From our Third Edition of Yesterday. THE FENIANS.

Mass Meeting Yesterday—The Report of the Special Committee—The Exputsion of Killian, Rogers and others.

[From to-day's N. Y. News.] A meeting of all the centres of the circles in the Manhattan District was held yesterday afternoon to hear the report of a special committee which has been in session for several days past, investigating the affairs of the Fenian Brotherhood. The meeting was private. It is understood, however, that B. Doran Killian, J. J. Rogers, Cavanagh of California, Pierce Skehan and others, were expelled from the Fenian Brotherhood, on a recommendation embodied in the report of the committee.

It also leaked out that John O'Mahony, Treasurer Griffin, Mr. Hefferman, Secre-tary of Civil Affairs, and Mr. Collins, the Bond agent, have come out all square, after the closest scrutiny. It is said that a report or address embodying the resolutions of this Convention will be given to the Bro-therhood, in which the whole workings of the institution will be set forth, for the isfaction of all concerned. The good and true men are to receive the praise and merit due to faithful services, and the unworthy and recreant are dealt with as conduct such as theirs deserves,

An account of all the receipts and expenditures is also given in the report, and it is said that it was by looking at the items of expenditure dishonesty was discovered. The expenditure incident to the Campo Bello failure was very large, and it is to imprudence or dishonest design in that expedition that the report attributes present dissatis-faction of the Brotherhood. It forcibly touches the subject, shows up its promoters, and points out their motives, and to them and them alone attaches the blame.

It appears that very large sums of money have been transmitted through John Mitchel to the Executive of the I. R. B. in Ireland, during the last few months. Ther is yet, it is stated, about forty thousand stand of good rifles, thirteen Napoleon bronze guns, large quantities of equip-ments, ammunition, and other war mate-rial still on band. rial still on hand.

An iron steamer has recently been purchased which cost about $50,000, and upon which has been recently expended about $1,000 more in fitting her up andputting her in thorough sea-going order. This vessel is also on hand, and although the property of a single individual, at the present time, is at the service of the Brotherhood when required.

A telegram was forwarded by Head Centre O'Mahony to Colonel Downing, who, it is understood, is still on the borders of the State of Maine, with a large number of men, "to return at once, as no more money will be sent to them under any circumstances."

There was one thousand dollars sent at the same time to enable the party to return
