OITY BULLETIN.

WEST PHILADELPHIA.-Yesterday, in its early hours, was decidedly as unpleasant a Sabbath as one could possibly desire to go to church on. As a consequence there was a slim attendance everywhere, and the atten-dants were few and far between. No one cared to wade through the slush and mud of the crossings, however rich the intellectual repast that might await them. The absence of some of the leading ministers of West Philadelphia, Dr. J. G. Butler, of the Walnut Street Presbyterian, Rev. Addi-son Henry, of the "Princeton," and others being still absent at St. Louis, Mo. At his church Rev. Mr. Hall preached morning and evening. At the Baptist churches, the return of the Rev. Mr. Cooper, of the "Bereans," and Rev. James (not Isaac) Castle, of the First Baptist Church, Thirty-sixth and Chestnut, the attendance was somewhat larger. At the latter church on Thursday evening a week, the annual Sunday School celebration will take place The scholars number over three hundred The church will be elaborately decorated Messrs. Theodore Myers and Mr. Eli Burrett having the arrangements in charge. At the Insane Department (Philadelphia Hospital), Almshouse, Rev. Mr. Graeff, in the absence of Rev. Mr. Pierson, produced quite a sensation among the patients; while the volunteer choir, taking advantage of the change of weather, added to the interest of the occasion. The text and its handling were very appropriate, and several of the unfor-tunates pronounced the sermon the finest they ever heard. It produced quite a revival. The "Havdn Quintette" propose giving another of their favorite concerts this week while Sig. Blitz has tendered his services to the Chief Resident Physician, for an afternoon performance. Sig. Blitz performed there some five or six years ago, and he has been a household memory ever since. -The Board of Guardians of the Poor hold their semi-monthly meeting this afternoon, at the Almshouse. We give the statistics in advance of to morrow morning's papers. On Saturday there were 13 admissions; 2 births, 2 deaths, 20 discharges and 7 elope-ments. During the week there were 107 admissions, 86 discharges, 14 deaths, 10 births, while 35 eloped. On Sunday there were 4 additional ad-missions, including 1 to the Insane Depart-ment; 4 additional deaths, while 5 eloped The census to-day is 2,947. Last year same date, 2,483; increase of 464. Death of the Rev. Charles C. Pise, D. D The Catholic Church has lost many of its prominent divines during the past three years, and on Saturday another was added to the list of talented and able clergymen of that denomination, whose demise the whole American church is lamenting. The Rev. Charles Constantine Pise, D. D. for many years yast the worthy pastor of the congre-gation worshiping in the church of St. Charles Borromeo, Sydney place, Brooklyn breathed his last, after an illness of a few weeks, at his residence in that city, at noon, on Saturday in the situration year of his on Saturday, in the sixty-fifth year of his age. Dr. Pise was the son of an Italian gen-

age. Dr. Fise was the son of an itanian gen-tleman of ancient and noble family. His mother was an American lady, a native of Philadelphia. The deceased was placed in the Georgetown Col-lege at an early age, that famous institution being then as now under the control of the Order of the Society of Jesus. Graduating there most creditably, he went to Rome to pursue his theological studies, but returned after two years, and completed his preparation for the ministry under the tutelage of the Rev. Dr. Bunti, the preceptor of the late Archbishop Hughes. He was ordained priest in 1825, and commenced his labors in Frederick, Md., but subsequently removed to Baltimore, where he officiated at the cathedral. The labors of his position, at the cathedral. The labors of his position, together with the performance of a large amount of religious literary work which he attempted, impaired his health, and he again visited Rome for a respite. While there he was made Doctor of Divinity, and honored with the title of Knight of the Roman Empire. Upon his return to America he settled in Washhis return to America he settled in Washington, and, through the influence of Henry Clay and other warm personal freinds, he was elected Chaplain to the Senate of the United States. On the invitation of Dr. Du-bois, then Bishop of New York, he afterward came to this city and officiated at St. Peter's, in Barclay street, till 1849, when he removed in Barclay street, in 1549, when he removed to Brooklyn, and purchased the church in Sydney place, with which he was connected at the time of his death. Dr. Pise was ac-knowledged one of the most eloquent and learned divines of his church in America, as he was one of the most industrious and faithfal laborers in it. Aside from his labore with his spiritual charge, he devoted much time to literary pursuits. He was the author of "Letters of the Truths of Catholic Doc-trines," "A History of the Church from its Establishment to the Reformation," "The Acts of the Apostles in Verse," and many other volumes in prose and verse. The deceased also edited, many years ago, in com-pany with the late Father Felix Varelia, D. D., an influential magazine published in this city and known as the "Catholic Expo-sitor." In the volumes of this work will be found many of his happiest efforts both in verse and prose, Among the latter may be mentioned 'Horæ Vagabundæ,'' a series of deeply interesting letters descriptive of his travels in Europe. They were eagerly sought after at the time of their publication. The remains of the deceased will be buried
