OITY BULLETIN.

WEST PHILADELPHIA,-Another pleasant day, but still unseasonably cool, retarding the production of early vegetables to a the production of early vegetables to a greater extent than in any previous season in our recollection. Some idea of how cold it was on Friday and Saturday mornings of last week, may be gathered from the fact that it made ice one-fourth of an inch thick on the green-house sashes and hot-bed frames of Mr. Robert Kilvington's nursery garden in Locust street, above Thirty-sixth, while at the distance of five miles in the interior all the early plants were cut down interior all the early plants were cut down by the heaviness of the frost. It is almost useless to think of sowing any kinds of seed out of doors in the open ground, as it will be sure to rot, to the disappointment of the planter. The police business of the district has The police business of the district has been scarcely worth reporting. On the Sunday morning hearing at the Station House, two persons were fined $3 each for drunkenness, another $2 for a breach of ordinance, and a man named Edward Jag-gers, was likewise fined $3, and held to answer at Court for a violent assault and battery. As a proof of how quiet it was on Sunday, but one case 'presented itself on Monday morning, Philip Lanning whom Alderman Allen sent below. The district has just lost a most faithful and efficient officer, Sergeant Edward

The district has just lost a most faithful and efficient officer. Sergeant Edward Lister, who had been in service upwards of five years. So high was the appreciation of his fellow officers, that on the evening succeeding his resignation—he had been elected Assessor of the Ward—they held a meeting at the hall and presented him with a fine gold ring. Mr. Charles White handed it over, and Mr. Lister responded. A nice collation was served up, in the Police apart-ment, and the boys had a good time gener-ally. Mr. Jesse G.
