nians here. The Fenians in New York. The Roberts-Sweeny headquarters begin The Roberts-Sweeny headquarters begin to wear a martial aspect, quite different from the quiet halls of Union Square. The two chief leaders, President Roberts and Gen. Sweeny, are closeted together for many hours each day. The arms and sinews of war have aggregated to immense quantities. Owing to the explosion of the Killian O'Mahony movement, it is claimed by the others that the confidence in all Fenianism is somewhat staggered. The funds they say are not given now by the masses, and that only "the initiated" are subscribing. It is stated that the sum of sixty thousand dollars was subsorbed by the ten Senators and President Roberts, the latter giving twenty-five thou-send of the amount. This seemed a sort of last resort to secure a fight, even at the eleventh hour.—Herald eleventh hour,-Herald.
