The beer drinkers were caught in the tempest on their return to New York, from the drinking resorts of Hoboken, and, to all appearance, they liked it even less than the Excise law. There were probably more Sunday hats lost from the North River ferry boats at that time than there were Sunday drinks obtained in the metropolis during the entire day. One old lady was tumbled head-overheels, and only recovered to see her crino-line sticking between the smoke-stacks of the ferry-boat; while a young lady missed her waterfall in the excitement, and only set eyes on it again, as it flow through the firmament after the manner of a comet with to long trail of false curls trailing behind. DESTRUCTIVE FIRE IN BOSTON

The Habeas Corpus Bill. WASHINGTON, May 15.-The President has approved the bill amending "an act relating to the habeas corpus, and regulating judicial proceedings in certain cases, approved March 3d, 1863, and it is therefore a law.

It provides that any seizure, search, arrest, or imprisonment made, or any acts done or omitted to be done during the rebellion, by any officer, or person under and by virtue of any order, written or verbal, general or special, issued by the President or Secretary of war, or by any military officer of the United States holding the command of the department, district, or place, within which such sei-zure, search, arrest, or imprison-ment was done, made, or committed; or any acts were so done or omitted to be done, either by the person or officer to whom the order was addressed, or for whom it was intended, or by any other person aiding in assisting him therein, shall be held, and are hereby declared, to come within the purviews of the act to which this is amenda-fory, and within the purview of the 4th, 5th, and 6th sections of the said act of March 3d, 1863, for all the purposes of defence, transfer, appeal, error, or limitation provided therein; but no such order shall by force of this act or the act to which this is an amendment be a defence to any suit or action, for any act done or omitted to be done after the passage of this act. When the said order is in writing it shall be sufficient to produce in evidence the original, with proof of its authenticity, or a certified copy of the same, or if sent by telegraph, the production of the telegram purporting to emanate from such military officer shall be prima facie evidence of its authenticity, or if the original of such order or telegram is lost or cannot be produced, secondary evidence thereof shall be admissible as in other cases. The right of removal from the State court into the circuit of the United States may be exercised after the appearance of the defend-ant, and filing of his plea or other defence in said court, or at any term of said court, subsequent to the term when the appearance is entered, and before a jury is empanneled to try the same, but nothing herein contained shall be held to abridge the right of such removal after final judgment in the State court : nor shall it be necessary in the State court to offer or give security for the filing of copies in the Circuit Court of the United States, but on the filing of the peti-tion verified, as provided in said 5th section, the further proceedings in the State court shall cease, and not be resumed until a certificate, under the seal of the Circuit Court of the United States, stating that the petitioner has failed to file copies in the said Circuit Court at the next term, is produced. If the State Court shall, notwithstanding the performance of all things required for the removal of the case to the District Court, proceed further in said cause or in the street at the time. WEST PHILADELPHIA.- This morning was clear, crisp, breezy and cold, still too cold, unseasonably so, keeping everything backward. The rain of Sunday was only a temporary blessing, for to-day the dust is sweeping from one side of every thor-oughfare to the other. We had laid out to make a visit to Mr. Henry A. Dreer's green houses, at Mantua, and his nursery, at Bel-mont, but were prevented from folling mont: but were prevented from fulfilling mont; but were prevented from humming our engagement by detention at the police station in examining into the facts of a most painful accident that occurred last night, at Thirty-first and Market streets, involving the death of a traveler. It seemed that the man came over from Fairmount with some friends, who, however, did not remain to see him off. Happy had did not remain to see him off. Happy had it been for him had they done so, but "Man proposes and God disposes." His destination was Cincinnati, Ohio. He regu-larly procured his ticket for that city and awaited the leaving of the cars in a hotel opposite the depot. The New York train came along and fear-ing he would be left, ignorant as he was of the locality, attempted to jump on one of the cars while the train was in motion. He was thrown under the wheels and in-stantly killed. His body was removed to the station house, where it remained at the the station house, where it remained at the time we left, awaiting the coming of the Coroner. He was utterly unknown. 109% bid Firm. Finance and Business-May 15, 1866. The Stock Market, influenced by the failures note yesterday, was feverish and unsettled to day, and all the securities in which these parties were interested ruled very irregularly. Hestonville opened at 22%, and suddenly dropped to 21%. Philadelphia and Krie Railroad was weak, and declined 3%. Catawissa Railroad Preferred opened at 29% b. 80, and suddenly fell to 28. Reading Bailroad was firmer, and closed at 53 94 @54. Camden and Amboy Railroad sold at 128, and (294. Canden and Almosy Ranton bold as 120, and Pennsylvania Railroad at 54%-no change, Canal stocks were dull, Delaware Division sold at 14, and Morris Canal at 76%-an advance of %. Schuylkill Navigation Preferred closed at 34%; the Common stock at 27, and Susquehanna Canadat 16%. In Bank shares there were no transactions. Government Loans were steady closing at 109@109% for the Coupon Sixes, '81; 101%@102 for the Five-Twenties: 102%@102% for the Seven Thirties, and 96% for the Ten-Forties. In Oil stocks the only change was in Ocean, which advanced 4. Coal stocks were weak. For St. Nicholas, which was recently cornered by one of the "suspended" firms and forced up to 80, there was no bid ! Passenger Railway shares have been flattened by the mover in Hestonville, and to effect sales lower figures would have to be accepted.
