CITY RULLETIN.

WEST PHILADELPHIA .- Although yes-WEST PHILADELPHIA.—Although yesterday was somewhat blustery the attendance at all the churches was very large. West Philadelphia is essentially a religious community, and the inhabitants thereof generally turn out, rain or shine, especially the ladies, who are always there, as everywhere else, when good is to be done or a good example set, largely in the majority. At the "Berean" (Baptist) the Rev. Mr. Cooper officiated merning and evening, Mr. C is regarded as one of the most eloquent and scholastic divines west of the bridge. At the Thirty-eighth Street Church Rev. James H. Castle performed a similar duty, adding in the evening two baptisms to the regular service. At the Walnut Street Presbyterian Church Rev. Mr. Richards, of Reading, Pa., preached to a large auditory, the pastor, Rev. J. G. Butler, D. D., taking his place in the pulpit of that inland city. At the "Asbury" (Methodist Episcopal) Rev. Mr. Lybrand was at his post. St. James (Catholic) was, as usual, in the hands of Rev. Fathers Martin and O'Malley. msual, in the hands of Rev. Fathers Martin and U-Malley.

The services at the Insane Department, Alms-house, were conducted by Rev. Mr. Reeves, assisted by Rev. Francis C. Pearson. The music was as fine as on for mer occasions.

The repairs on the track of the Pennsylvania State Central Railroad are completed in the section before Central Kairosa are completed in the section before reported.

The Chestnut street bridge remains in abeyance. Early in the week a soow, laden with castings, from Kaighn's Point, was moored under the editice. It sprang aleak, and the waters that knew it know it no more. It reposes under the last arch, on the city side, on the bottom of the river. Since this untoward accident business seems to have been altogether susmended.

dent business seems to have been altogether suspended.

The police, on Saturday, had only four cases of drunkenness; locked up until Funday morning, when they were all committed. A brute dishonoring the shape of a man calling himself John Weberly, was sent below for badly beating his wife and afterward assaulting the officer.

The only arrest made yesterday, was of a woman. csiling herself Elizabeth Smith, on "suspicion of larceny." She was held for a further hearing.

At the Almshouse there were 16 admissions, 10 female and 6 male—the ladies being in the preponderance; 4 deaths, 1 in Insane Department; 1 in "Black Nursery." In in the Surgical, and 1 in the Children's Asylum; while 26 were discharged—23 ladies and 7 gentlemen. Yesterday there was 1 birth, 1 death, 1 discharge, 1 admitted, while 7 ran away in spite of the windy weather.

Census, to-day, 2.05: last year, 2.577; increase 428. The population is slightly diminishing.

The object of the committee is to satisfy the feeling of dissatisfaction among the Fenians of this city, which is daily growing stronger.
