sentinel says: The US revenue steamer lashuelot seized the brig Sarah bernice, of Machiasport, on the 13th inst. for smuggling. The brig, on her voyage from Clenthegos to St.John, NB. called in at Machiasport and landed 8 casks of molasses. On her return voyage from St.John for Philadelphia, she made a similar stop at Machiasport, and landed teamusar and cigars a portion of which was found and selized by the cutter. The Sarah Bernice was towed from Machiasport to this port by the cutter, and is mow in charge of the customs authorities. The necessary legal steps have been taken before US Commissioner Downes for the confication of vessel and cargo. The brig is owned by Wm & Pennell, of Machias, and commanded by Captain John Stewart, who suddenly disappeared on Monday night."

Among the marks on the petroleum picked up about 30 miles off the Wight on the 5th inst. are "J D W, A W Lane, Warren, King and Co, Phila—a," MARINE MISCELLANY.
