CITY BULLETIN.

A SPLENDID INSTRUMENT.—The Great Organ at Boston, which has obtained a celebrity equal to that of some of the famous instruments of Europe, has given a stimulus to American organ building which is rapidly producing a class of formidable rivals in native builders. The great organs in the Tremont Temple, Boston, at the Albany Cathedral and the Worcester Music Hail are superb specimens of workmanship. Philadelphis is not to be behind other parts of the country in this branch of art and industry and the magnificent instrument just erected by our townsman, J. C. B. Stanbridge, in St. Clement's Episcopal Church, is entitled to rank, in all respects, with the first class of American Church Organs. This instrument was originally built, about a dozen years ago, for the Harmonia Society of this city, and was placed in Concert Hail. It was removed from there several years since, and has recently been purchased by St. Clement's Church, and thoroughly reconstructed by its original builder. So completely has this been done that the instrument may fairly be regarded as a new one. The whole arrangement has been revised, new stops added, old ones replaced, an additional manual for solo stops introduced, and the outer case entirely remodeled, greatly to the improvement of its appearance. A SPLENDID INSTRUMENT.-The Great for solo stops introduced, and the outer case entirely remodeled, greatly to the improvement of its appearance.

As the organ now stands, it is certainly one of the noblest musical instruments in America, in point of size, michanism, and variety and quality of tone. The organs we have already named are the only ones in use in this country possessing four ranks of keys. St. Clement's organ contains 3,022 pipes, 52 stops, and 63 registers. The Great Organ contains 15 stops, the manual running from A A A to F. The Choir Swell and manual are of the same compass, the former with 15 stops and the latter with 11 stops. The solo manual has 45 keys, to king 12 hass from the Swell. The Swell, Great and Solo organs have overhanging manuals, by which the four manuals are brought within the space ordinarily occupied by three ranks of keys. The solo organ is a very flue feature of the instrument, containing an Open Dispason, a Stop Dispason with double mouth, a novelty first introduced by Mr. Stanbridge, Harmonic Flute, Corneta-piston, Oboe and Clarionet. We have never heard finer effects from the solos of an orchestra than are produced by these exculsite stops. An after noon which we recently spent in an inspection of this splendid organ, satisfied us, more thoroughly than ever, that Philadelphia has good cause to be proud of the perfection to which Mr. Stanbridge has brought the whole art of organ bidden to respect the symmetrical towers, sustained by bold and heavy brackets, and without gliding or other colorings. The effect of this arrangement is very fine, and thoroughly in keeping with the general style of the church.

The organ is to be formally opened on Friday even. thoroughly in keeping with the general style of the church.

The organ is to be formally opened on Friday evening next, when a grand concert of vocal and instrumental music will be given, the double purpose of which is to make the public acquainted with this superb instrument, and to procure funds requisite to complete some portions of it. The programme in cludes performances by several of our leading or ganists, including Messrs, Michael H. Cross, Warner Clark, Getze, Darley and B. antwidge, and a choice variety of vocal relos and concerted pieces. The enter tainiment will be a very delightful one, and we trust will be attended by a crowd of the lovers of Sacred Music.

FAIRMOUNT PARK.—The number of visi-FAIRMOUNT PARK,—The number of visitors to this favorite place is daily on the increase. The grounds have been greatly improved since last summer, and are now in good order. Hundreds of children may now be seen every afternoon, trundling hoops, jumping the rope, and otherwise enjoying themselves, while base hall players have appropriated a portion of the grounds, and exciting games are constantly in progress. Some of the boat clubs, located along the river front of the park, have their barges out almost every afternoon and the scene from the hills is very pretty. There is now no more attractive spot about the city than Fairmount Park, and when we have the afternoon concerts, as we unusubtedly shall, in a week or two, it will be delightful to escape, from the busy din of the city and spead a few hours, among the shady groves of Fairmount, where peace and quietness can always be secured.

PHILADELPHIA CONGREGATIONAL. CON-

PHILADELPHIA CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE.—The first meeting of the Philadelphia Conference of Congregational churches was held yester day afternoon, in the Central Congregational church, at Eighteentil and Green streets. Bev. Mr. Edwards, pastor of the church, called the meeting to order, and Rev. J. M. Caldwell, pastor of the Fourta church, was elected toribe. After appropriate expresses. Bev. C. A. Hardy, of Canterbury, Del., deliwer-d the opening sermon. The devotional exercises closed with prayer by the Rev. Edward Hawes. The Conference then resolved into a business meeting, and adopted a constitution for its government. The delegates from the different churches gave a kylef outline of their histories, and of their early struggles in the cause of Congregationalism, after which the Conference adjourned to meet the second we denesday in June. PHILADELPHIA CONGREGATIONAL CON-THE GAS INVESTIGATION. - Another meeting of the Special Committee of Select council, appointed to investigate the affairs of the Trustees of the Philadelphia Gas Works, was held last evening. Col. Page, the Chairman, stated that he had fully examined the subject, and had concluded that the Committee ought to go on with the investigation. In the absence of witnesses, however, the Committee adjourned. The Chairman was authorized to address certain interrogatories to the President of the Board of Trustees.

ARRESTED ON SUSPICION .- A man was arrested yeaterday, at Manayunk, on suspicion of having committed a murder at Epringfield, Iil. The prisoner had but recently come from that section of the country, and was arrested upon a description telegraphed to the Chief of the Detectives, arr. Franklin. He admits having resided in Illinois, but denies any knowledge of a murder having been committed, and says he is perfectly willing to go to Springfield to meet the charge. TICKETS FOR MR. GOUGH'S LECTURE On Monday evening next are selling rapidly, and persons wishing to procure seats are certain to be disappointed unless they apply early. The north half of the house is heing sold at Ashmead & Evan's book store, 724 Chestnut street, and the south side at Trumpler's, seventh and Chestnut, As Mr. Gough's lecture on "Peculiar Perple" is in many respects his most interesting and humorous platform effort, we expect to see the Academy filled from pit to dome.

"THE BLACK SWAN TROUPE" announce a grand concert to be given at Concert Hall, on Wednesday evening, May 18th. The performers are Miss E. T. Greenfield (the "Black Swan"), Miss Kate Lanier, Miss Rachel Dennet, Miss Rebecca Moutmorency, and Messis. Frank Woods. Cliff and Wm Morris, with a full chorus. The programme is long and varied. The sale of tickets will commence at T. B. Pugh's, Sixth and Chestnut streets, to morrow. GOUGH ON "PECULIAR PEOPLE," at the Academy of Music, Monday evening, 14th inst.

FIRST DISCOVERER.—A gentleman praising the personal charms of a very plain woman, his triends asked him, "Why don't you lay claim to such an accomplished beauty?" "What right have I to her?" asked the former. "Every right by the law of nations," replied the other, "you being the first dis rer." We do not know what citizen was the first overer of the cheapness of the coal sold by W. W. PAlter, but all our citizens are acquainted with the fact now. His offices are at 957 North Ninth street, and at Sixth and Spring Garden streets.

CHURCH IMPROVEMENTS,—The Tabernacle Baptist Church, in Camden, is undergoing some material improvements, and the congregation are contemplating of the erection of a new and larger one in about a year. Over one hundred new members have been added to this church during the past winter.

The seventy members who recently left the Third Street M. E. Church, and were recognized by the New Jersey Conference as a separate Church organization, are soon to commence the erection of a fine editice on Cooper street, for purpose of divine worsbip. They at present hold services in the Odd Fellows' Hall.

The North Camden Baptist Church is nearly completed, and is an isposing editice. Its fine spire gives it a tasteful appearance. It is contemplated to finish it during the present year.

On Market street, near the Court House, the Catholics have almost completed a large and splendid building, of brown stone. It is in the Gothic style of architecture.

The fine attricture on Fourth and Benson streets, belonging to the Second Presbyterian Church, Rev. Mr. Eaker, pastor, is well advanced towards completion, and when finished, will be an ornament to that part of the city. The gentlemen connected with it have been unremitting in their efforts to raise money to complete its.

CAMDEN HOME.—The Camden Home for friendless children, during the past year, has been instrumental in the accomplishment of great good. It has been in operation but little more than a year, during which time it has found comfortable homes for a number of parentless children. The institution has been liberally sustained by the philanthropic of Camden, and now have twenty children, all that there are room and accommodation for. But the managers have secured the building adjoining the one now occupied, which, when fitted up, will give room for about ten additional occupants. They have also recured a fine lot of ground at Fitth and Plum streets, on which it is contemplated scom to erect a suitable building with all the necessary accommodations for the institution.

THE PASSENGER RAILROAD.—The pros-THE PASSENGER RAILROAD.—The prospect of building the new railroad in Camden, connecting Cooper's and Kaighn's Points, for the accommodation of the public, is one that meets with the favor of nearly every public spirited cilizen, and will be of the greatest possible advantage and convenience to all concerned. The company are taking the necessary measures to commence the work, which will be prosecuted vigorously to completion. The stock is being rapidly taken, and bids fair to become a valuable investment. It travers is a lits route the entire length of the city, running down Front street to Kaighn's Point avenue and up Fourth to Cooper's Point. STILL AT THEIR WORK.—The thiever are still at their work in the country robbing farmers of their goods. Almost every farmer has been annoyed the present spring with there midnight depredator, who carry away chickens, get seturkeys, and all kinds of articles they can find. One or two have had their pigsstolen out of their pens. The annoyance has become so great, and these robberies so extensive, that handsome rewards have been offered and other prescautions taken for the apprehension and conviction of the perpetrators of these acts of viliainy, who have been mexceedingly bold.

TEMPERANCE PROGRESS.—The progress of the cause of Temperance in Camden seems to be favorable, and bids fair to accomplish much good. Several new Scoteties have been organized under the auspices of the M. E. Church, and the ministers have been instructed to preach on that and the subject of education, to their respective charges, as often as they find it convenient.

THE CHESTNUT .- Mr. Edwin Adams presented that capital play "The Men of the Day" last evening to a very appreciative house, enacting the hero, Frank that capital play "The Men of the Day" last evening to a very appreciative house, enacting the hero, Frank Hawthorne, with power, taste and grace, and exciting the warmest applians. He was most capitally supported. Miss Orton played Lucy Vavasoue pleasantly. Mrs. Keach played and dressed the part of Jenny Wildbriar most capitally. Mrs. Chapman made a delly hitally rough and strong Mrs. Wildbriar, and Mrs. Cole was very acceptable as Miss Euphemia Cholmondeley. We can speak highly of the acting of Mr. Chapman as Dr. Playfair, Mr. Foster as Sir Lionel Norman, Mr. Lennox as Robin Wildbriar, and Mr. Fisher as James. Mr. Ward's Hon. Augustus Adolphus would have been admirable had not his old fault of an asionishingly rapid enunciation spoiled his best polots. "kurry" through a sentence be acts unfairly to the author in not doing the best he_can for a jou disprii. The play is a very admirable presentation of cartain phases of English aristocratic society, and was very handsomely olaced on the stage by Manager Sinn. It will be repeated this evening. Next week we learn that Mr. Adams's grand specialty "The Dead Heart" will be brought our with the utmost aphendor, with new scenery, cospumes, effects, &c.

THE ARCH—Last evening Mr. Owen Marlowe had a benefit which was worthy of his great talents, the house being crowded to the utmost and the entertainment geing off with the greatest dash and spirit. This evening Mr. Sam Hemple makes his first appearance, appearing in "The Gummaker of Moscow and in "Ici l'on Farle Francais." Mr. Marlowe appears in "Paul Pry Married but very Unsettled." To-morrow Miss. E. Price has her benefit and offers a charming entertainment. Mr. Frank Mordaunt and Miss C. Jeffesson etcheroids and the encertain of the morable one.
