EXTRA PROBST THE MURDERER A FULL CONFESSION HE KILLED ALL THE VICTIMS No Accomplice in the Deed!

Anton Probst, the murderer of the Deering family, has made a confession of his dread orimes to his clerical attendant, with permission to the latter to make his statement public.

The reverend gentleman called at the Mayor's office to-day, and narrated the story of the butchery as it came from the lips of the murderer. The confession was me de yesterday.

The first victim was the bound boy, Oornelius Carey. He killed him by the ditch, and concealed his body in the havstack where it was afterwards found. His heart he says, failed him when he was about to kill the boy, and it was some time before he could brace himself up to commit the deed. The sight of blood inflamed him, and after he had killed Carey he was reckless. After killing Carey he persuaded the eldest of the Deering boys over to the barn where he killed him,

He then got Mrs. Deering over to the barn under the pretence that the cow was sick He killed her when she reached there. The children were then got over one at a time and killed.

This bloody work was all done before Mr. Deering returned home. In the mean-time, Probst had searched the house for plunder, in the expection of realizing a least a thousand dollars. In this he was disappointed, and he then lay in wait for the arrival of Mr. D., who, he thought, would

The arrival of Miss Dolan was entirely nnexpected. She went into the hause and took off her bonnet, cloak, &c., and laid them on the bed, as usual. While she was thus engaged Probst told

Mr. Deering the story of the sick cow, and also that Mrs. D. was in the barn with the tions between Austria and Italy, but the Italian Government denies having any warlike intentions. animal. Mr. D. at once proceeded to the barn and he there met his fate as the other had met theirs. When Miss Dolen came down stairs the story of the sick cow was repeated, and Probst suggested that she had better join Mr. and Mrs. Deering in the barn. She went there as directed and the poor girl shared the dread fate of her butchered rela ives. The murderer protested to his priest that he had seen nothing of the one hundred and twenty dollars in compound interest note that were said to have been in the posses sion of Migs Dolan. All the money which he obtained was what he had found upon the person of Mr. Deering, and this was mostly accounted for at the trial. Probet said he would have confessed the whole story at the time of the trial; but he was giraid of still further exciting the popular fury. From Another Reporter. Anthony Probst, now in Moyamensing Prison, under centence of death for the murder of Christopher Deering, has made a confession of the entire deed. The state ment was made to the Rev. P. A. M. Grunther, his spiritual adviser, yesterday afiernoon.

Carey was killed first with the big axe. Carey was at work by the ditch, and the murderer struck him from behind. He raised the axe three times before he had nerve enough to strike the fatal blow. Not son, of the Saturday Evening Post, who have a press room in the basement. The first form of the Post had been printed and the papers were rnined by water. This week's issue will, therefore, be necessarily delayed. The steel plates of the Ladies Irriend were also spolled. The Philadelphia Abend Post, Saturday Night, Sunday Mer- cury, and Sunday School Times were all printed in the basement, and the proprie-tors all suffered more or less by damage to paper from water. The preses were not paper from water. The presses were not injured. There is a sufficient insurance to cover the losses in the press room. The Northern Liberty steam fire engine was engaged this morning in pumping out the water from the cellar. COUNTERFEIT MONEY .- James Bartram.

Sr., and James Bartram, Jr., were arrested on Saturday in Roxborough upon the charge of having in their possession counterfeit $20 notes of the First National Bank of Portand, Connecticut. Young Bartram is al leged to have passed one of the notes. The accused were held for a hearing before the U. S. Commissioner. From information received, Sergeant Cameron and officer Reever, of the Twenty-first Ward, yester-day proceeded to a house on Brown street below Twelfth, and there captured Robert Cooper, alias Wilson, an old counterfeiter, who has spent about twenty years of his life in prison. On his person were found $120 in bogue notes. Cooper was also held for a hearing before the U. S. Commis-

THE FENIANS.

Mass Meeting Yesterday—The Report of the Special Committee—The Exputsion of Killian, Rogers and others.

[From to day's N. Y. News.] A meeting of all the centres of the circles in the Manhattar District was held yes-terday alternoon to hear the report of a special committee which has been in session for several days past, investigating the af-fairs of the Fenian Brotherhood. The meeting was private. It is understood, 'The meet-ing was private. It is understood, however, that B.⁴Doran Killian, J. J. Rogers, Cava-ragh of California, Pierce Skehan and others, were expelled from the Fenian Brotherhood, on a recommendation em-bodied in the report of the committee. It also leaked out that John O'Maboar

It also leaked out that John O'Mahony, Treasurer Griffin, Mr. Hefferman, Secre-tary of Civil Affairs, and Mr. Collins, the Bond agent, have come out all square, after the alcent content of the secret s the closest scrutiny. It is said that a report or address embedying the resolutions of this Convention will be given to the Bro-therhood, in which the whole workings of the institution will be set forth, for the sat-isfaction of all concerned. The good and true men are to receive the praise and merit due to faithful services, and the anworthy and recreant are dealt with as conduct such as theirs deserves.

An account of all the receipts and expen-ditures is also given in the report, and it is said that it was by believe the report. ditures is also given in the report, and it is said that it was by looking at the items of expenditure dishonesty was discovered. The expenditure incident to the Campo Bello failure was very large, and it is to impru-dence or dishonest design in that expedition that the report attributes present dissatis-faction of the Brotherhood. It forcibly touches the subject shows up its promoter touches the subject, shows up its promoters and points out their motives, and to thema and them alone attaches the blame.

It appears that very large sums of money have been transmitted through John Mitchel to the Executive of the I. R. B. in Ireland, during the last few months. There is yet, it is stated, about forty thousand stand of good rifles, thirteen Napoleon bronze guns, large quantities of equip-ments, ammunition, and other war material still on hand.

An iron steamer has recently been pur-chased which cost about $50,000, and upon chased which cost about $30,000, and upon which has been recently expended about $1,000 more in fitting her up and putting her in thorough sea-going order. This yeasel is also on hand, and although the property of a single individual, at the present time, is at the service of the Brotherhood when required.

A telegram was forwarded by Head Centre O'Mahony to Colonel Downing, who, it is understood, is still on the borders of the State of Maine, with a large number of men, "to return at once, as no more money will be sent to them under any circumstances." There was one thousand dollars sent at the same time to enable the party to return home.

A RUNAWAY. - Yesterday afternoon a horse ran off from Fairmount Park, with a carriage containing a gentleman and lady. The former was thrown out, and the horse ran to Twenty-third and Coates streets before any effort was made to stop his pro-gress. At this point Capt. Robert Stewart seized the animal and soon succeeded in arresting his progress, though nearly all the clothes were torn off his person. The lady The lady in the vehicle, though much frightened was not injured.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY .- Farly this morning Geo. Waltman, Neil Myers and John Bas-tian were arrested at Passyunk road and Read street, upon the charge of highway yobhery. They were committed by Aldermau Luiz.

ACOIDENT .- MIR. Thompson was run over by s grocery wagon, at Twenty-third and Call stress, on Saturday afternoon, and was nonewhat injured. She was removed to her remaines, Twenty-third and Linn streets, satisfied that he was quite dead he cut the threat of the lad. Some blood scattered upon the ground, but the earth was torn up and thrown into the ditch. The body was then disposed of in the havrick. Previous to that time, Probst states, he was a coward he feared blood, but after the killing o Carey he felt like a demon, could have kille a hundred without thinking anything of it John Deering, the oldest one of the children at home at the time, was the next one despatched. He was called out to the barp to help with something and was then killed.

Mrs. Deering was the next victim. She was told that there was a sick cow in the barn and Probst asked her to help him about it. She immediately went to the barn and as soon as she got there she met about it. her deeth.

The children were then slaughtered in the same manner, by being entited to the barn. Nothing has been said yet in regard to the mode of killing the bake. The murderer says that he expected to find $1,000 in the house, but was disap-pointed. All the money which he secured was accounted for upon the trial. The $120 supposed to have been on the person of Mra.

Dolan, he knows nothing about. Mr. Deering arrived after the search of the house, and Miss Dolan with him, a cir-cumstance entirely unexpected to Probat. As soon as Mr. Deering alighted from his carriage he was informed of the sick cow in the barn, and went there immediately, not even stopping to remove his gloves. Probahad the axe behind the door, and as soon as Deering entered he struck him. Death was instantaneous. But one blow was given, Mrs. Dolan, in the meantime, had gone into the house and removed her bonnet and The house and removed her bonnet and cape. She came cut of the house and went towards the barn. The horse at that time was waiking about the yard and she asked for Mr. Deering. Probst replied that he had gone to the barn to look after a sick cow, and, totally unconscions of the fate which awaited har she entered that structure. As awaited her, she entered that structure. As she entered the door she was killed in a manner similar to that by which Mr. Deering was despatched. This completed the work of slaughter and the rest of the story was developed by the trial.

Probst says that he has always been desirious of making a full confession, but has been atraid. He wanted to tell the whole story in Court, but was fearful of the moh He was satisfied that if he said that he killed the eight persons, the police force could not save him. He is not afraid to be hanged, but appears to have a great herror of mol violence. By request of Mr. Grunther, the prisoner repeated his statement this morning in pre-sence of Mr. Perkins, the keeper and Dr. Klapp, the Physician of the prisoner.

FIRE THIS MORNING .- This morning about three o'clock a fire broke out on the first floor of a four-storied back building on Hudson street, below Chestnut. The two buildings.
