CITY BULLETIN.

Bockhill & Wilson's Brown Stone Cloth-ing Hall. GRAND OPENING THIS EVENING.

In offering to our readers the following descriptive sketch of what may be justly regarded as the most popular Clothing House in America, we are happy to state, as a matter of interest to our readers of as a matter of interest to our readers of both sexes, old and young, that after many months of eareful and costly preparation, this spacious establishment will, this evening, be thrown open expressly for the grati-fication of visitors between the hours of 71 and 10 o'clock. The arrangements made for rendering this grand "opening" a fete in the business experience of our city are such as to invite the largest attendance, and we opine that the ladies especially will avail themselves of this opportunity of examining the various departments of this simmense Clothing mart. Parents are inwited to bring their sous, as they are certain to be highly delighted with the fine display of Boy's Clothing, of which Messrs.

Rockhill & Wilson now present the largest stock in the country.

The business career of the establishment known throughout the country as "The "Brown-stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson," was commenced in 1843, twenty-three years ago, on Chestnut street, below Third, in a room not half as large as the house now employs for taking the measurement of customers for suits made to order. In 1845, two years later, their business had increased sufficiently to warrant their leasing a good store under the old Franklin Hotel, at the corner of Chestnut street and Franklin Place, where they continued about five years, when the firm re-moved to the opposite corner. Here they remained till 1856, when they fairly set the clothing world in an uproar, and took the public by storm by removing to their present elegant warehouse—the Brown-stone Clothing Hall, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street—which was built by themselves, and in which they have steadily maintained the leading place in this department of the trade and manufactures of Philadelphia.

At the beginning of Rockhill & Wilson's career in this establishment only the first floor was employed in their business—a grand seles, room forty, two foot front by one grand sales-room forty-two feet front by one hundred feet in depth, with a spacious outlet on Sixth street, which marks what once constituted the entrance to the pit of the old Chestnut street Theatre. At the outbreak of the rebellion, however, in the spring of 1861, houses of the calibre and standing of Rockhill & Wilson were speedily brought into governmental requisition, and in a tew months their entire building was found not any too large for the requirements of their new branch, of manufacturing clothing for the army; and, to their credit be it written, no soldier of the Republic was ever imposed upon by worthless gar ments emanating from this establishment— while in the finer department of manufac turing uniforms, few officers felt themselve perfectly rigged, either for service or display, unless their suits bore upon them the imprint of "Rockhill & Wilson's Brown Stone Clothing Hall, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street." Many of these officers, now that the war is over, have become immovably riveted to this house, and are giving among their peaceful orders one that the clothing for themselves and sons shall be furnished only by Rockhill & Wilson. Among the latter may be quoted a no less distinguished representative than Lieutenant-General U. S. Grant, as the readers may discover for himself by reading an autograph letter to this effect from the hand of General Grant, now in possession of Messrs. R. & W.

STATISTICS OF THEIR ARMY WORK.
In order that the reader may form some idea of the automatical states.

idea of the enormous aggregate of their business with the United States Government during the war, the statistics, copied from the books, are given as follows:
Their first order, we may mention, however, was for the State, received by them from Governor Curtin in May, 1861. Its ritems were Five thousand pair of Trousers, and Ten thousand nine hundred and seventy

The promptness and satisfactory manner with which this order was completed, at the rendered the United States Government a gigantic customer, and during the succeeding years of the war they were called upon to execute orders for the following ar-

186,373 pair of Trousers; 56,100 Blouses; 52,200 Woolen Shirts; 101,108 Great Coats; 123,020 Infantry Frock Coats; 1,500 Zouave Vests; 4.610 Zouave Jackets 600 Cavalry Jackets.

The total of these orders amounted to the enormous sum of $3,113,840 34 (three millions, one hundred and thirteen thousand, eight hundred and forty dollars and thirtyfour cents).

In order to meet the wants of the department with the utmost alacrity the house of Rockhill & Wilson grew, for the time being, into a sort of State establishment, employing at one time upwards of twelve hundred sewing hands alone, residing in various towns throughout the eastern counties of Pennsylvania, and western New Jersey, Pottsville, Reading, Norristown, Easton, Eurlington, Mount Holly and other places.

THEIR LATE FIRE AND ITS CONSEQUENCES.
With their newly-acquired prestige, and enlarged facilities for meeting the wants of the public, the closing months of 1865 were occupied by this firm in remodeling their edifice and adding some important row deedifice and adding some important new departments, which had just received their inishing touches when the fire occurred, on the night of January 1st, which materially damaged their stock and effectually unmade their new improvements. their new improvements. With characteristic energy, however, they immediately set about repairing the damages, and turning what seemed to be a great loss into a positive gain. By a liberal and judicious system of advertising they soon succeeded in selling if their entire antediluvian stock (the damage to their goods having been occasioned not by Fre but by water), and as a consequence have how the great advantage of presenting AN ENTIRELY NEW STOCK.

The advantages of this feat into now to

AN ENTIRELY NEW STOCK.

The advantages of this fact just now, to buyers, are incalculable, and must be apparent to every one. All the goods in their house are the latest and newest, as their prices are necessarily the lowest. THEIR READY-MADE GARMENTS have all the brightness and beauty of newly-coined dollars, the style and workmanship of them being unsurpassed by any others in the United States.

THEIR NEW CUSTOM DEPARTMENT THEIR NEW CUSTOM DEPARTMENT is a feature which every gentleman will appreciate. It occupies the entire second story of the building, and is approached by a massive double staircase leading centrally from the rear of the ground floor. It is magnificently stocked, beautifully lighted, and fitted up with every comfort and convefitted up with every comfort and conve-nience for gentlemen to arrange their orders with pleasure and satisfaction.

THEIR NEWS BOYS' DEPARTMENT is also a feature which our citizens will appreciate. We need only say with regard to it that its extent and completeness harmonize with the character and thoroughness of the house in other respects. The Boys' department, with that devoted to Ready-made We need only say with regard to Clothing for Gentlemen, occupies the whole of the first floor, and presents unusual attractions to buyers. Parents wishing to order suits for their boys, from any particular fabric in the stock, can have them made p at the shortest notice. WEST PHILADELPHIA.—Yesterday work more than usual Sabbath-like appearance away out west, among the now rapidly rolinging trees, that sift, with their young leaves, the noises of the busy metropolis. All the churches were well attended, and such a display of spring bonnets was seldom witnessed. The auditoriums, so to call them, looked like great tulip beds, magnificent in brilliancy and variety of color.

At the "Berean," Baptist, Fortieth and Chestnut streets, the Rev. Mr. Cooper officiated, morning and night. At its sister difice, Thirty-sixth, not Thirty-eighth and Chestnut, which is St. James's (Catholic), Rev. Jas. H. Castle was the presiding clergyman. It was Communion Day, and he had a full congregation.

The "Asbury" M. E., was in the charge of Rev. Mr. Lybrand. The services to the insane poor were conducted by Rev. Francis C. Pearson. There were quite a number of visitors from the "village," and the choir had several additional voices.

There were quite a number of hands engaged in replacing "sleepers" on the track of the West Chester and Media Railroad, between South and Spruce streets, on the West Philadelphia side and Market street.

The crossing at Market street and the Darby road, is completed, with the exception of the northern foot-path. On Thirty-sixth street some improve ments are being made. The whole side walk, from Locust to Walnut streets is being entirely replaced; while a beautiful summer residence, three-stories high with three-story back buildings, is approaching completion on the same street, just below

Sansom.
At the Alms House, we give a recapitula tion of the business of the past week. There were 100 admissions, 71 discharges, 13 deaths, 6 births, while 33 eloped. Sunday, there were 4 admissions, 2 male, 2 female; 2 births; 3 discharges, 2 male and 1 female; deaths, 5—, 1 in the "Insane Department," in the "Men's Medical," 2 in the "Sur-

ANNIVERSARY OF THE NORTHERN HOME FOR FRIENDLESS CHILDREN.—The fifteenth anniversary of this noble charity, will take place on to-morrow (Tuesday) evening, May 8th, at precisely a quarter before eight o'clock, in the elegant and spacious church of Rev. A number of beautiful songs and hymns, appropriate to the occasion, will be sung by the children, and a collection in aid of the funds for furnishing the school room with more desks and benches will be taken up. The Union passenger railroad runs directly past the door of Dr. Cookman's church.

Soldiers' Meeting.—At the County Court House on Saturday evening, a large meeting of soldiers and sailors favorable to the National Union party was held. General Joshua T. Owen presided. General Collis, Chairman of a Committee appointed a saries reto prepare resolutions, reported a series re-commending the formation of military clubs in each Ward, to be denominated the "Boys in Blue," and that the clubs be divided into companies, to be organized in accordance with army regulations; also, that the roll of the members of each company be made out setting forth the company, regiment or brigade to which the member belonged in the army. A committee of one soldier from each Ward was appointed to devise a complete plan of organization, the same to be submitted at a future meeting.

THE TABLES TURNED.—Daniel Foley who was charged with having been concerned in the murder of James Needs, the porter at White's dental depot in Archstreet, in Octo-ber last, had a further hearing on Saturday before Ald. Beitler. He was arrested on the statement of Cornelius Boyer and Johnson Kelly. Boyer stated on Saturday that ich Kelly. Boyer stated on Saturday that if he had sworn that Foley offered to sell him gold plate, he had no recollection of it, and gold plate, he had no recollection of it, and Kelly said that he was not positive that Foley was the man. Foley was then dis-charged and immediately preferred a charge of perjury against Boyer and Kelly, who were committed in default of $4,000 bail, to answer.

CITY MORTALITY.—The number of interments in the city during the past week was 265 against 263 during the same period last year. Of the whole number 135 were adults and 130 children—55 being under one year of age; 130 were males, 135 females, 60 boys and 70 girls. The greatest number of deaths occurred in the First Ward being 200 curred in the First Ward, being 20. and the smallest number in the Twenty-second Ward, where only one was reported. scarlet fever, 6; inflammation of the lungs, 22; marasmus, 6; and old age, 11. FIRES.—A two-storied building occupied by R. Manley as a cabinet-maker shop, in Hestonville, Twenty-fourth Ward, was, together with its contents, entirely destroyed by fire about five o'clock yesterday morning. Loss about $1,500

g. Loss about $1,500. Last night, about half-past nine o'clock a fire broke out in the upper part of an old three-storied brick building No. 18 South Third street. The upper story and roof were burned. The first floor was occupied by Geo. J. Boyd, a broker, and the upper stories by different parties. The flames are supposed to have originated from a defec-

SUPPOSED SUICIDE.—On Saturday the body of an unknown white man was found in a pond on North Broad street. There is no doubt that he committed suicide, as a memorandum found on his person reads thus: "For Tommy, at Mrs. Brooks's, Golden Swan Hotel. Please send this to Peter W. Martin, Concord, Delaware county. I lay my body in the Wissahickon. His name is supposed to be J. C. Bennett.

WILLIAM LLOYD GARRISON proposes to devote a few of his deciling years to the preparation of a magnum opur-a companion to Mr. Greeley's American Conflict—a history of the Anti-Slavery agitation of the thirty years before the war. If Mr. Garrison has any spare time he might profitably devote it to a eulogy of the immense coal business done by W. W. Alter, No. 957 N. Ninth street. Branch office at Sixth and Spring Garden streets.

USE DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Always invigorating and healthful, these Bitters are doubly valuable this season as the surest preventive of cholera. He will be supported by the full strength of the company, including Messrs. Marlowe, Mackay. Wallis, James, Miss Price, Mrs Henri and Miss Clara Reed We anticipate a very fine house, as a just acknowledgment of the merits of this fine actor.

THE WALNUT.—Edwin Booth, whose personations of Hamilet last week were greeted with overriowing huses, repeats his representations this week. He will, as usual, be supported by Messra, Charles Berron and J. H. Taylor. The play has been put upon the stage at a heavy cost, and the scenery, dresses and everything connected with it have been made to conform as nearly as possible to the old historical art of the time to which the play refers. Mr. Booth's appearance is every evening greeted with hearty applause

THE CHESTNUT—Edwin Adams, the well-known young American tradedian, will make his appearance at the Chestnut this evening. Mr. Adams is a rayorite with Philadelphia theatre-goers, and should attract crowded houses. He appears in Judge Conrad's play of "Heretic," which is now the sole property of Mr. Adams. It is a play of absorbing interest, and was very ably brought out by bim at the Arch some time since. ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—The Ravels begin their last week this avening. "The Green Monster." the ballet of "Perdita," and other attractive new entertainments will be offered.

THE AMERICAN.—To night two eminent artists make their first appearance at the American. Mr. Harry Pearsen, the Comedian, and Leo Hudson, the Eques-trienne. Miss Hudson will introduce her ramous steed sensation. The play of Mazeppa will be produced that evening, and a fine ballet with aids to 18 other autracevening, and a fine ballet with fidd to the other attractions.

6. B. Howe's European Circus.—This establishment made its first grand parade this morning, and passed our office about 10 o'clock. The procession was the largest, finest and most attractive that we have probably ever had in Philadelphia of its character, and is well calculated to whet the public appetite, for the enertsiment inside the large canvass, which has been erected for the exhibitions on the corner of Locust and Broad streets. The great seteation of the procession, attracting more attention than even the knights in glittering burnished steel armor and plumed helmets; the gorgeously pained and glided carriages, platform cars, the splendid band, charloss, dc., was the enormous live lion, which hay crouched among a group of girls, by the side of his keeper, Mr. Pierce, He is a splendid beast, and seemed to enjoy his large eyes, a sort of a hungering was deceded, in his large eyes, a sort of a hungering—of after the liveniles, who througed around him. The sight was quite a novelty, and the whole affair speaks loudly in favor of the enterprise and liberality of the management. The first performance will be given at two o'clock this afternoon. The evening performances will continue during the entire week, but see louge.

Sienor Blitz still draws full houses at the Assembly Buildings. The Sphynx is an attraction that draws crowds of people. He is a great fellow among the young folks.

BENEFIT OF MISS DE MARGUERITTES.-To-morrow evening at the Arch a grand complimentary benefit will be given to Miss Noemle de Marguerittes. She will appear in "Fanchon," in which she made so favorable an impression at the Walnut recently. She will also present a new play called "The Ambassador's Wife," which is to be very attractive. She will have one of the very finest houses of the season. In fact the scats are nearly all sold already.
