The Virginia Episcopal Conncil.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., May 18.-The Epis-copal Council to-day adopted the following: Whereas. The condition which rendered necessary the separate organization o Southern Dioceses no longer exists, and that organization has ceased by the con-sent and action of the Dioceses concerned ; and Whereas, The Diocese of Virginia, unchanged as are her principles, deems it most proper under existing circumstances, to re-sume her interrupted relations to the Protes-tant Episcopal Church in the United States;

Resolved. That this Diocese accordingly now resume its condition with the Genera Convention of the Protestant Episcopa Church in the United States, and that the Bishop be requested to send a copy of this preamble and resolution to the presiding Bishop, and one to the Secretary of the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies.

From St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS. May 18 .- In the Old School Presbyterian General Assembly, to-day, Dr. McLean offered a resolution that until the Assembly shall have examined and decided upon the conduct of the Louisville Presby terian Commissioners, they shall be ex-cluded from the Assembly, which, after considerable discussion, was passed—yeas, 201; nays 50. A committee of seven was ap-pointed to report upon the case of the Lou-Also the cases of Drs. Brooks and Anderson, of St. Louis; Vandyck, of Brooklyn, and the other commissioners who either signed the declaration or testimony, or approved its principles, and who deserved to stand or fall on its merits. The excluded commissioners from Kentucky are Messra Stuart Robinson, Dr. Wilson and Elders Wycliffe and Harden.

From New Orleans. New OBLEANS, May 18.—The Red River and neighboring waters are rising into great floods. There are crevasses at Gil-mor's, above Shreveport, and others are expected. It is feared the rise of the Red River will increase the deluge and seriously increase the auffering. increase the suffering. A meeting of all foreign shippers is called

An Unpardoned Bebel. MoBILE, May 18,—The Evening News pub-lishes the following order: HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF ALA-

BAMA, May 17, 1866. In compliance with Instructions from the President of the United States, it is hereby directed that Raphael Semmes be not permitted to hold or exercise the functions of Judge of the Probate Court of Mobile county, or any other civil or political office of trust, while he remains un-pardoned by the President. By order of Brevet Major-General Chas.

By order of Distribution R. Woods. A. RAMBEY MENINGER, A. A. G. Judge Bond will perform the duties of the office in the meantime.

From savannah. Savannah, May 18. Generals Steadman and Fullerton arrived here last night. They left Charleston on Sunday, since which time they have been investigating the working of the Freedmen's Bureau on the Sea Islands. Amongst the evils that have come to light is a persistent system of over charge for food and the necessaries of life, indulged. in . by many persons working plantations. The
