CITY BULLETIN.

THE FRANKFORD OUTRAGE-A MYSTE THE FRANKFORD OUTRAGE—A MYSTE-RIOUS CASE.—A brief item in yesterday's paper stated that Mrs. Hannah Adams, re-siding on Foulkrod street, Frankford, had been attaaked by an unknown man, and was badly injured by something which was threwn into her face. The circumstances attending the outrage are very aggravating, and show that it had been meditated for some time.

Mrs. Adams is the wife of Thomas Adams who is employed as driver by the Decatur Steam Fire Engine Company.

About five years ago a man appeared at the house and presented a note to Mrs. Adams. It purported to be from her husband, who was then a driver on the Fifth and Sixth Streets Railroad, and requested her to give the bearer $20 for a man named Larkins (a tayern keeper near the depot) to be returned at the end of the week. Mrs. Adams objected to the note, as her husband did not know how to write; but his mark at the side of his name was shown to her and the side of his name was shown to her and she gave the money called for. The note turned out to be a forgery.

About three months afterwards there was a knock at the door of the residence of Mrs. Adams and she opened the door. The same man appeared. She recognized him and said—"You! are the rascal who got my money." The fellow immediately jumped in, seized Mrs. Adams by the throat and threw her upon the floor. A severe struggle took place and Mrs. Adams kicked her assailant until he was obliged to desist. She was severely injured about the head She was severely injured about the head and face.

Some time afterwards, a little after night-fall, the same scoundrel knocked at the door. Mrs. Adams, however, refused to open the door. The next morning a note folded up, but unaddressed, was found in the entry. The following is a copy of the rote.

note:
"Excuse this paper Toby, for your money is most gone i thought i would write you a few lines before i left these parts to leave you know i was going but if i can lay hold of your wife again i will run a dagger to her heart or poison her infernal eyes from the sockets that for Larkins the first from the sockets that for Larkins the first thing he knows he will be laying in ashes i am off to night on the iron horse but i may call on you again find me if you can i have as many friends as you."

Nothing was heard of the scoundrel again until July 22, 1864, when Lieut. Summers received a letter in which the police were called emert for not helps child.

called smart for not being able to discover the visitor. It was also said that "revenge is sweet," and the threat to put Mrs. Adams out of the way was renewed. The police who had before endeavored to discover the perpetrators of the outrage, renewed their efforts, but without avail.

On the 23d of September, 1864, while Mrs. Adams was engaged in putting chickens into a coop, her persecutor again turned up. He struck her on the back of the head and knocked her down. As she arose he threw a bag over her head, tied a rope around her neck and dragged her out to a pile of coal. upposing that h her, and as he went away he was heard to say "I've finished the job now." Mrs. Adams was missed from the house, a search was made and she was found on the coal heap, nearly insensible from strangulation, so tight had the rope been drawn.

On last Wednesday evening, about six o'clock, Mrs. Adams went down the alley to call in her children. As she was returning, the same individual suddenly jumped from behind a force and the control of the same individual suddenly jumped from behind a fence, and threw some white pow-der into her face. It has not been ascer-tained what the powder was, but it has in-jured Mrs. Adams in such a manner that her condition is considered critical. Her lipe and tongue are much swollen, and her eyesight is almost gone.

Mr. Adams is unable to account for these several attempts upon the life of his wife, He says that he has given nobody cause to be his enemy, and he is known as a quiet, inoffensive man.

Lieut. Street now has the matter in charge and in connection with the detectives, will again endeavor to unravel the mystery surrounding the case.

WEST PHILADELPHIA.—After two days of blustery, windy weather, unexampled at this season of the year, we have another pleasant day. My rapidly improving district, does not, however, improye in its morals or sobriety. The police had a little more than their usual work. Messrs, Geo. Collins, Andrew O'Neill and Samuel McMenamin were fined $3 each for "drunkenness," and discharged; while James Brannan, having exhausted his surplus revenue, was committed. Mr. James Gallagher suffered the same retribution, for carrying "concealed deadly weapons," Why didn't he keep them concealed? Thomas Carter was "locked up" for the larceny of $5 from of blustery, windy weather, unexampled at he keep them concealed? Thomas Carter was "locked up" for the larceny of $5 from a canal boat, lying at Fairmount; and an old police customer, in the way of "defyin' of the law," away up in Mantua village, his offence "obstructing the streets," which he did, in perfect Milesian fashion, with manure, timber, and every other sort of annoyance, which he carried up, even on the sidewalks, arresting all locomotion "in his ilk." He was committed, but, on sober second-thought, paid his fines, and was "let go" by the officers having him in charge. There are many such "pestilent fellows" as John, in West Philadelphia, who the police ought to and no doubt will expunge.

The Almshouse is improving. Yesterday,

The Almshouse is improving. Yesterday, there were 19 admissions, 2 births, 30 discharges, and only one death, while 5, of both sexes, eloped. The census of to-day is 2,990. Same date last year, 2,572. Increase, 418. The lowest figures yet.

BAD Boys.—A lad was attacked last evening at Seventh and Sylvester streets by a mg at Seventh and Sylvester streets by a number of other boys who threw stones at him. He was struck upon the head by one of the missiles and had his skull fractured. His recovery is considered doubtful. Two of the young rioters were arrested and were committed by Alderman Lutz. committed by Alderman Lutz.

A Case of Conscience,—We were shown this morning a five dollar national bank note which was anonymously received by Mr. W. G. Huey, the banker. It was accompanied by the following memorandum: 'Overpaid in the winter of 1865."

LARCENY. -Byron Wilhelm was arrested. esterday, at Front and Prime streets, for the larceny of clothing valued at $80, from the room of a man who resides in the same house with him. Wilhelm was taken before Alderman Toland, and was held in $1,000 bail to answer, BREACH OF ORDINANCE.—A man was arrested, yesterday, for violating an ordinance of the city, by driving on the sidewalk, at Thirty-sixth and Hamilton streets. The manal penalty was imposed.

RESIGNED.-Sergeant Wm. J. Ovens, of the Fifth District Police, has resigned his position in consequence of having been elected Assessor of the Seventh Ward.

THE MONITOR MONADNOCK AND THE SPANISH IRON-CLAD NUMANCIA.—It is known that Commodore Rodgers, in his official report of the bombardment of Valparaiso, says: "I was absolutely certain that in not less than thirty seconds and not more than thirty minutes the Monadnock, herself entirely unscratched, would leave only the mastheads of the Numancia above water," &c. From the description of the Spanish vessel Numancia, previously received, it is known that she is between three and four hundred feet long, and draws twice as much water as the Monadnock. She is eight times as high out of water and one hundred feet longer than the Monadnock; cost twice as much money in gold as the cost twice as much money in gold as the latter did in paper, has ten times as many guns, and her daily expenses four times as much. Her armor is only half the thickness of that of the Monadnock. The Numancia was built in Scotland, and is the best type of the English iron-clads. The impression is she was originally built for the Confederate service. All the vessels of the Monadnock class were designed at the Navy Department and built at our own government navy yards. GEN. HANCOCK'S MILITARY BOARD, now examining breech-loading rifles for the pur-pose of substituting a new model for the Springfield muzzle-loading rifle, are rapidly drawing their labors to a close. Thus far nearly 50 patterns have been examined, and the best of them are now being tested on strength, penetration, range and accuracy. All inventors, in order to secure an examination of their respective patents, must present them previous to May 21, as none will be inspected after that date. The report will then be made up, and probably be completed by June 1.

ANOTHER part of Mr. Smith's curious biography of Quaker literature has appeared in London. The title is, "A Descriptive Catalogue of Friends' Books, or Books Written by Members of the Society of Friends, commonly called 'Quakers,' from their First Rise to the Present Time; interspersed with Critical Remarks and Occasional Biographical Nations and Jacobs. spersed with Critical remarks and Occasional Biographical Notices, and including all Writings by Authors before joining, and by those after having left the Society, whether adverse or not. Compiled by Joseph Smith? seph Smith."

THE latest works condemned to the "Index Expurgatorius" in Rome are the following: "Historical Miscellanies," by Bordas Dumoulin; "Science of Mind," by Fluet; "The Problem of Life," by Legrand; "The Temporal Power of the Popes and the Roman Qustion considered from a new point of view," by Turcotti; and "Problems of Christian Cherita"."

Christian Charity," by the Deputy Maresca. Acquittee.—Wm. Hopps, who has been on trial in Chicago for killing his wife, has been acquitted, on the ground of insanity. He killed her with a knife when maddened with liquor. The Republican of that city says the acquittal encourages wife killing, and that in Illinois wife killing, under the maddening influence of liquor, is no crime at all.

ATA recent meeting of the friends of the late Dr. George Petrie, the eminent Irish antiquary, it was decided that his literary remains should be edited and published. The gentlemen who have undertaken this task are the Earl of Dunraven, the Rev. Drs. Todd, Graves and Reeves, Mr. Ferguson and others. Professor Stokes, of the University of Dublin, has undertaken to write a life of Dr. Petrie.

AT THE firemen's celebration in Charles ton, recently, a collision occurred between the whites and some colored men. One of the latter was shot. The young man who fired was pushed into a saddlery shop. A large crowd of negroes gathered round, demanding the young man. The firemen resisted, and there was every prospect of a general fight, when a detachment of colored troops arrived, dispersed the rioters and restored order. stored order.

THE GREAT BRIDGE over the Des Moines river, on the line of the Cedar Rapids and Missouri River Railroad, is fully completed, Missouri River Railroad, is fully completed, and the first locomotive that ever crossed the Des Moines was run over on Thursday, April 26. The bridge is one of Boomer, Boyington & Co's best Howe truss patterns. The contracts for the bridge and foundation were let only a little more than sixty days ago.

THE DENVER News states that Rapheal Grandjean, who has a large plantation on the Rio Grande, New Mexico, brought a train to that city, consisting, in part, of six full grown camels, which were well loaded with wool. They will be loaded with stores for a return trip. These camels have made six trips across the continent from Fort Stanton to San Dlego, California.

An interesting and important decision An interesting and important decision touching the responsibility of common carriers, has just been made in Milwaukie, in which the American Express Company are made to Lay $200 for damages done to a Cremona fiddle while in transportation, notwithstanding the attempted waiver of responsibility exceeding $50 expressed on the company's blank receipts.

Now that the cholera is likely to make its appearance in this city, scores of quacks are making preparation for swindling the people by means of patent medicines, which will be found of no value by the simpletons who foolishly purchase these nostrums. No intellicent person will trifle with a disease like the cholera, and only the ignorant will trust their lives in the hands of the sha pers who advertise "a sure cure for cholera." The quacks who prepare and vend these nostrums expect to make money out of the people by parading numerous certificates, and otherwise causing the public to believe that they can obtain a remedy for the cholera without resorting to the regular physicians, whose fees are known to be quadruple the prices charged for a bottle of the mis-called "cure." It is not only false economy to purchase these medicines, but serious trifling with human life to patronize the manufacturers of these inventions. Where one of these remedies contain any valuable properties, hundreds are injurious to the human system, and instead of warding off or curing an attack of the cholera only aggravate and complicate the disease. We hope the people will not be misled by the flaming advertisements of the mountebanks, who do not hesitate to take advantage of popular fear, for the purpose of making money while the cholera prevails. All who desire to escape the ravages of the cholera should carefully cleanse their premises, and keep their homes well aired and clean. They should bathe frequently, and avoid excesses in either eating or drinking, living on wholesome and plain food, consumed at regular intervals. Pure and Healthy Blood Resists Disease. And while there may be no occasion for alarm, those of impure blood are most liable to suffer.

IN THE SPRING MONTHS the system naturally undergoes a change, and HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA is an assistant of the greatest value.

GIVING BLOOM TO THE PALLID CHEEK

BEAUTIFYING THE COMPLEXION.

IT ERADICATES ERUPTIVE and ULCERA-TIVE DISEASES of the THEOAT, NOSE, EYES, EYELIDS, SCALP and SKIN, which so disfigure the appearance, PURGING the evil effects of mercury and removing all taints, the remnants of DISEASES hereditary or otherwise, and is taken by ADULTS and CHILDREN with perfect SAFETY.

NOT A FEW of the worst disorders that affect mankind arise from the corruption that accumulates in the blood. Of all the discoveries that have been made to purge it out, none can equal in effect Helmbold's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilia. It cleanses and renovates the blood, insulathe vigor of bealth into the system, and purges out the humors which make disease. It stimulates the healthy functions of the body, and expels the disorders that grow and rankle in the blood.

Scroftlous, mercurial and syphilitie diseases destroy whatever part they may attack. Thousands die annually from protracted diseases of this class, and from the abuse of mercury. Visit any bospital, asylum and prisons, and satisfy yourself of the truthfulness of the assertion. The system best resists the inroads of these diseases by a judicious combination of Tonica.

AN INTERESTING LETTER is published in the Medico-Chirurgical Review, on the subject of the extract of Sarsaparilla in veneral affections, by Benjamin Travers, F. R. S., &c. Speaking of Syphilis, and diseases arising from the excess of mercury, he states, "That no remedy is equal to the extract of Sarsaparilla; its power is extraordinary, more so than any other drug I am acquainted with. It is in the strictest sense a tonic ruth; this invaluable attribute, that it is applicable to a state of the system so swiken and yet so irritable carrenders other substances of the ionic class unavailable or injurious.

TWO TABLESPOONFULS of the Extract of Sazapaperilla, added to a pint of water, is equal to the Lisben Diet Drink, and one bottle is equal to a gallon of the Syrup of Sarsaparilla, or the decoction as usually of the Symp of Earasparina, or the decocnon as usually made.

The decoction is exceeding troublesome, as it is necessary to prepare it fresh every day, and the symp is still more objectionable as it is weaker than the decoction; for a fluid saturated with sugar is succeptible of holding is solution much less extractive matter than water alone, and the symp is otherwise objectionable, for the patient is frequently nauseated, and his stomach surfeited by the large proportion of sugar he is obliged to take with each does of Sarsaparilla, and which is of no use whatever, except to keep the decoction from spoiling. Here the advantages and superiority of the Fluid Extract in a comparative view are strikingly manifest.
