

Annual Meeting of the New England Anti-Slavery Society. Boston, May 30. The New England Anti-Slavery Society held its annual meeting yesterday in the Methodist Church, Boston, May 30.

Mr. Phillips proposed and sustained, in a practical speech, a series of resolutions embracing the following propositions: First. No settlement of national affairs except on the basis of absolute and impartial justice.

Second. The only essential element of reconstruction is suffrage for the negro, every other matter being unimportant and secondary.

Third. The President, on this point, has willfully and deliberately betrayed the North, and his cabinet have severally sustained him, and the Congress has assented to the point in issue, our only hope rests on the issue.

Fourth. Special thanks to Senator Sumner. Fifth. If Congress should pass any resolutions, it is not only unwarranted, but it is worse still—an unworthy trick to mislead the nation.

Phillips hoped the Senate's amendment of the reconstruction plan would meet with an ignominious defeat, and that Massachusetts would vote against the measure.

He said, "I hope the Republican party, if it goes to the polls, will be defeated. If this is the only thing that the party has to offer, it deserves defeat. The Republican party to-day seeks only to save its life; it does not care to lose it."

He said, "I hope the Republican party to-day seeks only to save its life; it does not care to lose it. It is a political party, and it will do anything to remain in power."

Discovery of Hidden Treasures. The Indiana (Indiana) Democrat says: For some time past a party of Indians, numbering fifteen, belonging to the Cherokee tribe, have been encamped upon the banks of the Ohio, about ten miles from this place.

They were fishing, hunting, &c., but it appears from recent developments that their chief aim was to discover the whereabouts of seven urns of Spanish gold which had been imbedded in the bluffs at that point in years gone by.

The discovery of these treasures, if true, would be a great find, and it is not surprising that the party should have been so long in making it.

After diligent search, which occupied some ten or twelve days, they succeeded in finding the spot where they lay concealed.
