CITY BULLETIN.

THE ERRAND BOY ROBBER.-William Dehaven, charged with robbing errand boys had another hearing before Alderman Beit-ler yesterday afternoon. Several lads emher yesterday atternion. Several lads employed as errand boys in stores testified that Dehaven met them in the street and desired them to go after a fire-proof key, saying he would hold their packages until they returned. When they came back, Dehaven was not to be found. From one boy he obtained lestings worth 207, from enother he obtained lastings worth $97; from another silks valued at $86; and from another, clothing worth upwards of $40. The case was continued until this afternoon. Dehaven was held in default of $4,000 bail for his appearance.

SUICIDE BY SHOOTING.-This morning. about five o'clock, the body of a man, named Godfrey Hartman, was found in an alley in the rear of No. 450 New Market street. There was a bullet hole through the head, and by the side of the man a large revolver was found. A policeman heard the report of a pistol about two o'clock, but could not assertain from whence it came. The body was discovered at the time named, by a girlliving in the house. The deceased was about living in the house. The deceased was about 53 years of age and boarded with Mr. Trefts, at No. 450 New Market street. He was formerly a soldier. Coroner Taylor was notified to hold an inquest in the case.

FELL THROUGH A HATCHWAY.-A boy, named Charles Wade, employed in the hat manufacturing establishment of Messrs. Donovan & Case, Sixth and Minor streets, fell through a hatchway in the factory, from the third to the first floor yesterday afternoon, and was seriously injured about the head and face. He was attempting to place a bucket on the nook attached to the hatch way rope, and lost his balance, coming down upon his face. He was removed to the Hospital. He resided at No. 785 South Sixth street.

MURDEROUS ASSAULT.-Lawrence Mc-Caully and Wm. Jacoby were before Alderwally and Wm. Jacoby were before Alderman Thomas yesterday, upon the charge of assault and battery. It is alleged that they attacked and badly injured a man at Nicetown. They were committed. Henry Rhail, the proprietor of a lager beer saloon, at whose house the assault is alleged to have been made, was arrested on the charges of abetting the affair and keeping a disorderly house. He was held in $1,000 bail to answer.

IDENTIFIED.—The body of the man found in the Delaware at Reed street wharf, yesferday, was identified as that of Robert W. Smith, who had been missing since the night of February 2d. The deceased resided on Smith's Island, and, on the night of his disappearance, he started in a boat from below Chestnut street, to go to the Telepad. There was much join the Delay. Island, There was much ice in the Dela-ware at the time, and it is supposed that the boat was crushed by it. Mr. Smith was 53

Robbed of his Watch.—An individual who got among the denizens of Seventh and Bedford streets, last night, was relieved of his watch and chain while in company with a young woman named Kate Roach. Kate was subsequently arrested. The stolen arti-cles were sold to a man named John Mor-ris, and were recovered. Morris was ar-rested for receiving stolen goods. The pri-soners were both committed by Alderman

A CHARMING STORY.—Captain Mayne Reid begins a most fascinating fiction, entitled "The Bandolero, or a Marriage among the Mountains," in Satarday Night, for this week. This well-known and popular author has lavished upon this, his greatest work, all the wealth of his cultivated imagination, and the resources of his wellstored mind. It is well worthy of careful BASE BALL.—The Athletic Base Ball Club will inaugurate the season to morrow afternoon. The opening game will be played by two nines, of which McBride and Pratt will be the pitchers, and Klinefelder and Dock-ney the catchers. Several new members of the Club will appear in the game to-morrow. The Club expects to secure the cham-pionship of the United States during this CRICKET.—The Young America Club, of Germantown, will open the season to-morrow, with the usual club match, first eleven against next twenty-two. All interested in the game are invited to attend. The matches with the local and New York and Pottsville clubs make it a busy prospect for the cricketers this year.

STEALING FENCE RAILS.—For some time past Messrs. Chas. Thomson Jones and A. D. Levering have been annoyed by the removal of the rails from fences upon their property. Yesterday Daniel Megonegal was caught in the act of carrying off a rail. However errested and after a hearing before He was arrested, and, after a hearing before Alderman Ramsdell, was sent to prison.

TAPPING A TILL.-A youth named Michael Connelly was arrested yesterday at Second and Union streets, upon the charge of having stolen $12 from the money drawer of a lager beer saloon in that va-cinity. He was sent below by Alderman

· Home for Little Wanderers.--A par-• for fair is now being held at No. 2118 Green street, for the benefit of the Home for Little Wanderers. The tables are well filled with * variety of useful and ornamental articles. Accident.-William Donahoe, aged 40 years, living in Ellsworth street, below Tenth, broke his collar bone by falling from a building. He was conveyed to the Penn-sylvania Hospital.

THE TRIAL.—Public attention is absorbed by a great trial now going on in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, and the interest in the case seems to in-Terminer, and the interest in the case seems to increase hourly. To us, however, few things are so interesting as the amount of custom evjoyed by that extensive and popular coal dealer, W. W. Alter.
