CITY BULLETIN.

NATIONAL BANK OF THE REPUBLIC.—
This new financial institution opened this morning for the transaction of business, although the edifice is not quite finished. It is organized under the "National Currency Act" of March 30, 1866. Its officers are as follows: James B. Ferree, President; Ed. F. Moody, Cashier; Directors, James B. Ferree, C. P. Morton, David Hamaker, L. G. Mytinger, Samuel P. Ferree, James R. Webb, W. A. Arnold. The bank has every prospect of success. The banking house is located at Nos. 809 and 811 Chestnut street, an edifice having one of the most imposing brown stone fronts of any building on Chestnut street. The interior of the structure has undergone an entire change and for the better. A spacious frescoed entrance bisects the centre, making place on either side, on the ground floor, for a handsomely fitted store. One of these is already rented; the other is nearly ready for occupancy. The NATIONAL BANK OF THE REPUBLIC. other is nearly ready for occupancy. The dimensions of each are 19 by 76 feet, and both are provided with what are now-adays known as "all the modern improvements." The banking-house is in the rear of these, and is reached direct by the wide entrance from Chestnut street, opening between them. No more beautiful banking room need be desired. The walls and ceiling are frescoed; the enclosure surrounding the desks of the various clerks are in hard woods, butternut, walnut, and white holly, all native woods, and the work is done with great elaborateness. The fire-proof safe at the end of the banking room is an apartment in itself. It is like a mausoleum, whose floor and walls are a mass of chilled iron, steel bars, and wrought iron plates so interlaced or welded as to be impregnable to burglary.

There are other features in this building that are peculiar. A railway track runs through the centre of the banking room. The books in a concern like this are slightly ponderous. They are of the same pattern that took the silver medal at the last exhibithat took the silver medal at the last exhibi-tion of the Franklin Institute, and in quan-tity fill five large-sized carts. It is some-thing to the credit of the manufacturers of these books that printing, ruling, cutting and binding were all done upon the pre-mises of the maker. Their weight is such that the railroad track and the car is necessary to bring them each morning to the desks of the several clerks where they belong. We give the subjoined figures to show the extent of this new financial centre:
The banking room is 50 by 90 feet, and the height to the ceiling is 40 feet. There are six skylights, giving a northern light. The galleries extend around three sides, therear one being appropriated to the use of the directors. The yault is 10 feet in height and 8 by 16 feet in length and breadth. Entrance to the upper stories is gained by means of a double geometrical stairway. The apartments on the upper floors are admirably suited for offices and other business purposes, being unusually spacious.

The entire aspect of the banking house in light and airy, yet of the most substantial character possible. It is being visited hourly by large numbers of citizens and strangers, by large numbers of citizens and strangers, whose admiration is heartily expressed. The following are the names of the parties who have accomplished the work:—John Frazer, architect; John Crump, contractor; Carile & Joy, painters; Blumner & Palmner, fresco painters; Wm. Ballinger, plasterer; John Yeager, stair builder; William M. Wright, plumber and gas fitter; all under the superintendence of Hiram Lambert, builder.

WEST PHILADELPHIA .- Among the improvements is a two-story brick establishment, almost immediately opposite the Pennsylvania Railroad depot. It covers a front of 36 feet, through which an archway is intended to run, while the whole lot extends as far back as "Ludlow" or Oak street, as it was used to be called—half a square at least. The sides are intended as offices—the great edifice being some thirty feet or more in depth—the rear of the lot, for lot it is, will be employed in the "softening, packing and shipping of hides," and the sale of tallow. It will add to the effect of that side of the street, where improve-ment is terribly wanted. The owner is Mr. Owen Hughes, long and favorably known in his line of business. He has been located just above for a number of years. The coping, or the crossing, at the junction of Darby road and Market street, is tion of Darby road and Market street, is finished; but the proprietors of the grounds outside, edging on the embankment, above and below the railroad line, making no arrangement for the preservation of the lives of wayfarers, and no one but a West Philadelphian can properly calculate the danger of a "mis-step," or a "lee-lurch," when the result might be death, or at least broken bows ought to he at least called more in bones, ought to be—at least called upon in the BULLETIN to "mend their ways."

A subscriber, residing on Spruce, near Fortieth street, above, respectfully solicited the notice that the street, upwards, is in a deplorable condition. Somebody is engaged in grading it. Large spaces are filled up with all kinds of debris, of all sorts, with all sorts of objectionable trash, carried from, no one knows where, to be pitched out on some 'commons' or other convenient spot. Independent of all sorts of broken domesti utensils, no less than seventeen hoop-skirts were among the number of articles in pub-lic display. He blushed and passed on. Numbers of improvements are progressing in that section; but it would require the legs, not the arms, of a Briareus, to traverse every foot of soil, and dilate upon it daily, to give satisfaction to our

An Association of Artillerists.-A AN ASSOCIATION OF ARTILLERISTS.—A meeting of the officers and enlisted men of the lst, 2d and 3d regiments of Pennsylvania Artillery was held, last evening, to make preparations for the State flag presentation. Lieutenant Colonel John H. Oberteuffer, of the 2d regiment, presided, and Lieutenant Wm. M. Runkel, of the 3d regiment, acted as Secretary. A series of resolutions for the formation of a permanent organization were adopted. Rolls are to be opened at Ton Hall and other places. to be opened at Ton Hall and other places, for the purpose of enrolling such honorably discharged officers and enlisted men of the as the Veteran Artillery Brigade of the city are invited to join, as well as officers and men of independent batteries. "THE BOYS IN BLUE."—A meeting of delegates from the various Ward organizations of the "Boys in Blue" was held at the county court-house last evening. The following-named persons were elected permanent officers of the central organization:

President, General J. T. Owen; Vice Presidents, E. L. Helferty and H. Jump; Secretaries, Colonel James Given and Major H. Oscar Roberts: Treasurer General C. H. T. Oscar Roberts; Treasurer, General C. H. T.

General J. T. Owen, Captain Jacob S. Stretch, General Collis, F. G. Troxell, Col. W. B. Sipes, Charles Willingmeyer, Major E. D. Buck, Captain H. Conner and Isaac J. Neall, were elected delegates at large to the Pittsburgh Convention.

BOARD OF TRADE.—A stated meeting was held last evening. A resolution in favor of the bill for the admission of apprentices to the Naval Academy was adopted. It was stated that the Commissioner of Internal Revenue had reversed his recent ruling, holding liable to tax as merchandise brokers, all persons, whether merchants or salaried employes of mer-chants, offering merchandise for sale elsewhere than upon their own premises. Mr. Tatham, from a special committee upon the the usury laws, made a lengthy report, concluding with a memorial to the Congress of the United States, praying that the com-merce in money shall be rendered absolutely free from all restriction (exceptis ex-ceptandis), and that in the absence of special ceptanais), and that in the absence of special contracts for the use of money, the rates provided by the existing laws of the several States shall rule. The report was accepted and ordered to be printed with the accompanying documents, being reports of the ten committees of the British Parliament of 1813 and 1841, showing the action of the English government upon the usury laws. ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION.—The semicentennial anniversary of the Sabbath school of St. Paul's Episcopal Church was celebrated last evening. There was a large attendance of the congregation of the church and members of the school. A report which was read shows that since the organization of the school, 3,000 children and 300 teachers have attended services, 600 of the children were received into the church as communiwere received into the church as communicants and 21 clergymen have left the Bible classes in the past 33 years. In 1846 missonary classes were formed in the school; since then the contributions have reached 533,500. During the evening addresses were made by Rev. Dr. Claxton, Rev. Dr. Tyng, and Rev. Dr. Newton. The first named was a scholar in the Sunday School. Bishop Odenheimer, Dudley Tyng and a number of other clergymen, received their first Christian impressions in the St. Paul's Sabbath School.

Yesterday he was observed at Market street wharf, by Justice Mul-ford, who, originally committed him, and was taken into custody. He was sent back to New Jersey for trial.

GIRARD BROTHERHOOD.—The anniversary meeting of this organization was held yes-terday at the Girard College. An election for officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: President, R. S. Smith; Vice-Presinents, George R. Maguire, William Ward, of Chester, Pennsylvania. Recording Secretary, J. Thompson Carpenter. The speakers for the next anniversary were then elected, being President R. S. Smith, Daniel Kane O'Donnell and Walker S. Johnson.

SUMMER RESORTS.

COLUMBIA HOUSE, CAPE MAY, N.J.,

Will be Opened on the 1st day of June, 1866.

Many improvements have been added to this large and popular establishment since the close of last season. "Birgfeld's" celebrated Band has been secured, and nothing will be left undone to sustain the well established reputation of the house.

It has lorg been admitted that Cape May possesses a better and more secure beach than any other sea-side summer resort in the country. It is the only beach where ladies and children can bathe in the ocean by themselves with security.

Excellent railread facilities and largely extended hotel accommodations must command for Cape May a preference over any other sea shore resort in this country. a preference over any other sea snore resort in whis country.

The Columbia House is located close upon the beach, with a full ocean view from the fronts of the house. Its bathing-rooms are new, and nearly built. Its lawn has a fine group of shade trees, and well laid-out walks. Its dininc-room is very large and airy, and is so situated as to secure a fine ocean breeze at all times of day and evening.

There are connected with the house several fine cottages which may be secured by families or parties who desire more private quarters than rooms in the hotel,
