Official Orders on the Death of General WASHINGTON, May 30.—The following orders from the Heads of the various Departments, in reference to the death of the late Lieutenant-General, were issued to-day: HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY, A. G. O.,

WASHINGTON, May 30,1866.—General Orde No. 33.—With profound sorrow the General-in-Chief announces to the army the death at West Point, New York, on the 29th inst., of its late illustrious commander, Breve Lieutenant-General Winfield Scott. His history is a part of the history of the country. It is almost needless to recall it who have venerated him so long. Entering the army as a captain in 1808, a the close of the war of 1812-14 he had already, by the force of merit, won his way to the rank of brevet major general. In 1841 Major-General Scott was assigned to the command of the army. In the spring of 1847, the Mexican war having already begun, he commenced, as Commander-inof the army of Mexico, the execution of a plan of campaign the success of which was as complete as its conception was bold, and which established his reputation as one of the first soldiers of his age.

A grateful country conferred on him, in 1855, the rank of Brevet Lieutenant-General, as a token of its estimate of his brilliant services. As the vigor of his life, whether in peace or in war, had been devoted to the service of the country he loved so well, so in his age his country gave to him in return that veneration, reverence and esteem which, won by few, is the highest reward a nation can give. Of most commanding presence, with a mind of great breadth and vigor, pure in life, his memory will never fade from the minds of those who have reverenced him so long.

As a testimony of respect, the officers of the army will wear the usual badge of mourning for six months, on the left arm and hilt of the sword. Guns will be fired at each military post at intervals of thirty minutes, from sunrise to one o'clock P. M., on the day succeeding the receipt of this order. Troops will be paraded at ten A. M., and this order read to them, after which all labor for the day will cease, and the flags will be kept at half-mast during the day.

By command of Lieutenant-Gen, Grant.

E. D. TOWNSEND, A. A. G. WAR DEPARTMENT, ADJUTANT-GENE-WAR DEPARTMENT, ADJUTANT-GENE-RAL'S OFFICE, WASHINGTON, May 30, 1866.
—Special Order No. 256.—(Extract.)—The following officers are detailed to proceed to West Point; New York to attend the funcral of the late Lieutenant General Winfield Scott, on Friday, June 1st, at 1 o'clock: Brevet Major General L. Thomas, Adjutant General; Brevet Major General E. Schriver, Inspector General: Brevet Major General J. Holt, Judge Advocate General; Brevet Major General M. C. Meigs, Quartermaster General; Brevet Major General A. B. Eaton, Commissary General of Subsistence; Brevet Major General J. K. Barnes, Surgeon General; Brevet Major General B. W. Brice, Paymaster General; Brevet Major General R. Delafield, Chief Engineer; Brevet Major General A. B. Dyer, Chief of Ordnance; Major General O. O. Howard, Chief of Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen and Abandoned Lands; Major General E. A. Hitchcock, United States Volunteers; Brevet Major General A. E. Shiras, Assistant Commissary General of Subsistence; Brevet Major General E. D. Townsend, Assistant Adjutant General, late Chief of Staff to Lieutenant General Scott.

By order of the Secretary of War.

E. D. Townsend, A. A. G.
The Navy Department announces to the Navy and Marine Corps, the death of Lieutenant General Winfield Scott, of the United States Army. This illustrious officer de-parted this life at West Point, New York, on the 20th instant, at eleven o'clock, A. M. In honor of this distinguished General, the Commandants of Navy Yards and Stations will direct the flags of their several commands to be hoisted at half-mast until sun-set, and fifteen minute guns to be fired at meridian, en Friday, June 1st, the day of the funeral, or on the day after the receipt of this order, if subsequent thereto.

GIDEON WELLES, Secretary of the Navy. The Secretary of the Treasury has issued the following: TREASURY DEPARTMENT, May 30th, 1866. -The funeral of Lieutenant General Win. field Scott having been arranged to take place on Friday, the 1st day of June prox imo, the custom houses of the United States are by order, of the President, directed to be closed on that day, as a mark of respect to the memory of the deceased. The flags of all revenue cutters will be placed at half-mast.

H. McCulloch, Secretary of the Treasury.

MISS BRADDON ON A CRITIQUE. - The London Spectator having intimated that in Miss Braddon's novel, "The Doctor's Wife," the best parts were at least derived from Flaubert's "Madame Bovary," the lady replies thus:

Your criticism of 'The Doctor's Wife' gave me so much gratification that I should be wanting in gratitude were I to allow you to remain under any misapprehension with regard to that book. Permit me, then, to say, that between it and 'Madame Bovary' no reasonable comparison can be sustained -most assuredly the latter in no way gave rise to the former. Gustave Flaubert's novel is a morbid analysis of a vicious and sensual woman, who abandons herself un hesitatingly to a career of unmitigated infamy. 'The Doctor's Wife,' Isabel Sleaford, is a sentimental girl, whose mind is steeped in girlish poetry, and whose romantic temperament preserves her from degradation, after leading her into danger. The very points you praised in the Doctor's Wife,' are those in which that story differs most from 'Madame Bovary.' indeed, the only resemblance it is possible Indeed, the only resemblance it is possible for the most severe criticism to discover between the two books, is in the solitary fact that the heroine of each is the wife of a provincial surgeon and leads a dull life. All the characters, all the situations, incidents, scenery, dialogue, reflections, are entirely, my own; and I defy the most searchin; scrutiny to detect a parallel passage or a borrowed thought.
"For 'The Lady's Mile,' I can also affine that it is all my own thunder, very mild thunder, perhaps, but warranted genuine, neverthe less. I am, Sir, &c.

"M. E. Braddon.

"26 Mecklenburgh Square, May 2d,1866." A SAD ACCIDENT.—A sad occurrence took place in Rochester, Pa., on last Sabbath, which resulted in the death of a little girl named Mary, the daughter of Mr. Joseph Anderton, fourteen years of age, and the aerious injury of his wife, Nancy Anderton. The little girl was lighting the fire, and in order to hasten it she took up a can containing kerosene oil, and in pouring it upon the lighted kindling it exploded and set fire to her clothing. The flames enveloped her instantly, and she rushed to and clasped her mother, crying for help. In endeavoring to quench the fire, the mother was tering to quench the fire, the mother was terribly burned, from the waist down, and Mr. Anderton, who had been near, rushed to their assistance, and had his clothing considerably burned, together with some bank notes that were in his pocket. Mary lingered in the greatest agony till half-past four in the afternoon, when she expired. Mrs. Anderton, who was near her confine ment, was so seriously burned that little hopes are entertained for her recovery. Mr. Anderton had his extremities considerably burned. THE REMOVAL OF THE DEPOSITS .- The recent orders given by the different heads of departments that disbursing officers shall remove all public moneys deposited to their credit in National Banks to the United States Treasury or Sub-Treasuries, has created quite a rush on the Treasury. The clerical force of the Treasurer's office was exercised in the most lively manner yesterday in receiving these transfers.
