THE ACADEMY OF NATURAL SCIENCE .-This institution contains at the present time

a collection of birds not surpassed in number, beauty or variety, in any part of Europe. It would require many years and at least one hundred and fifty thousand dol-lars to bring together a collection like that contained within the walls of the Academy. Thene are more than two hundred thousand natural objects to be seen, collected from all parts of the earth, at a cost of so much labor and money. The library contains thirty theusand volumes; many of them are extremely rare and of great price. It has been carefully estimated that this col-lection of natural objects and books cannot be duplicated as a cost of less then a holf be duplicated at a cost of less than a half million of dollars, exclusive of labor and time necessary to achieve it.

MAN SHOT AND BEATEN,-Mr. James McCruden keeps a public house at No. 757 South Eleventh street. On Saturday the South Eleventh street. The ruffians gained admittance, however, and struck Mr. Mcadmittance, however, and struck Mr. Mc-Cruden with a bung driver, wounding him severely. Three pistol shots were also fired and a ball took effect in the arm of Mr. Mc-Cruden, causing a painful though not dan-gerous wound. Upon her return un-der steam alone, she made 10 knots an hour with only half her boilers and 36 revolutions of her engines. Prior to the accident she was making 46 revolutions, and was continually improving. Her officers speak of the ship in the highest terms.

AMUSEMENTS. THE CHESTNUT .- This evening the beautiful and accomplished Webb sisters appear at this popular place of amusement. It will be remembered that they played a very successful engagement when they were here before, and made themselves extremely before, and made themselves extremely popular, and their return will be welcomed. by their many admirers. Both sisters are very talented, enacting their various char-acters with animation, intelligence and pi-quancy. They will appear in two pieces each evening, and a charge of bill will be given nightly. To-night "Mother's Dying Child" and "A Day Too Late" will be given, in which the sisters play a bewilder-ing number of characters. We are certain that they will prove attractive, especially during the heated term approaching, when laughter and comedy are more seasonable than tears and tragedy. We trust to see the than tears and tragedy. We trust to see the Chestnut crowded nightly. THE ARCH .-- This evening Mrs. John Drew will appear as Kate Harley in Cra-ven's comedy of "The Needful." It will be ven's comedy of "The Reedfal." It will be a rich treat to witness the performance of such an admirable artist after the experi-ence of the past week. On Wednesday evening "Lost in London" will be pre-sented; on Thursday, "London Assurance;" on Friday, "Nine Points of the Law," and other attractions, for the benefit of Mrs. Drew, and on Saturday evening "Victo-rine" and "Nick of the Woods," In all these pieces Mrs. Drew will sustoin the these pieces Mrs. Drew will sustain the leading characters, and that fact should fill the house with admirers of truly fine acting. THE WALNUT.—Mr. Edwin Booth repeats "Hamlet" to-night. This performance is sure to attract a full house. On Tuesday evening "Shylock" and "Taming of the Shrew" will be presented; on Wednesday "Richelieu," on Thursday "Hamlet" will be repeated, and on Friday Mr. Booth will appear for the first time in this city as the Stranger. "The Fool's Revenge" will shortly be produced at this house, with Mr. Booth in the principal character. This is truly a wonderful assumption, and the part has been created by Mr. Booth. A FRENCHMAN'S OPINION OF ENGLISH GIBLS.—This is the cry of rapture which a distinguished French writer, M. Taine, raises after contemplation of the young ladies of England: "Nothing more simple ladies of England: "Nothing more simple than the young girls; among lovely things there are few so lovely in the world; well-shaped, strong, sure of themselves, so thoroughty sound and open, so exempt from coquetry. Impossible unless one has seen it to imagine this freshness, this innocence. Many of them are flowers—flowers just hursting into bloom only the more just Many of them are nowers—nowers just bursting into bloom; only the morning rose with its pure and delightfal tints, with its petals studded with dewdrops, can give an idea of it; far in advance this of the beauty of the South, with its distinct, finished, fixed outlines, constituting a definite design; here all remutes us of the frequility do here all reminds us of the fragility, de-licacy, and continal flow of life; eyes full of candor, blue as yiolets, looking with-out consciousness of what they are looking at; at the slightest emotion the blood dif-fusing itself over the cheeks, the neck, even down to the shoulders in wards interd down to the shoulders, in purple-tinted waves; you see emotions flitting on these transparent flushes like the varying tints that play mon their moderney day. that play upon their meadows; and this virgin purity is so genuine that you feel an im-pulse to lower your eyes in respect. And yet, all natural and artless as they are, they are not languid and listless; they enjoy and can bear active service like their brothers; with their hair floating in the wind, they are to be seen, when only six years old,gal-loping on horseback, and taking long walks. In this country a life of action fortifies the phlegmatic temperament, and the heart be-comes more simple while the body is be-

AN IMPORTANT ELECTION.-There is a significance attached to the election in Camsignificance attached to the election in Cam-den county, which is now approaching of a most important character. PROVERBS .- Don't swop with your rela-'ROVERBS.—JON't swop with your rela-shuns unless you kin give them the big end of the trade. Marry young, and if circumstances require it, often. If you can't git good cloathes and eddleation too, git the cloathes. Say "How are you" to everybody. Kultivate modesty, but keep a good stock of impu-dence on hand. Be charitable—three-penny-cent pleces were made on purpose. It cost more to borry than it does to buy. If a man flatters you you can katkelate he is a rouse, or you are a file. Keep both kalkelate he is a regue, or you are a full. Keep both eyes open, but don't see more than half you notis. If you itch for fame go into s graveyard and acratch yourself against a tume stone. siderable interest in casting about for candidates of known integrity and availability for the places designated. This is impera-tive because of the scenes which were enacted last winter in the Senate in Scovel's above the scenes of the scenes of the scenes which were enacted last winter in the Senate in Scover a refusal to go into joint meeting to elect a United States Senator; and, it is necessary, therefore, that true and trustworthy mem-bers should be returned to the Legislature in order to have such a majority in both branches that one, nor two men will not be able to accomplish what Scovel did last winter. There will, evidently, be two United States Senators to elect next winter, which makes it important for the Unionists to go to work early and earnestly in the matter. The contest will be a warm and animated one, and every effort should be put forth for securing the success of the entire Union ticket.

COTTON IN MISSISSIPPI AND NORTH CARO-LINA.-Gen. Thomas, late Bureau Commis-sioner for the State of Mississippi, and now sioner for the State of Mississippi, and now on Gen. Howard's staff, reports that before the war that State used to raise about 1,000,000 bales of cotton, or nearly one-quarter the entire yield of the United States. He thinks this year's crop will reach 600,000 bales. He says the best lands along the banks of the Mississippi River are being cultivated by Northern men with adequate capital, who thus enjoy special facilities for securing Tabor and supplies over the old planters who occupy the lands of the inte-tior. The flooding of the river banks, he thinks, will not injure the cotton crop; but, if it should, replanting may be continued up to the middle of June with assurance of s good crop. Col. Byron Lafin, of New York, who has a cotton plantation in North Carolina, gives a very flattering account of Carolina, gives a very flattering account of the prospective yield in that State.-Tri-bune's Wash.
