Commerce with Mexico. The President has sent a message to the The President has sent a message to the House, enclosing a report from the Secretary of the Treasury, in answer to a resolution requesting information concerning discriminations made by the so-called Maximilian Government, of Mexico against American commerce, or against commerce from particular American ports.

The Secretary encloses a copy of a communication of the 7th of January last, from the collector of customs of the port of Brownsville, Texas, in which the Secretary

Brownsville, Texas, in which the Secretary says mention is made of an order promul-gated in the city of Matamoras, Mexico, a few days before the date of the letter, to the effect that all goods coming to Brownsville, from that city, or going to Matamoras from Brownsville, should pay full duties. This order is represented to be in conflict with the policy which for years had been recognized in that section, under which all goods entering. Metamoras were free of duty entering Matamoras were free of duty, being subject thereto only when sold to go into the interior of Mexico; or having entered Matamoras, if they were exported to a foreign country, they are said to have been subject to one-quarter of the full duties.

As the order referred to is alleged not to extend to Bagdad, Mexico, the collector considered its object to be a discrimination against the trade of Brownsville, but he fails to state by what authority, whether purely local or otherwise, it was promulgated. The collector in his letter says the reason of this order is pure anger and fear that Brownsville will do all the business of Mexico, as it did before the way. They have here it did before the war. They hope by a decree against Brownsville to force all the trade through their port, and put all the freights in their own hands. The working of the decree is as they hoped. No busines can be done at Brownsville. As the whole business of Brownsville is with Mexico, of course all trade is paralyzed.

There is he says one mode of redress

There is, he says, one mode of redress which would have the immediate effect of showing them that the rule will work both ways. An order from the treasury to the collectors of the ports of New Orleans, Gal-veston and Indianola not to clear any vessel from the port of Bagdad or Matamoras, Mexico, until you had laid the matter before the authorities at Mexico, would cause con-sternation at Matamoras, as they draw all their supplies of corn, hay, lard, flour, and, in fact, nearly all their groceries from those cities. The cities of Tampico and Vera Cruz would then do all the business of the interior of Mexico and San Antonio, Texas, and the trade of Chinuahua, while this place would feed all the Rio Grande Valley. In justice to many of the prominent merchants of Matamoras, the collector states that they are entirely opposed to this decree, while others interested in the promotion of Bagdad are the originators.

Transportation for Soldiers.

The committee on transportation, for the soldiers to attend the presentation of the battle flags in Independence Square, on the Fourth of July ensuing, have agreed upon the following programme:

Gen. J. S. Negley is chairman of the committee. The committee will furnish transportation to and from Philadelphia for the color guard of each flag, to be composed of not more than five persons, provided, how-ever, that a greater number may accom-pany the color, if in the judgment of the commanding officer of the regiment, under the supervision of the committee, such greater number be entitled to the post, and transportation be furnished by the regimen-tal organization or other parties.

The commanders of regiments are re-quested to report immediately to the members of this committee for their military division the number of the members of such color guard. Also, that the several members of this committee report to the chairman, before the 26th inst., the number of men within their divisions to be furnished with trans-

Generals Tyndale, Brook and Jordan were delegated with authority to communi-cate with the officers of the several railroad companies with reference to obtaining facili-ties for transportation. This committee will meet at 9 o'clock on the morning of the 15th of June, at the Continental Hotel.

The Veto of the Colorado Bill. The President's acting private secretary, Col. Cooper, delivered to the Senate yesterday a message in writing, containing the objections of the President to the bill for the admission of Colorado into the Union as a State. The announcement created some little surprise, as an unauthenticated rumor just previously prevailed that the bill had been approved. Later in the afternoon an effort was made to proceed with the consideration of the message, but the majority preferred to take an early start with it today. It was not formally laid before the Senate. and therefore not read. For this reason the message cannot now be presented to the country, but it was privately perused by several Senators, who says that it takes the ground that the erection of Colorado as nators, who says that it takes a State is at present unnecessary for the welfare of the people, nor is it clearly established that the majority desire or are pre-pared for such a change. The population is insufficient, and has diminished rather than increased. In addition to these and other reasons, the Presideat says caution should be exercised in the admission of new States. especially as eleven of the States are now without representation and all should be consulted in deciding who shall become members of the Union.

*Fire and Loss of Life.

MONTPELIER, Vt., May 15.—A fire, attended with shocking loss of life, occurred at North Royalton, Vt., last night, upon the premises of Mr. Lyman Burbank. The house was occupied by Mr. Burbank, a hired man named Ballon, an adopted daughter of Mr. B., and Miss Dickerman, of Tunbridge, who was temporarily residing there. All were sleeping at the time, and Miss Dickerman was the first to discover the house in flames, and immediately gave the alarm. Finding it impossible to descend the stairs, Mr. Ballon jumped out of a window and procured a ladder to enable the others to escape, but on returning he could see nothing of the two girls, and could only save the body of Mr. Burbank, who had been suffocated by the smoke. Nothing was afterwards discovered of the girls but their calcined bones. The house, and also the outbuildings, containing cattle, The house, and sheep, horses and hogs, were entirely destroyed. Mr. Burbank was a well-known drover. The fire is believed to have originated from a defective fireplace, which had been used the previous day.

Destructive Fire at Salem, Mass. SALEM, Mass., May 15.—A destructive fire occurred here last night, destroying the Lynde block, the old Saltonstall schoolhouse and several buildings on Essex and Library streets. The East India Marine Hall building was also greatly damaged, but the valuable collection of curiosities contained therein were saved. The Lynde block was owned by Francis Peabody. The loss is estimated at $75,000, which is mostly insured. Coal Statements.
