CITY BULLETIN.

OARDALE PARK.-This new Park, opening under the management of Mr. Wm. Vanhook, is rapidly advancing towards completion in the base ball department. Besides a perfect arrangement of the ground for the accommodation of participants in the games, stands are in course of erection to seat ten thousand spectators. Our base seat ten indusand specialors. Our base ball players may well rejoice in this enterprising accomplishment, a requirement of which many of our citizens have felt the need, but hesitated to supply. Oakdale Park, formerly known as "Duke's Garden," has two fronts. The western front, bordering on the Germantour and Norigidan. ing on the Germantown and Norristown Railroad, where it will be to the interest of the railroad company to erect a passenger station; the eastern front, on the lane leading off from the Germantown road. The Fourth and Eighth street cars carry passen-gers to the park for a single fare.

The entire ground, consisting of eleven acres, has been laid out to the best advantage, and when Mr. Vanhook's beautiful design is finished, we will behold a large park, with base ball and cricket ground on one side, a large skating park, with basin two and-a-half feet deep, on the other; fine dressing-rooms and confectory, a conservatory and a sixty feet arrived discovery. dressing-rooms and confectory, a conserva-tory, and a sixty-feet carriage-drive around the whole park. If the patrons of the park give sufficient encouragement, there will be a large swimming bath-house erected next summer. The Fifth and Sixth, Tenth and Eleventh Street cars will, no doubt, soon make arrangements to run to Oakdale Park. so that in winter and summer the facilities for reaching it will be perfect. Those persons so fortunate as to own carriages will revel in the new drive. Mr. Vanhook deserves the thanks of all lovers of out-door amusements. Further details in reference to the Park will appear in the advertising columns of the BULLETIN.

delightful institution called the Natatorium smiles benignly on its old patrons and, still more, on the crude efforts of new pupils, to "strike out." One can no more witness the graceful gliding motion of children, maidens and fair ladies in dresses of every hue, and long hair floating like a mormoid. and long hair floating like a mermaid's on the water, without being envious of the luxbry, than he can see a bird flying and not long for wings. To the uninitiated, one seems as impossible as the other, but very few lessons teach the art of swimming. Doctor Jansen's system is perfect. His kind consideration for the nervous and invalids are well known at the Natatorium. The doctor is fortunate in having the valuable aid of Mrs. E. Gibson, an assistant teacher, whose patience and perseverance effect many successes where the doctor's time would be severely taxed. Mrs. Gibson is a great friend of the lady swimmers. Gentlemen desiring to keep their families at home will find a season ticket for the Naat home will find a season licket for the Na-tatorium the best argument. The fascina-tion of the swimming school is greater than any inducement to leave a comfortable home for crowded quarters in the country. The Doctor's preparations for this summer have been more extensive than ever, and hundreds can be counted on the subscription lists in the male and female depart-

ORES FROM COLORADO.—We had the pleasure of inspecting a very valuable collection of Colorado ores, at No. 237 South Third street, yesterday morning. The collection properties in that Territory. It will remain open to the inspection of the public for some days, and all who are desirous of beholding tangible proofs of the worderful street. gible proofs of the wonderful mineral resources of the Rocky mountains can gratify their curiosity by calling at the rooms mentioned above. Yesterday, at noon, an agreeable entertainment was given at the rooms of the American Land Company, by Mr. Town, one of the pioneers of Colorado, to General P.E. Conner, Colonel E. M. Wynkoon, Amos Steck Esq. of Denver rooms koop, Amos Steck, Esq., of Denver, repre-sentatives of the press of this city, and a number of prominent citizens. Addresses were delivered by several gentlemen, descriptive of the marvelous mineral wealth of the territory, and giving much interest ing information concerning the development of the country, the various modes of

COMMITTED.— Before Alderman Beitler, yesterday afternoon, John Brown had a further hearing, on the charge of having been concerned in the robbery of the store of J. W. Hagy, on Second street above Wilson when sills walned at $1500 low, when silks valued at $1,500 stolen. Officer Wagner testified that he saw Brown, Pete Sanford and another man in September last loitering in the alleyway in the rear of Mr. Hagy's store, and that he ordered them away. A salesman in the employ of Mr. Hagy testified that the prisoner and another man, some weeks since, came into the store and examined some goods. They left without making a purchase. Brown was committed for trial in default of $2,500 bail. ODD FELLOWS.—The annual session o

THE BILLIARD CHAMPIONSHIP.-Robert T. Ryall and Victor Estephe played a match

T. Ryan and victor Estephe played a match game of billiards for the championship of Fennsylvania last evening at Concert Hall. There was a large audience of ladies and gentlemen present. The contest was very close throughout the game, and the excitement was great. Ryall was victorious, having beaten his opponent by 153 points. Robbery And Arson.—Yesterday afternoon the dwelling of Henry Mathers, in Brinton street, below Master, was entered.

A trunk was broken open and robbed of $73 in gold, $40 in silver and $170 in paper money. The thief then set fire to clothing in the trunk and made his escape. The flames were extinguished before any serious damage had been done.

FRANKLIN INSTITUTE.—In another column will be noticed an advertisement of the regular monthly meeting of the Franklin Institute. At this meeting will be read a paper on the Jonval Turbine, with special reference to the water-works lately erected at Montreal, by the eminent and successful engineer, Mr. Emile Geyelin. The report of the Resident Secretary, Professor Morton, on novelties in science and the arts, will be read as usual, and will, on the present occaread as usual, and will, on the present occasion, embrace some new and very beautiful demonstrations of the process of spectrum analysis, which is now engaging so much attention. A variety of important inventions will also be exhibited.

Some of our readers are perhaps not aware that this old and useful Institution has, that this old and useful Institution has, within the last year, experienced a complete revival; that the building has undergone the most thorough repair and refitting, and that the business of the meetings is so arranged as to make them most interesting, as well as profitable, to all who are either directly or remotely associated with the progress of science and these business at the progress of science and the mechanic arts.

Press Club.—A stated meeting of the Press Club of Philadelphia will be held tomorrow afternoon. The new constitution and by-laws will be considered. PROGRESS OF CIVILIZATION.-The inhabitants of Taschkent, Asia, have voluntarily resolved to set free their Persian slaves, as a compliment to the Czer, having learned that the Russians had emancipated their serfs in deference to his wishes. The Russians sian papers cite this as a proof of the civilizing infit ence of Russia in the East. One of the most complete evidences of the civilization existing in this locality is the fact that all intelligent Philadelphians purchase their coal at the establishment of W. W. Alter, No. 957 North Ninth street, or at his branch office at Sixth and

THE CHESTNUT.—"The Dead Heart" was beautifully brought out last evening, and Mr. Adams must have congratulated himself on having such able support as that afforded him by Miss Joste Orton, Mr. Gi. H. Clarke Mrs. E. F. Keach, Mr. Walter Lennox and the company generally. Mr. Adams's Robert Landry is one of his most felicitus impersonations, coming next to his Hamilet, (which, by the way, we hope he will give us during his present engagement,) and the character is thoroughly consistent from the prologue to the close of the play. It never was more beautifully presented than last evening, nor was it ever more heartily enjoyed. The scenery and effects were also most excellent and were worthy of any theatre in the country. "The Dead Heart" will be repeated this evening.

Have removed from their old stand, No. 45 South FOURTH Street, which they have occupied for nearly 20 years, to the large and commodious store No. 715 CHESTNUT Street, directly opposite Masonic Hall.

We take pleasure in stating to our patrons and the public generally that we are enabled in consequence of extraordinary stock of goods now on hand to make a material reduction in our price.

In connection with our regular business we have always a large stock of youth's fine Boots and Shoes, made with the same care and attention to comfort, durability and style that is bestowed on our best Men's Goods. We have also the best arrangements for making to order the best and most substantial Boots and Shoes for Ladies.
