Not So Much.

BOSTON, May 19.—In the suit of John M. Way in the Supreme Court for $20,000 damages, resulted in a verdict giving him $100. The ground for the suit was that he had been compelled to raise a flag and make a loyal speech, by some of his neighbors who believed him to be disloyal.

An Indian Treaty.

WASHINGTON, May 19th.—The Governor of Idaho has concluded a treaty with the Ojibbe Shoshones. One hundred and fifty chiefs, headmen and women made the council, representing eight hundred or a thousand Indians, which was held in the heart of the hostile Indian country. By this treaty he says the Ojibbe has been extinguished and all the lands, rich in minerals, known as the Ojibbe mines, are ceded to the United States.

The Railroad Accident at Clarksville.

CLARKSVILLE, TENN., May 18.—The accident by which a train on the railroad near here fell through a bridge nearly one hundred feet high, is stated to have occurred to a wood train with a heavy engine. The west span of the bridge became a total wreck.

Six whites and thirteen negroes on the cars were precipitated into the water. But one negro was killed, Smith Ewin, the engineer, who was badly bruised; also Geo. Akona, brakeman. The freeman was not hurt. J. C. Davis, the conductor, was bruised about the head. Five or six negroes were more or less bruised, and the rest were uninjured. The accident is attributed to the rottenness of the timbers of the bridge.

Death of Bishop Burgess.

Within the last few years there has been a remarkable fatality among the Bishops of the Episcopal Church in this country, and we are again called upon to record the death of one of the number, whose loss will be most severely felt. The Right Reverend George Burgess, D. D., Bishop of Maine, died while returning from the West Indies, whither he had been for his health, impaired by long labors. Bishop Burgess was born in Providence, R. I., on October 31, 1806. He was educated at Brown University, where he graduated in 1828, and was afterwards a tutor in that institution. Subsequently he visited Europe and studied in the Universities of Bonn, Berlin and Göttingen. After completing his theological studies, he accepted the rectorship of Christ Church, Hartford, where he remained till he was elected Bishop of the Diocese of Maine. He was consecrated October 31st, 1847, and at the same time assumed the rectorship of a church at Gardner.

During his whole Episcopate, Bishop Burgess has exercised a powerful influence in the House of Bishops and upon the church at large. Quiet, grave, and dignified in manner, with a clear judgment and unbending fidelity to every principle that he espoused, he approached more nearly to the lamented Bishop Potter, of this Diocese, than any of those who have survived him. He had hosts of friends in this city, who will mourn his death as a personal as well as a public loss.

CITY BULLETIN.

WEST PHILADELPHIA.—This morning is clear and crisp, eastward, but still with heavy, threatening banks of clouds in the west and northwest, portending more rain. The storm which has just passed over us, was much more severe in the interior. The western part of Franklin county, last Saturday, suffered under the dispersion of a severe hail storm, which lasted over two hours, doing much damage. It was preceded and followed by continuous high winds. On Tuesday last Chambersburg, Pa., was visited with a heavy white frost, and vegetation generally is further behind in Franklin than it is here. Chambersburg, our informant said to us, is being very much improved. A number of new buildings, some five stories in height, have been erected, and the town will have gained in beauty from the late presence of the rebel hordes.

At the Police station, two men, named Wm. Parker and Wm. Rowe, were held to bail for "malicious mischief." The mischief consisted in running a potato wagon they were driving into a valuable carriage and breaking it.

The workmen are fastening the rails on the sleepers on the Chestnut street railroad, and the cars will have nearly reached Thirty-seventh street.

At the Alms House business was at a very low figure, only eight were admitted on Thursday evening, and only two were discharged. There were no deaths. Census, 2,987; last year, 2,632; increase 455, to 433 of the day previous.

THE SOLDIERS' CAMPAIGN CLUBS.—The Twentieth Ward "Boys in Blue" organized on Thursday evening by electing Colonel Gideon Clark, President; Dr. George P. Oliver and Captain Harry Robinson, Vice Presidents; Lieutenant James C. Biggs, Secretary; Lieutenant John Frederick, Corresponding Secretary, and Captain H. E. Rulon, Treasurer.

For delegates to the Convention, which meets at 10 o'clock next, they elected Lieut. Colonel W. M. Worralley of Thos. Ford, Lieut. Wm. C. Haines; Dr. George P. Oliver and Sergt. D. Workman. The meeting was large and enthusiastic. Another meeting will be held on Thursday evening next, at 1109 Girard avenue.

BOLD ATTEMPT AT ROBBERY.—This morning Messrs. Ridgway & Co., brokers on Third street, sent one of their employes, Kenneth Willits, to the Union Bank to draw a check for $3,000. The money was drawn, and as the lad was passing down Third street near Church alley, his package was snatched by an old thief, known as Dutch Aherm, who immediately ran. The boy gave an alarm, when the thief dropped the money, but he was captured by Officer Sanders, of the Sixth Ward. Aherm was locked up at the Central Station for a hearing.

CHARGED WITH BURGLARY.—George Thomas, a colored man, was arrested last night at Sixth and Lombard streets, upon the charge of burglary. It is alleged that he was concerned in the robbery of a shop store on South street near Ninth, about the 1st of April, and at the hearing before Judge Smith, on Friday morning, two witnesses testified that they saw Thomas with some of the stolen boots and shoes in his possession, soon after the burglary. The accused was committed, in default of $1,000 bail, for trial.

ANOTHER RAID.—The police of the Third District, made another raid last night upon the disorderly characters who nightly congregate about Washington Square, to the great annoyance of quiet, respectable citizens. Seventeen low, degraded women were captured, and this morning, after a hearing before Alderman Belter, were sent to prison. The conduct of these street walkers has become intolerable, and scarcely anybody can walk by Washington Square at night without being grossly insulted.

STOLEN MONEY RECOVERED.—An account of the arrest of Charles Mathers for the larceny of about $300 from the residence of his cousin, Henry Mathers, and then firing the house has already been published. The defendant at first denied all knowledge of the crime, but after being committed to prison admitted his guilt and told where the money was, back of Monument Cemetery, and was found there by Lieut. John Spear.

BREAKING THINGS.—William Mathers and John W. Malony were before Alderman Devlin this morning upon the charge of malicious mischief. It is alleged that they went to a tavern at Front and Richmond streets yesterday afternoon, and smashed the windows and other articles. They were held in $1,000 bail to answer at Court.

MORE STOLEN PROPERTY RECOVERED.—A lot of silver spoons, marked E. M., and other articles, supposed to have been stolen by Benjamin Dickson, colored, were recovered yesterday by the Second District police and are awaiting claimants. Dickson is in custody on the charge of having committed a burglary at Chester, Pa.

VIOLATING AN ORDINANCE.—Five men were arrested this morning for violating an ordinance of the city by selling fish from wagons about the Twelfth street market. They were fined by Ald. Jones.

DOGS CAPTURED.—During the past week 84 unmuzzled dogs were captured in the city. On account of the rain the dog detentions only operated on two days. Nearly all of the curbs were killed.

FINALLY EXTINGUISHED.—The fire at the Victoria Coal Oil Works was finally extinguished at a late hour last night, and there is no further danger of its breaking out again.

A GOOD ORDER.—Mayor McMichael this morning issued an order to the Lieutenants of Police, to stop all ball playing in the streets.

THE LOVER'S SONG.

BY D. Y. K. W. & B.

Let the sailor's billows, And the soldier's air of strife; They have never seen the maiden That I hope to call my wife.

Who, from morn to eve, is singing, What is dearer far to me Than the soldier's song of battle, Or the sailor's of the sea.

With a song that'll untended, Like the song of singing birds, She has made my heart a captive By the music of her words;

For she sings, "When I am married It shall be my aim of life 'Ere to be a worthy woman, And a loving constant wife."

Oh! the darling! when we married, If she prove all that to be, I shall envy not the soldier, Or the sailor on the sea.

Neither tented fields nor oceans Shall ever tempt my feet to roam From the loving wife so constant, 'Till we wander through the town, 'Till I never could get home.

It is not in lofty mansions, That the parent joys are known, And the queen of my affections, While my heart shall be her throne.

In our home, however humble, Will that scarce only wife, Which shall make a loving husband, Ever to be a worthy wife.

From drinking, chewing, smoking, From cards and dice I'm free, But I'll own I have a weakness, For a cup of fragrant tea.

And to die the best and sweetest, 'Till I wander through the town, 'Till I never could get home.
