The Pennsylvania Flag Presentation

The Disfranchisement of Deserters.

Movements of Ocean Steamers.

HARRISBURG, May 22.—Governor Curtin received a despatch to-day from Secretary Stanton, announcing that an order had been issued by the Adjutant General, granting, as far as may be consistent with the interest of the service, permission to all regular army officers who commanded in Pennsylvania regiments, to be present at the flag presentation in Philadelphia, on the 4th of July.

The question of the constitutionality of the law disfranchising deserters in Pennsylvania will be argued in the Supreme Court to-morrow. It is expected that all the Justices will be present, and that Attorney General Meredith will appear in support of the law.

Movements of Steamships. FAYETTE POINT, L. C., May 22.—The Belgian, from Liverpool, passed here at 7.50 A. M., to-day. Her news is anticipated.

NEW YORK, May 22.—The Periere has arrived from Havre. Her news is anticipated.

HALIFAX, N. S., May 22.—The Cuba sailed at 10.30 last night for Boston, where she will be due on Wednesday afternoon.

Reported Caving of a Railroad Tunnel. HARRISBURG, May 22.—The reported caving in of the tunnel on the Mount Joy branch of the Pennsylvania Railroad was greatly exaggerated. The affair was of trifling importance, and caused but little delay in the travel of the road.

The Presbyterian Assemblies. ST. LOUIS, May 22.—The members of both the Presbyterian Assemblies met in the Second Church to-day, for the first time since 1857, to discuss the question of reunion. The Moderators of both bodies presided. Eloquent speeches were made by Drs. Parker and McCook, of New York, Mr. Chamberlain, of Cincinnati, and Dr. McCosh, of Ireland. The meeting terminated by twelve hundred persons rising, and voting that the reunion be effected, and that all branches desirable and practicable. It is definitely stated that the Assemblies will inaugurate measures to effect an organic reunion.

Arrival of Steamers. NEW YORK, May 22.—The steamers City of New York, Bavaria and Bremen have arrived. Their arrivals are mainly anticipated.

Price of Gold in New York. (By the American Telegraph Co.) NEW YORK, May 22.—Gold has been quoted to-day as follows:

THE BOAT LINE, which will ply between your city and Cape May, touching at New Castle each way, is a feature of considerable magnitude to the public and our way-laid friends. It is to be composed of two new steamers, proverbial for their elegance and swiftness and controlled by the well-known steamboat proprietor, G. W. Hedges, Esq.

During the interval several magnificent cottages have been erected on the island, which for architectural beauty, will favorably compare with the suburban surroundings of Philadelphia, many of which are already preparing to receive their occupants. ALEX.

CITY BULLETIN.

A RAPID FALL—A SAD CASE.—A young woman, very neatly dressed, was found yesterday afternoon at Sixth and Catharine streets, in a beastly state of intoxication. She was in such a helpless condition that a push cart was required to get her to the Second District Police station. Some time after her arrival, Lieutenant Hampton had occasion to go into the lockup, and he discovered the woman standing in a peculiar position just inside of the door. He spoke to her but received no reply. It was then found that the prisoner had hung herself to a beam, with a rope made out of her apron. She was then insensible, but was quickly revived by proper treatment, and restored to consciousness. She then told her story to Lieut. Hampton. It is a sad one. She gives her name as Nell Curtis, and says she is twenty years of age. Three months ago she was an honored member of society in New Orleans. She became acquainted with a young man with a smooth tongue, and was finally persuaded to leave her husband and elope with her newly made acquaintance. The runaway came to this city, but having taken a false step, the wife of the woman was rapid. The couple lived together for some time, but quarrel occurred, and the gay young Lothario deserted the woman he had enticed from home and friends. She then got to drinking—a small quantity at first—but ultimately acquired such a taste for liquor that she was frequently intoxicated, and to cap the climax was carried through the streets in a push cart. She then determined to rid herself of a life which had become a burden, and was prevented from accomplishing her purpose by the timely discovery of Lieutenant Hampton. The woman is prepossessing in appearance, and her conversation shows that she has been well educated. She was taken in charge by some parties on Bay street with whom she has been recently living.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY.—Last evening, between seven and eight o'clock, a German who was returning from Engle & Wolf's farm, with his wife, was knocked down by three men on Pennsylvania avenue, above Girard avenue. The assailants attempted to rob the German, but did not succeed in getting anything. They were arrested and were committed by Alderman Fitch. The persons gave the names of John Rea, Chas. Kern and Martin Evers.

ASSAULTING A POLICEMAN.—Last night, about eleven o'clock, Officer Fulton of the Twelfth District, arrested Wm. McMahon for being drunk and attempting to shoot another man. The prisoner is alleged to have turned upon and violently assaulted Officer Fulton. This morning he had a hearing before Alderman Allen and was committed.

FIRE.—This morning about half-past six o'clock, the roof of a dwelling house, No. 327 North Twelfth street, was badly damaged by fire.

PICKING POCKETS.—James McCarty was arrested last evening, at Landing avenue, upon the charge of having picked the pocket of a lady. The pocket-book stolen was not recovered but the prisoner was taken to throw away. He will have a hearing this afternoon at the Central station.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT—Judge Cadwalader.—This morning, Richard Lowndes, Thomas Lowndes, Charles Richardson, Thomas Johnson, James Orr, and George Holmes, charged with obstructing the United States Marshal in the service of writ, pleaded guilty and were each sentenced to pay a fine of five dollars and costs.

J. G. Mellinger pleaded guilty to a charge of mail robbery, and was sentenced to five years in the Eastern Penitentiary.

DISTRICT COURT—Judge Hare.—William Harper vs. The Germantown Passenger Railway Company. This was an action to recover damages for injuries sustained by plaintiff in consequence of the alleged misconduct of a conductor on one of the cars of the Philadelphia and Germantown Railway. On the 5th of May, 1865, Col. Wagner, in company with a sergeant of a colored regiment, attempted to enter a car, and a disturbance was the result. The conductor had the car removed from the track. This attracted the attention of a large crowd of persons, who gathered in the neighborhood of Fourth and Girard avenue.

The next car that came along was taken possession of by the passengers of the other car, and Col. Wagner again attempted to enter. The plaintiff got on the car at Girard avenue, and was on the front platform, when a rush was made by the crowd in crossing the front of the car, and the plaintiff was thrown to the ground, the wheel of the car passing over his foot. The plaintiff alleges that the crowd was acting in concert with the conductor of the car.

DISTRICT COURT—Judge Stroud.—Gordon McKay vs. Mendall & Barman. An action to recover on a draft of plaintiffs accepted by defendants. The defence set up that the draft was given in payment for a sewing machine, which proved to be defective. On trial.

AMUSEMENTS. DRAMATIC.—We had quite a large treat of Shakespeare last evening. At the Walnut Mr. Booth repeated his admirable personation of Hamlet. At the Chestnut Mr. Edwin Adams also played the "melancholy Dane," admirably supported by Mr. and Mrs. Baker and the strength of the company. Mr. Adams has few equals in his personation of Hamlet, and he never played more superbly than last evening. The treat at the Walnut was the following cast: Celia, Miss E. Price; Phoebe, Miss Fanny Reeves; Audrey, Mrs. O. Henry; Titus Andronicus, Lieut. Hampton; Duke Frederick, Mr. F. O. Savage; Amiens, Mr. Crosbie; Jacques, Mr. E. L. Tilton; Oliver, Mr. L. L. James; Jacques de Bois, Mr. Quinn; Orlando, Mckenzie Rankin; Adam, Mr. F. Mackay; Charles, Mr. J. B. Everham; Willhamo, Mr. S. H. Hemple; Touchstone (first time), Owen Marlowe. The cast was good throughout, and may be inferred from the names. Of Miss Rushton's acting we can say it was agreeable, but must defer any further expressions of opinion until we see her in other classes of character. Her acting in the play of "The Merry Wives of Windsor" was admirable. To-night the bills are—Walnut, "Richard III.," Chestnut, "Richard III.," Arch, "School for Scandal."

THE CAROLINA TWINS give their levees day and evening at Assembly Building.

IGNOR BLITZ offers new and attractive programs nightly at Assembly Building. His day performances are on Wednesday and Saturday.

THE MORDAUNT TESTIMONIAL, shortly to take place at the Academy of Music, will be one of the dramatic events of the season.

FINANCE AND BUSINESS—May 22, 1866. The foreign news by the Cushing's panic in England in the market for gold and silver, and the failure of a number of prominent mercantile houses having extensive connections in this country, has materially unsettled the market for gold and silver, and caused much distress to the holders of the same.

THIRD EDITION.

BY TELEGRAPH. From Washington. (Special Despatch to the Bulletin.)

Passage of the Bankrupt Bill.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—Senator Wilson has reported his bounty bill. It is very stringent in its provisions, prohibiting claim agents from prosecuting claims of living soldiers. The bounty is the same as in the House bill.

The enemies of the Bankrupt bill are trying hard to kill it. The vote will be very close, but the chances are justly in its favor. The House has just refused to lay the bill on the table.

The Loan bill will be postponed, after discussion to-day. The chances are very slim on its passage.

Despatches received here to-day insure the election of General Ferry, the caucus nominee for Senator in Connecticut.

Passage of the Bankrupt Bill. WASHINGTON, May 22.—The House has passed the Bankrupt Bill introduced by Mr. Jenckes, by a vote of 68 yeas to 59 nays.

The Postal Service. WASHINGTON, May 22.—The President has approved the bill making appropriations for the service of the Postoffice Department for the next fiscal year. The aggregate amount of the foreign service is $18,375,000. In addition to this $50,000 is appropriated for the United States and Brazil mail service; $500,000 for the mail service between America, Russia, Japan and China for six months; $800,000 for the overland mail transportation between Atchison and Folson and for marine mail transportation between New York and California.
