From Washington.
(Special Despace to the Bulletin.]
WASHINGTON, April 27.—The friends of the bill to equalize bounties look upon the letter of Commissioner Wells to Secretary McCulloch upon that subject as fatal to that important measure.
Secretary Seward has been requested to call attention to Congress to the fact that steamers arriving at different ports which are largely overcrowded with passengers is the most, fruitful source of cholera. He will therefore immediately call the attention of Congress to the matter with the view, if possible, to prevent, during the cholera season, this frightful evil.
The Senate, in executive session, gesterday, did not have under consideration appointments. They have not been acted upon in committee.
The Judiciary Committee had another session, to-day, but did not come to any or the large one of the Pannsylvania appointments. They have not been acted upon in committee.
The Judiciary Committee had another session, to-day, but did not come to any of the Pennsylvania appointments. They have not been acted upon in committee.

session, to-day, but did not come to any conclusion in regard to the Jeff. Davis affair.

The Fenians.

PORTLAND, Me., April 27 .- The steamer New Brunswick arrived from Eastport, this morning, with two hundred Fenians. On leaving for Boston, several who had gone ashore were left behind. At the entrance o the harbor the Fenians, who were spoiling for a fight, mutinied, drew their pistols on their officers, and obliged the captain to put back. Some of the ringleaders were put ashore and sent on by rail, and the boat proceeded at nine o'clock.

From California.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 26.-The California State Telegraph Company to-day served an injunction on the United States Pacific Telegraph Company, to prevent the latter from doing business between certain points in California.

The Brig Ida S. Rogers, Norton, from Kanagawa, arrived to-day.

Fire at Detroit.

DETROIT, April 27.-The passenger and freight depots of the Detroit and Milwaukie and Michigan Southern Railroad, and the ferry steamer Windsor, were destroyed by fire last night.

Mrs. Jeff. Davis.

WASHINGTON, April 7.-There nowseems to be no doubt that Mrs. Jeff. Davis has obtained permission to visit her husband at Fortress Monroe.

From Fortress Monroe.

FORTRESS MONROE, April 27.-Arrived steamer Rapidan, New Orleans, with Company B, 2nd U.S. Colored Artillery, and sailed for New York.

XXIXTH CONGRESS-FIRST SESSION. WASHINGTON, April 27. SENATE.-The bill to establish telegraphic communication between the United States and Juba was taken up on a question to concur in the House amend-ments. The senate refused to concur, and a Com-mittee of Conference was appointed. Mr. Wilson (Mass.) offered a resolution granting the-nes of the Fenate Chamber to James K. Murdoch to pive readings, on Thursday evening next, in ald of the fund for the establishment of a Soldiers' and Sallors' Orphan Asylum.
