Mr. Wilson (Mass.) Introduced a bill to fir the Mill-tary Peckle establishment of the United States, which was referred to the Military Committee. It provides that the army shall consist of the five artillery and sk cavalry regiments, now in theservice, thirty-seven regiments of infantry, and the professors and cadets of the Military Academy. The companies shall con-sist of 64 privates as a minimum, and 82 as a maxi-mum, to be enlisted for five years. House.-Mr. Washburne (III) asked and obtained the unarimons consent of the House to report from the Committee on Commerce a bill to provide for the safety of the lives of passengers on steamships. He stated that it contained a section to prevent the trans-portation of nitro-giverine, and also a section to modify the construction given to the existing law in reference to crude petroleum or coal oil. That con-struction be said prevented the shipment of that arti-cle. The bill was read a third time and passed.
