AMUSEMENTS. THE CHESTNUT:—With the close of this week the engagement of Miss Maggie Mitchell ends. This even-ing she will appear as the heroine of "Little Barefoot," lng she will appear as the heroine of "Little Barefoot," a pleasing drama bearing a close analogy to "Fanchon" She will be supported by Mr. J. W. Coilier and the ablest members of the company. On Saturday Manager Sinn takes a benefit, the entertainment being both in the afternoon and evening. Extra attractions will be offered and the patrons of the theatre will turn out in full force. We need add nothing to our previously expressed enlogies of Mr. Sinn, as we are confident that his benefit will be one of the most triumphant testimonials ever offered in America.

The Abch.—Madame Celeste appears to night in "The Woman in Red," a capital drama made of nearly the materials of "Games" and in which her grace and genius will conspicuously shine. She will be supported by Marlowe, Robson. Tilton, Miss Price, drs. Henri. &c. On Friday Madame Celeste has her farewell benefit. THE WALNUT -Mr. Edwin Bosth will appear to night as the hero of "Ruy Biss" and of "Don Cassar de Bazan." These are two of his most graceful and finished characters. ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—With next week the Ravel troupe who up their engagement proceeding to "fresh woods and pastures new" on Monday week. During this week they present the choicest gems in their repertoire, and they will undoubtedly draw huge andiences. AT THE AMERICAN popular attractions are presented nightly. ASSEMBLY BUILDING.—Signor Blitz, the Sphynx and other attractions make the hours fly fast at Assembly Building each evening and on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons.
