From South America.

NEW YORK, May 9.—The steamship New York has arrived, with Aspinwall advices of May 2d. She brings the California mails of April 19th. Panama advices state that the news from South America is unimportant, matters having remained perfectly quiet since the bombardment of Valparaiso. All the Spanish fleet except the Berenguela, had sailed for northern ports. Nothing had been heard of the Huescar and Independencia: and the Peruvian sloops, Union and America, had sailed towards the straits of Magellan to meet them.

The Danish Consul General had sent a note to the Spanish Admiral, saying that his government would hold Spain responsible for damage to Danish property in Valparaiso. The Admiral refused to receive the note. The bark Clara Rosalia had been burned by the officers of the Berengulla. Immediately after the bombardment the English Minister was requested to vacate the premises occupied by him, and no one will rent him another house. His name has also been stricken from the list of members of the club "de la Union." Only two lives were lost and eight persons wounded during the bombardment. Several churches were destroyed, and 151 government stores valued at $500,000, and upwards of $8,000, 000 worth of foreign merchandise. :$540, 000 will repair all the damage to the public edifices, whilst the bulk of the loss will fall on foreigners. At Callao preparations were actively making for the reception of the Spanish fleet by the fortifications. Intelligence from Barbacoas mines continues unfavorable, most of the miners being sick and discouraged at the prospects. General Mosquera the new President of New Grenada, is on his way to Aspinwall in the new war steamer Columbia, the first the Government ever owned. It is thought the capitol will be removed from Bogota to Panama. It is reported that the Hamburg brig Sirius bound from Aspinwall to Santa Martha, was wrecked on the Roncader reef. Much complaint is made of the detention of goods from Europe and the States to Panama, by the Panama Railroad Super-

THE DEERING TRAGEDY.

The Death Warrant of Probst Received.

THE TIME FOR THE EXECUTION.

The Document Read to the Prisoner.

His Demeanor.

The death warrant of the murderer Probst was received from Harrisburg, by Sheriff Howell, this morning. It is in the usual form of a recital of the crime for which the condemned is to suffer death, with a statement of the time of conviction, &c. FRI-DAY THE 8TH DAY OF JUNE, BETWEEN THE HOURS OF TEN O'CLOCK A. M. AND THREE P. M., WAS NAMED AS THE TIME OF EXECUTION.

At eleven o'clock Sheriff Howell, accomanied by Enoch Taylor, Esq., his principal deputy, Hon. Charles Gilpin, his solicitor, and two representatives of the newspaper press, proceeded to the county prison for the purpose of reading the paper to the doomed

The prisoner was occupied in religious services at the time of the arrival of the Sheriff. After a little delay the latter and his party were admitted to the cell of Probst. The latter was found sitting upon his bed leaning back against the wall with his left The only person in the cell with the prisoner at the time was an assistant Priest from the Roman Catholic Church of St.

Philip, who was in official attendance upon the condemned man. Mr. Perkins, the Superintendent of the prison, led the way into the cell, and introduced Sheriff Howell to Probst. The Sheriff took a seat, and after inquiring of the prisons a seat and after inquiring of the prisons a seat and after inquiring of the prisons are seat as a seat and after inquiring of the prisons are seat as a seat and after inquiring of the prisons are seat as a seat and after inquiring of the prisons are seat as a seat and after inquiring of the prisons are seat as a seat and after inquiring of the prisons are seat as a seat and after inquiring of the prisons are seat as a seat and after inquiring of the prisons are seat as a seat and after inquiring of the prisons are seat as a seat and after inquiring of the prisons are seat as a seat and after inquiring of the prisons are seat as a seat and after inquiring of the prisons are seat as a seat and after inquiring of the prisons are seat as a seat and after inquiring of the prisons are seat as a seat and after inquiring of the prisons are seat as a seat and after inquiring of the prisons are seat as a seat and after inquiring and oner concerning his health, to which he received a response that he (Probst) "felt pretty well," he proceeded to perform the duty in hand.

The Sheriff remarked that he had received the death warrant of the prisoner from Harrisburg, and that he would now proceed to perform the painful duty of reading it. While all present were uncovered, and all except Probst remained standing, the docu-ment was read in a clear and distinct voice

We watched the condemned man closely during the reading of the paper. He presented much the same appearance that dis-tinguished him during the trial. His eyes were fixed upon the ground, there was a suppressed heaving of the chest, the eyes became slightly suffused when the time fixed for the execution was named, and at the close of the reading the prisoner howed his head twice, as if in submission to his

The Sheriff then asked Probst if he understood that Friday, the 8th day of June, was the time fixed for his execution. He replied briefly "Yes." The Sheriff then added that he hoped he would make good use of the time still left him on earth to prepare him-self for the dread event. To this the pri-soner merely bowed his head in acquies-

The reverend gentleman who was present then remarked that the prisoner admitted the justice of the punishment which e was to meet. He had committed a crime of great atrocity, and he felt that the only atonement he could make for it would be the laying down of his own life. He was ready to die.

The priest also said that Probst had declared himself easier in his mind since he had confessed the whole truth in regard to

In reply to questions put to the prisoner, he said he was twenty-four years and four months old, and that he had first landed in the United States on the 9th of May, 1863, exactly three years ago. What an anniversary!

Upon a question to that effect being propounded to the prisoner, the latter declared that he did not desire the attendance of any professed religious persons except the clergymen whom he has already indicated. This question was put in consequence of the great number of applications of religious persons to visit him. This decision of the condemned man's settles the question of their rejection for the future.

The Sheriff and his party soon after left the cell, and the wretched criminal was left alone with his spiritual adviser.

Official Acts of the President. From Washington.

[Special Despatch to the Bulletin.]
WASHINGTON, May 9.—It is given out today by one of the President's advisers that the veto on the Colorado bill is being prepared. The principal ground of objection is insufficiency of inhabitants.

There is no serious objection to Mr. McCulloch's new loan bill. It will be reported to the Senate in a few days. To the surprise of everybody here, the Republican members from Philadelphia, with the exception of Judge Kelley, are working for the confirmation of Mr. Sloanaker. There is sufficient strength in the House in favor of the League Island, so that as soon as it is reached it will pass that body. Dr. Fuller to-day finished his argument

General Dawson. [Correspondence of the Associated Press.] WASHINGTON, May 9.—An official decree from the government of Chile declares that neutral vessels which communicate with the ships of the Spanish squadron, or which furnish them with fuel, provisions, ammu-nition, or other supplies, will not be allowed to touch or land in any port of the Re-

The Department of State has been officially informed by the Spanish govern-ment that fossil coal, the product of the mines of Chile, declared to be contraband of war by the commander of the Spanish squadron on the Pacific, shall only be considered such contraband of war in case of its being despatched from Chilean ports destined to the enemy's ship.

The Post Office Department has made a contract for the conveyance of the mails from New Orleans to Mobile and back daily in suitable steamboats, also to carry the mails from New Orleans by way of Galves-ton to Indianola and back three times a week in suitable steamships.

The President has approved the bill to encourage telegraphic communication be-tween the United States and the West India Islands and the Bahamas. It provides that the International Ocean Telegraph Company incorporated under the laws of the State of New York, their successors and assigns shall have the sole privilege for a period of fourteen years, to lay, construct land, main-tain and operate telegraphic or magnetic lines or cables in and over the waters, reefs, islands, shores, and lands over which the United States have jurisdiction from the shores of the State of Florida to the Island of Cuba and the Bahamas either or both and other West India Islands. The company shall at all times give the United States the free use of said cable or cables to a telegraphic operator of its own selection to transmit any messages to and from its military, naval and diplomatic or consular agents, and the company shall keep all its lines open to the public for the transmission for daily publication of market and commercial reports and intelligence, and all messages, despatches and communications shall be forwarded in the order in which they shall be received, and the company shall not be permitted to charge and collect for messages transmitted through any of its submarine cables more than the rate of $3.50 per message of ten words, subject, however, to the power of Congress to alter and determine said rates; Provided, That the International Ocean Telegraph Company shall within the period of three years from the passage of this act cause the said submarine cable or cables to be laid down, and that the said cable or cables shall be in successful said cable or cables shall be in succession operation for the transmission of messages within the said period of five years, otherwise this grant to be null and void, and Congress reserves the power to, at any time, alter or repeal the above act.

The President has also approved the bill extending the time for the completion of the Union Pacific Railway, Eastern Division. until the 27th of June, 1866. The time for completing each succeeding section of 100 miles, is to be reckoned from that date. This bill also extends for two years the time for commencing, and completing the Northern Pacific Railroad and all its several sections. The President, to-day, by appointment, gave an audience to the delegates of the General Conference of the Methodist Pro-testant Church, now in session in Georgetown. North Carolina, Alabama, Virginia, Maryland, the District of Columbia, only were represented, it having been said that these appointed from the other Southern these appointed from the other Southern States had not the means to pay the expenses of travel hither.

The presiding officer of the Conference introduced the delegates severally to the President, remarking that they had, by a resolution unanimously adopted, come to pay their respects to him. Alluding to the fiery ordeal through which the Southern people had passed, he said he need not remind the President of the difficulties which environed them, and the poverty with which they were

them, and the poverty with which they were suffering. To this might be ascribed the small number of ministers and lay delesmall number of ministers and lay delegates present at the Conference. He might continue his remarks, but feared to trespass on the President's indulgence. He, however, prayed that the blessing of Almighty God may rest upon the President, and that the Lord would give him the remarks the property his quisite wisdom and strength to perform his important duties. To this the brethren responded with an emphatic "Amen,"
The President thanked the delegates sinreferresident thanked the delegates sincerely for the compliment which they had paid him by this yisit. He trusted that the prayer they had offered would be heard and answered by the power to which it was addressed, and that all honest efforts of the Conference would be crowned with success. He hoped the day was not distant when peace and prosperity, would be restored to an undivided country. Movements of Secretary Seward. HARRISBURG, May 9.—Hon. Wm. Seward passed through this city to-day, on his way to New York.

From Boston. Boston, May 9.—In the Supreme Judicial Court in the case of Atchison & Pike's Peak Railroad Company vs. H. G. Wheeler, for the alleged misappropriation of $200,000 worth of bonds, the arguments of the counsel were closed yesterday, and the decision was reserved. The U.S. steamer Ashuelot, Commander Febiger, from New York, arrived here to-day. She came through the sound in company with the double turreted iron clad Miantanomiah, and the U.S. steamer Augusta, and parted company with them on Tuesday afternoon. The weather was fine and the Miantanomiah made excellent speed and behaved splendidly. Price of Gold in New York. [By the American Telegraph Co.1]

Mr. Henderson (Mo.) introduced a bill to regulate appointments and removals to and from office.
Mr. Sumner (Mass.) asked for the reading of the bill.
Mr. Sherman (Ohio) said it was too long to be read. The bill was ordered to be printed.

Mr. Grimes (Iowa) introduced a resolution instructing the Finance Committee to report prop n the expediting the Finance Committee to report prop n the expedition of the providing by law that no public officer shall deposit Government funds except in United States SubTreasuries where such exist and in the United States Treasury in Washington city. Adopted.

The House resolution appointing a commissioner to select a site for the New York Fost Office was passed. The bill to prevent the introduction of cholera was taken up.

And the bill to prevent the introduction of cholera was taken up.

Mr. Rice (Mass.) from the Committee on Naval Affairs, saked the unanimous consent of the House to report a bill to allow to Vice Admiral Farragut a Secretary, with the rank, sea pay and allowances of a Lieutenant of the Navy. He explained the necessity of it, saying that that eminent and conspicuous jofficer had no staff, and had to attend personally to all his correspondence, although his eyesight had became very much impaired.

Unanimous consent was given, and the bill was reported and passed.

Mr. Wilson (Iowa), from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported a bill to repeal the 2sd section of the act of the 3th Congress relating to passports, which repealed the then existing law in reference to personal liable to military duty. The bill was considered and passed.

The House proceeded in the consideration of the considered and repealed the then existing law in reference to persons liable to military duty. The bill was considered and passed.

The House proceeded to the consideration of the special order, being the Constitutional amendment reported from the Reconstruction Committee.

Mr. Broomail (Pa.) addressed the House in support of the amendment proposed.

Persaid it was to be expected that the joint resolution would receive opposition and denunciation from the "unrepentant thirty-three." It was therefore useless to waste argument upon them. It was also to be expected that the six Johnsonian new converts to Bemocracy would vote against the measure, commencing with the gritleman from New York, (Mr. Raymond, and ending with the gentleman from Kentucky, (Mr. Smith.) who had the disease in its mildest and most amiable form.

On them, too, argument was useless, There must, therefore, be thirty-nine votes against the measure, and he wanted that there should be no more. So far from traston being made odious, it was the most popular institution of the South. Treason has been made popular there and loyalty had been made odious.

The loyal man in the South was compelled by public opinion there, fostered and encouraged by the Administration, to stand sside. Probst was to be hanged and Alexander H. Stephens, one of the chief conspirators, was to have a seat in the United States Senate.

What a mockery was this? The time would come to the same bax with the Vice President who added in murdering 20,000, and then these things would be made all even. made all even.

He believed there was a necessity for a future world, in order that the immense inequalities of the present world might be rectified.

Mr. Shanklin (Ky.) next took the floor in opposition to the measure.

CITY BULLETIN.

WEST PHILADELPHIA.-The morning, WEST PHILADELPHIA.—The morning, over the river, opened a very grey pair of eyes, and wore something like a frown on her bow. The breeze was quick, and came in gusts, with every promise of rain. A little of the aqueous element would do a great deal good in that semi-granitic, semi-gravelly soil, which absorbs water like a sponge. The roads are very, very dusty, and obliterate, even a patent leather in crossing from one side of a street to another We found this to our cost, in our visit to the police station, where we tound nothing, or little more than nothing to compensate us for our labor. Only three cases. A woman named Mary Welah had been guilty of "contempt of court," but apologized, and was discharged. A fellow yelept John Micgrath, one of the species of highway gamblers, was fined $5, and "Jeems" Jordan handed over $5 for indulging in the "cratur." Jordan had a "hard road to travel," but he faced the music like a man.

We are happy to record the entire disappearance of small pox in the institution. Only five patients remain in the building on the mesdow, and they are already to take wing. They were quite merry this morning and yesterday. One could hear their laugh at the distance of half a square.

Dog Fight? RROKEN HP—THE DOGS AND

DOG FIGHT BROKEN UP—THE DOGS AND SEVERAL MEN CAPTURED.—Vesterday afternoon Lieut. Wilcraft, Sergeant Murray and a squand of officers, went to the tavern o' Robert Chambers, on Sixth steet, opposite the Kensington water works basin, where a dog tight was alleged to be in progress. On the premises there was a dog pit—a one-story wooden structure, about 15 by 30 feet. The place is somewhat isolated from other places, and pickets are generally threwn outso as to guard against a surprise by the police. The corsequence is that the frequenters always have notice of the approach of the officers before the latter get within three squares of the place. Yesterday the visit of the police was attended with some success. A fight for $50 a side between two dogs called "Bounce and Bruce." which was in progress, was broken up and several parties besides the degs were captured. Most of the spectators escaped however. The door was chained by an officer but it was broken from its higgs and some of the men imped overthe policeman. Others went out by the sky light on to the roof and several escaped by breaking through a back partition. The prisoners had a hearing before Aid. Clouds, this morning, and were disposed of as follows: Robt. Chambers, Proprietor, yieo bail: Jacob Pettinger and Thos. Higgins, owners of the dogs, $60 bail and David Henzick, James MeSior, Albert Crawford, James Slain and James O'Donnell, $100 bail for misdemeanor. DOG FIGHT BROKEN UP-THE DOGS AND
