Art and Artists.

The Commission from the State of Pennsylvania to paint, for the capitol extension at Harrisburg, a great picture of the Battle of Gettysburg, has been given to Mr. P. F. Rothmel, of this city, who will doubtless produce a work worthy of the subject, and of which the State and city will have reason to be proud.

The artists are all preparing to take their summer holidays, and a number are going abroad. Mr. Thomas Moran has departed for Europe with his family, intending to remain several years. He has taken with him a number of unfinished works, including a splendid landscape which he intends to place in the Paris Exhibition of 1867.

Mr. Henry C. Bispham, our chief animal painter, is also packing up for Europe, intending to sail within a fortnight. He takes with him many commissions, and will doubtless have enough work to occupy him as long as he chooses to remain in Paris, where, of course, he will make his headquarters.

We hear of the intended departure for Europe of Mr. W. T. Richards, Mr. Edward Moran, Mr. D. B. Knapp, and various others, though some of them will probably not leave before next fall or spring.

Mr. Milne Ramsay, whose still-life pictures are fast growing in the public estimation, has a lovely little fruit piece in the window of Bailey & Co.'s store, on Chestnut street. We have never seen peaches or grapes painted with more fidelity to nature, and all the details of the picture are excellent.

Mr. B. Scott, Jr., finished last evening the sale of Mr. D. Huyvetter's collection of pictures, at the Gallery, No. 1020 Chestnut street. The attendance was very good, and some of the pictures brought fair prices.

The picture-selling season is now brought to a close. Mr. Scott's sales of works of art, we hear, have amounted in the aggregate to about $150,000 during the past three months, exceeding the aggregate of the New York sales. His gallery has been an attractive place of resort, and he contemplates improvements which will add to its attractions next season.

The annual exhibition of the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts will close this evening, and the pictures, &c., will be returned to their owners next week.

Prisoners and Fugitives.

The Canadians who witnessed the canal boats of the Erie and Ontario, and the tugboats approaching Fort Erie, exclaiming: "When Greek meets Greek then come the tugs of war."

President Baez has left Porto Rico to revolution and its fate. No fort will be won there any more, now that Porto Rico has lost its Bay.

Complaint is made that the Prince of Wales is carrying on a life of dissipation, and that he is neglecting his duties as a member of the Royal Household.

The Prince isn't at all-king yet, himself, and therefore he does not like to have a talking going on about him.

Two hundred sacks of corn, branded "Peace," arrived in Memphis, Tenn., the other day, for the destitute of Alabama. It was hailed by the drymen free of charge. When ground, it will be served out plentifully.

A few days since a Chicago merchant nearly killed a fascinating young African with a flat-iron for too great intimacy with his wife. Merchant has just been granted a bill of divorce. He used a flat-iron because he did not wish to "mangle" his victim.

The reason Jeff Davis has so many onions in his summer parlors, is that Mr. Seward thinks it will develop his Onionism.

AMUSEMENTS.

DRAMATIC.—The three principal theatres were handsomely attended last evening in honor of the benefits at each, and the performances passed off pleasantly. At the Arch this evening Mrs. Joan Drew closes a truly delightful week's engagement. We part with her with regret. She gives place to Miss Lucy Rushon on Monday night. This evening's bill comprises "Victorine" and "Nick of the Woods." The Arch also presents on Monday night, "The Four Sisters," "Beauty and the Beast," and "The Good For Nothing." The lively performances of these pleasant artists have attracted enthusiastic houses nightly. At the Walnut this evening Mr. Edwin Booth will appear as Bertuccio in "The Fool's Revenge." Thackeray Mr. Booth has made wholly his own, and it is said to be a perfect masterpiece of acting. "The Dream at Sea" will be the afterpiece. The New American Theatre, as it is called, will open with new decorations, new scenery and properties and a new company to-night. Mr. Harry Pearson and a new company appear in a diversified bill.

ASSEMBLY BUILDING.—The Carolina Twins hold their lovers here day and night. Senator Bly's mild reveals take place at his own peculiar quarters in Assembly Building.

Personal.

Rev. Geo. D. Cummings, of Chicago, has been elected by the Episcopal Convention of Kentucky. His predecessor, Bishop of that Diocese, the venerable Bishop Doane, having become disabled from the infirmities of age, from the active duties of his office.

To preserve your health, cleanse your blood when it becomes vitiated and foul. Many are the symptoms which attend the note of alarm. Fall not to heed them. Indigestion, Nausea, Lassitude, Headache, Wandering Pains, Biliousness and Eruptions. Affections, are so many signals to tell you of disease in the blood. Remove it, and they disappear. How? Take AYER'S CATHARTIC EXTRACT OF SASSAPARILLA. It is effectual for its purpose, purifies the blood, expels disease and restores the deranged functions of the body to their healthy action.—Corydon (Ind.) Argus.

The New Catholic Cathedral in PORTLAND.—The corner-stone of the new Catholic Cathedral in Portland, Me., was laid yesterday by Right Rev. Bishop Bacon, in the presence of a great concourse of spectators.

FUNERAL OF GENERAL SCOTT.

Gathering of Distinguished Men at West Point.

The Ceremonies in the Military Academy Chapel.

We take from to-day's N. Y. World, an account of the obsequies of Lieutenant General Scott, at West Point, yesterday afternoon. The correspondent describes the decorations of the chapel where the body lay, and says:

"The coffin has on either side three silver handles; a rim of silver borders on the cover; it is lined with white satin; a silver plate over the breast is circled with a laurel wreath; the material of the coffin is mahogany, and it is six feet six inches in length, a foot and a half deep, and two feet and a third wide. It is solid and austere, like the soul it cannot contain, and it is raised three feet above the floor, so that all who pass by can look upon it in passing, and see among the things within the deathly face, so familiar in its living outlines to every citizen and schoolboy.

At one o'clock there were sent through the doors and windows, great throngs of troops and people upon the plaza, and every thing was momentarily hushed. Now the files began to play, and the solemn procession came up the aisle, after the following order:
