WHO SHALL VOTE?

An Important Case Before the Suprem Court of Pennsylvania at Harrisburg.

HARRISBURG, PA., May 24.—This morn ing what is known as the "Franklin coundeserter case came up on an appeal for before the Supreme Court. facts in this case may be briefly stated as Henry Reilly, the plaintiff, a citizen of Franklin county, was drafted into the military service of the United States on the 19th day of July, 1864, and having been regularly served with a notice of his conscription, he refused and never did report to the Provost Marshal of the Sixteenth District for service in the army of the United States, nor did he furnish a substitute, or pay the required sum of money therefor. When the plaintiff in this case offered to vote in the township in this case offered to vote in the township of Hamilton, county of Franklin, on the 10th day of October, 1865, the judge of the election refused to receive his vote, on the ground that the plaintiff was a deserter from the military service of the United States, and in consequence thereof was disfranchised by the act of Congress providing for the enrolling and calling out of the national forces, approved the 3d day of March.

When the case came up in the Franklin county court, on the suit of Henry Reilly vs Benj. Huber, judge of election, judgment was rendered against the defendant in favor of the plaintiff for one dellar and costs of suit. the plaintiff, for one dollar and costs of suit, thereby annulling the law of Congress, and relieving all deserters, heretofore citizens of Pennsylvania, so far as the decision of the court is concerned, from the penalty of disfranchisement.

Benjamin Huber, defendant below, and plaintiff in error, now asks to be relieved of this fine, as having been illegally imposed, urging in support of his action as a judge of the election, in disfranchising Henry Reilly, that Reilly's forfeiture of his right as a citizen of the United States in clades the forfaiture of his rights as an election. cludes the forfeiture of his rights as an elec-tor in the State of Pennsylvania.

On this point the suit was brought before the Supreme Court, and in the argument to-day before that tribunal some of the ablest lawyers in the Commmonwealth partici-

The following communication on the subject was received by the Judges from Attorney General Meredith:

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE, HARRIS-ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE, HARRISBURG, PA., May 23, 1866.—My Dear Sir—I understand that a case involving the question of the constitutionality of the act of Congress which provides for the disfranchisement of deserters will be heard before you to-day. It was my purpose on hearing that case, as an anicus curia, to make or ally the statement which I now beg leave to present to the court in writing. The physical the statement which I now beg leave to present to the court in writing. The physical disability under which I am temporarily laboring will, I hope, afford a ground for your kind indulgence in the adoption of this mode of communicating with the court.

Shortly before the termination of the last session a bill was sent to the Governor for

Under-standing that one or more cases involving the question of the constitutionality of that act of Congress would be presented for your decision at the present term, he thought that a due observance of that respect for and obedience to the law as adjudicated by the highest tribunel of the Common with highest tribunal of the Commonwealth, which have always been prominent characteristics of our people, required that he should await, if possible, the result of your

As the provisions of that bill are probably not otherwise known to the court, I beg to suggest that, if it should become a law, a very considerable time will be required to make the thorough necessary examination of the military records of the United States and to prepare the detailed list which it directs to be transmitted. be transmitted to the offices of the respective Courts of Quarter Sessions, and to afford sufficient time, between such transmission and the general election, to the persons whose names may be on the list, to obtain the evidence of any mistake which may have occurred in regard to themselves

I conceive it to be my duty to bring these circumstances to the attention of this court, thatt they may be apprised of the great public interests that seem to invite an early announcement of their judgment on the question.

Attorney General of Pennsylvania.

The case was then argued before the full bench of Justices, Hon. John Cessna appearing for the plaintiff in error. He was followed by J. McDowell Sharp for the defendant in error, and the argument was fendant in error, and the argument was closed by Col. A. K. McClure for the plaintiff. The argument on both sides was ex-

XXXIXTH CONGRESS—FIRST SESSION. [CLOSE OF YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.]

SENATE.—The Reconstruction resolutions were taken up. Mr. Stewart (Nevada) took the floor. He contended at some length for negro suf-frage and amnesty. He said he appreciated the difficulties that the Committee had surmounted, and they deserved great praise for their faithful efforts to harmonize conflicting opinion. He hailed with joy the liberal spirit with which their report was presented to the Senate, and he should proceed with the same spirit of compromise and ask the Senate to adopt amnesty and suffrage as a basis of the final plan, modified as the wis-dom of the Senate might dictate. Failing in this he, he should support the majority as long as their measures seemed to contain any elements of good; but he did hope that the essential principles of justice and mercy would never be lost sight of. At the conclusion of Mr. Stewart's speech, On motion of Mr. Howard (Mich.) the further consideration of the pending subject was pestponed until 1 o'clock to-morrow.

Mr. Sherman (Ohio) submitted the following, which he said expressed his own views on the subject of reconstruction, though he did not know that he should offer it, as he intended to vote for what appeared to be the strongest proposition—to strike out the strongest proposition—to strike out the second and third sections of the proposed amendment and insert in lieu thereof: Representatives shall be apportioned among the different States which may be included within this Union according to the number in each State of male citizens of the United States over twenty-one years of age, qualified by the laws of that State to choose qualined by the laws of that state to choose members of the most numerous branch of the Legislature, and including such citizens as are disqualified for participating in rebellion. Direct taxes shall be apportioned among the several States according to the value of real estate and personal property in each State, not belonging to the State or to the United States.

the the United States.

The above was ordered to be printed.

The resolution was, after debate, recommitted to the Military Committee. At 3.45 o'clock the Senate went into Executive Session, and soon after adjourned.
House.—The House went into Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union, Mr. Dawes (Mass.) in the chair, and resumed the consideration of the Tax bill, commencing at the paragraph amending section 163 of the would insist on the Tax bill being acted on | City Paster Charged with Embezzlement until disposed of. North Carolina Convention.

RALEIGH, May 24.—The State Convention re-assembled to-day, when some eighty delegates answered to their names. Mr. Clarke, of Craven county, offered a resolution that the Convention adjourn sine die, as follows:

Whereas, This Convention was called and did assemble at the instance and under the authority of the President of the United States, as Commander-in-chief of the Army and Navy thereof, to the end that the State and Navy thereof, to the end that the State of North Carolina, by altering and amending its organic law in conformity to the necessary results of the war, might in fact exercise and enjoy the constitutional rights and privileges of membership in the Federal Union.

And whereas, The Convention did at its former session fully and satisfactorily accomplish the purposes for which it was called, and did assemble at the instance and under the authority aforesaid. And whereas, This Convention was moved to assemble in its present session by the possibility that, in the course of events, further action in the premises might be required or demanded by the President of the United States, by reason of his official military po-

And whereas, No further action as aforesaid is now required or demand; And whereas, All ordinances and enact-ments further affecting the organic law of the State in attemping to regulate the in-ternal Government and policy thereof, passed by a convention called and assem-bled as aforesaid, and which does not derive authority therefor from the people, through the mode prescribed in the Constitution by the people, would be subversive of the Constitution and revolutionary in effect, dangerous to liberty and incompatible with free institutions; therefore Resolved, That this Convention do now adjourn.

The resolution lies over one day under the rule, though it will not pass.

From Memphis.

MEMPHIS, May 24.—A card yesterday morning appeared in the Bulletin, signed D. H. Roberts, charging General Runkle, Superintendent of the Freedmen's Bureau here, in connection with C. C. Smith, of the intelligence office, with refusing to contract for the employ of freedmen without a honge or the employ of freedmen without a bonus of fifteen dollars apiece.

The statement was telegraphed in advance to papers in several of the Northern An examination of the matter shows that dishonorable propositions were made to officers of the bureau, and failing to ac-officers of the bureau, and failing to accomplish their purpose, Roberts himself, the correspondent of a prominent Northern paper, published the card, and another correspondent telegraphed it, in order to bring the Bureau officers into disrepute.

A statement appears in all the papers this morning, signed by Roberts, denying and retracting everything in his card of the day before.

The Congressional Committee to-day ex amined a number of witnesses. Their in vestigation is likely to cover more ground than was expected, and to develop the riot as having been more extensive in its results than was shown by any statement yet published.

Murder Trials.

Boston, May 24.—The trial of John Moran for the murder of Mary Ellen Kearney, on the 19th of March last, was commenced before the Supreme Court, in Dedham, to-day. The prisoner and Miss Kearney lived in Roxbury, and were said to be under an engagement of marriage, and without any known cause of quarrel, the young woman was shot dead while standing in the door of her father's house. The testimony apparently implicates Moran as the murderer. the murderer.

Mr. Wilson, before the hearing com-Mr. Wilson, peiore the hearing commenced, stated that he had no ill-feeling towards Mr. McElwee, but that he brought the suit to vindicate the honor of newspapers. He said that $81 50 and a package of coffee and tea had been subscribed for Mrs. Dowell, and that amount and articles had been handed over to the "City Peace". been handed over to the "City Pastor." The receipt of the same had been acknowledged by the "Pastor," but only $60 had been paid over to Mrs. Dowell.

The following evidence was elicited:
Mrs. Hannah L. Dowell, sworn.—I live at
No. 934 Cantrell street; Mr. McElwee brought me at first $10, and afterward $20; witness called to see if there was any more for her; Mr. McElwee said that she was very lucky to get so much: that there were others suffering worse than her, even starving; he said I ought to be satisfied with what I got; last Tuesday I called particular. I got; last Tuesday I called again, and he gave me $30 more.

Cross-examined—I think it was the 18th Cross-examined—I think it was the 18th of April that he gave me the ten dollars; he and his wife rode down to my house in a carriage, and brought it; I think it was on the 21st that I got the twenty dollars; I saw an acknowledgement in the newspaper, brought to me by my sister's husband, that Mr. McElwee had received eighty-one dollars and fifty cents for me; after I had received the thirty dollars I went to him for the rest; he told me to go away; that I had got thirty dollars and ame dothing to wear, and that there were a great many there who and that there were a great many there who were still worse off than I was.

were still worse off than I was.

Chas. Perkes, sworn—Last Sunday afternoon I heard from Mrs. Dowell's sister that Mrs. Dowell had received only thirty dollars of the money announced as subscribed for her; he offered to go to Mr. McElwee and see what it meant; wilness learned that the eighty-one dollars and fifty cents had been paid to the "City Pastor." paid to the "City Pastor."

I went to his residence and told him he could pay the rest of it, just as he pleased; the City Pastor considered that it was disthe City Pastor considered that it was discretionary with him whether to do so or not; he crumpled the slip of paper in his hand; this paper had the acknowledgment printed on it; I asked him for the additional sum and he threw the paper on the floor to me; he wanted to know if I was a lawyer, or by what right I interfered; I gave him my address, and told him that all I wanted of him was to prevent the family of Mrs. Dowhim was to prevent the family of Mrs. Dowell from being imposed upon.

He asked me and the friend I had with me if we doubted his willingness to pay over the money; I told him I certainly did; he said he didn't talk with ruffians, but if we came as gentlemen he would talk with us; he subsequently came to my house, and said that, if I would go up to his house, he would let me audit the account, and see that everything was right; he showed me that everything was right; he showed me that there was one typographical error which made of $1 50 $15; the defendant had charged Mrs. Dowell $2 to pay for hiring a carriage to convey him and his wife to Mrs. Dowell's residence to hand over $10.

A letter, sent to one of the newspapers by the defendant, was read, in which he states that he considered the matter discretionary with him to disburse the money that he re-ceived. It was dated just after the woman had received a first thirty dollars, in which Mr. McElwee says that there are persons to whom it would be unwise to give even fifty ollars at a time, and that thus he had no paid to Mrs. Dowell the full amount intrusted o him; that he knew other parties in abject misery, and that he never understood that he was left no discretion in the distribution of alms confided to his charge.

The Recorder stated that he would give
