

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

An unaccountable sensation has been produced in England by the appearance of a work entitled "Ecoe Homo" by an anonymous author. The work has already run through several editions, and has been widely reviewed and hotly criticized.

These features of the author's mind pervade the book. There is scarcely a leading proposition of "Ecoe Homo" which does not receive flat contradiction from such Scripture as has scarcely ever been held as disputed theology amongst those who profess any belief in the Bible at all.

On motion, one thousand copies of the Journal, and one thousand copies of Dr. Howe's Sermon on Missions, were directed to be printed.

A SINGULAR INCIDENT.—On board the Milwaukee, coming up from Dunleith yesterday, was a man who, by his actions and peculiar manner, drew the attention of the passengers to him, and gave rise to suspicions as to his sanity.

"Arthur Merton, or Sinning and Sorrowing," recently published by J. C. Garrigue & Co., of this city, is one of the handsomest specimens of book-making which we have seen for some time, and does great credit to the printer, Jas. B. Rodgers, and binders, Mayhew & Dodd.

"Patriotic Poems" is the name of a very beautifully printed volume of war lyrics by Francis De Haes Janvier, of this city, just published by J. B. Lippincott & Co.

"Woman against Woman" is a capital novel by Florence Maryatt, the daughter of the famous novelist. The authoress shows a degree of vigor and versatility worthy of her descent.

Protestant Episcopal Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

CLOSING PROCEEDINGS.

After our report closed yesterday, the following memorial was adopted: "Whereas, It has pleased the great Head of the Church to take from our midst our late venerable friend and brother, Rev. Henry W. Ducochet, D. D., who, for the space of more than thirty years, was identified with the interests of the Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, therefore,

Resolved, That this Convention, while humbly bowing to the will of God in this dispensation of His providence, desire to express their high appreciation of his character as a warm-hearted and devoted Christian, a profound scholar and a cultivated gentleman.

Resolved, That this Convention desires to express their sincere sympathy with the afflicted family of our deceased brother, and heartily commend them to the care and protection of our Father in heaven, and implore the blessing of that Divine Comforter, who can alone bind up the broken heart and heal the deep wounds of grief.

On motion, a committee of three, to include the Secretary and Assistant Secretary of the Convention, was appointed to revise and prepare for publication the Journal of the Convention.

On motion, a memorial expressive of the Christian virtues of the late Rev. John A. Vaughan, D. D., and of the sorrow of the Convention at his loss, was adopted.

Consolidation of Telegraph Companies. New York, May 25.—There are confident statements afloat to the effect that the leading stockholders and a majority of the directors of the Western Union Telegraph Companies have substantially agreed upon a basis of consolidation.

To KEEP TIRES ON WHEELS.—Hear what a practical man says on the subject: "I ironed a wagon one year ago for my own use, and before putting on the tires I filled the fellos with linseed oil; and the tires have worn out and were never loose. I ironed a buggy for my own use several years ago, and the tires are now as tight as when put on. My method of filling the fellos with oil is as follows: I use a long cast iron heater, made for the purpose. The oil is brought to a boiling heat, the wheel is placed on a stick, so as to hang in the oil each fello, an hour for a common-sized fello. The timber should be dry, as green timber will not take oil. Care should be taken that the oil be not hotter than boiling heat. In order that the timber be not burnt. Timber filled with oil is not susceptible to water, and the timber is much more durable. I was used, and some years ago, when I told the blacksmith how to keep the tire tight on wheels, by his telling me that it was a profitable business to tighten tires, and the wagon-maker will say that it is profitable to him to make and repair wheels; but what will the farmer who supports the wheelwright and smith say?"—N. Y. Coach-makers' Magazine.

GRAPES.—Mr. Speer having some property in New Jersey, turned his attention to the cultivation of the Samburg vine imported from Portugal. It bears a grape whose superior quality, juiciness and richness in saccharine matter is unexcelled by that of the Catawba. After numerous experiments in fermentation, Mr. Speer has produced a wine which will impartize his name and prove a new honor to America.—Boston Traveller.

J. P. Skelly & Co., Philadelphia have just published two interesting little juveniles, one called "Sam Bolton's Cottage," and the other "The Little Doorkeeper."

"Woman against Woman" is a capital novel by Florence Maryatt, the daughter of the famous novelist. The authoress shows a degree of vigor and versatility worthy of her descent.

NEW ORLEANS, May 25.—It is estimated that the total Louisiana cotton crop will be one-third of the crop of 1861. The Red river country and the other overwatered districts will produce scarcely any. The Red river levees have given way, and the whole country is submerged from Natchitoches down. The sugar cane is promising, where not flooded.

From North Carolina. RALEIGH, May 25.—The message of Gov. Worth, to the Convention, makes no recommendation for the reconstruction measures, and says they must wait for the next Congress. The President is heartily endorsed by all loyal men here, including the Congressmen elect. Governor Worth's complaints are chiefly against the Reconstruction Convention did nothing of political importance.
