

EUROPE.

Later News by the Hermann and Harshon.

New York, June 3d, 1866.—The steamships Hermann, from Southampton May 23, and Marston, from Liverpool May 22d and Queenstown May 23d, arrived today. The Hibernian arrived at Londonderry on the 3d.

The London Post of May 22d contains a Paris telegram stating that it is definitely arranged that the representatives of France, England and Russia on the one side, and Austria, Prussia and Italy on the other, will assemble at the foreign ministry in Paris, under the presidency of M. Drouyn D'Yvry, for the purpose of settling the conference to solve peacefully the pending question between Austria and Italy. It is reported at Paris that Lord Cowley, the British ambassador at Paris, will shortly proceed to Vienna.

The London Herald says the conference can do nothing more than adjourn the war, unless one or other of the combatants becomes exhausted under the burden of preparations. The official Dresden Journal of May 21st says the Conference will probably try all powers, and would meet on the 25th.

According to some authorities Austria has evinced a disinclination to join the conference, and it was suggested that should she persist, she would be represented pro tem, by England and Russia. There is, however, no indication of any relaxation in the military preparations by the several powers, and the prospect is not encouraging that a pacific solution was hopeless.

Prussia has issued a decree that, in the event of war, merchant ships belonging to the enemy will not be liable to capture on the high seas by her war vessels, but this measure is only to apply in case of reciprocity from the enemy.

An entrenched camp is to be constructed near Vienna as a point of concentration for the Austrian army. The Austrian commandant at Venice has issued a notification warning the Italian volunteers not to induce enlistments in the Italian volunteer corps; also against inclining to desertion. These offences will be dealt with by martial law.

It is reported that Austria has refused to discuss any proposition for the cessation of Venetia. A Berlin telegram says it has been decided that until the peace, an army will be concentrated at each of the following places: Wetzlar, Erfurt, Frankfurt, and between Reisse and Glitz. In order to prove that Russia accepts Congress, the departure of the Prince Royal and Prince Frederick Charles for the army has been postponed. The formation of the Italian volunteers into regiments was commenced on the 21st of May.

A Vienna despatch says the alliance between Prussia and Italy binds each to support the other in case of an attack by Austria, the treaty to continue until the end of this year. The statement that an Austrian patrol had crossed the Prussian frontier is denied by the Austrian government.

Wagner, one of the Government informers, was stabbed at Howth, near Dublin, by a man named O'Connell, who was an American, where he served in the rebel army. The assassin was arrested. The cattle plague has appeared in another part of Ireland, in the county of Waterford.

FRANCE.—The Moniteur de l'Armée says several journals have spoken of military preparations in France. We are authorized to declare all such rumors devoid of foundation. The reconciliation between the Emperor and Prince Napoleon is complete. Modifications of the French Cabinet are again spoken of. The Ministry of Public Instruction will probably be changed.

Allusions in the British Parliament to the bombardment of Valparaiso have produced a great sensation in Madrid. All the ministers have resigned. Cape of Good Hope advices to April 17th represent the Basuto war as closed. Melbourne advices of the 25th state that the question is settled—the Government consenting to a separation of the tariff from the appropriation bills. The recall of Governor Darling has created great excitement.

A Calcutta telegram states that the market is much depressed. Prince Charles of Hohenzollern, makes his formal entry into Bucharest on the 24th of May. The Porte has decided on a military occupation of the Danubian principalities.

Commercial.—Sales of Cotton for two days 10,000 bales, the market still declining; sales to exporters and speculators 2,000 bales. The Manchester advices are unfavorable. Flour dull but steady. Wheat inactive at 10s. 3d. @ 10s. 3d. for winter red. Corn easier at 2s. 6d. @ 2s. 6d. Beef dull, but easier. Pork fat. Bacon inactive and still declining. Butter dull. Lard firm and quiet at 72 @ 73s. for American. Tallow inactive and declining. Ashes inactive at 32s. for spot. Sugar dull. Coffee—no sales. Rice quiet and steady. Linned Oil quiet and steady. Rosin dull. Spirits Turpentine steady. Petroleum very dull and nominal.

Latest via Queenstown. Liverpool, May 31.—Cotton to-day firmer but unchanged; sales to speculators and exporters 2,000 bales. Manchester advices are unfavorable. Provisions quiet. Consols for money 86 1/2 @ 87. U. S. 5s. 100 @ 105 1/2; 10s. 100 @ 105 1/2; Erie 42 @ 43. The European crisis is unchanged. The statement that all the powers had assented to the Congress is premature, but it is confirmed that the invitations have been sent out.

From Richmond. An adjourned session of the United States Court for the District of Virginia will commence in this city to-morrow. Judge Underwood has not yet arrived, but the other judges, J. T. Brady, of New York, William B. Reed, of Philadelphia, and George A. Brown, of Baltimore, associate counsel for Jeff Davis, arrived here this morning, and are stopping at the Exchange Hotel, Messrs. Charles O'Connor and George Shea will arrive in a day or two. Counsel will announce their readiness to proceed with the trial of Davis, and in the event of postponement, will submit an application for bail. District Attorney Chandler will probably not be present at this session of the Court, owing to the serious illness of a member of his family. Major Hennessey, Assistant District Attorney, will represent the Government.

Austin N. Harris, who was Davis's private secretary, also arrived here to-day from New York.

From Augusta. AUGUSTA, June 3.—General Steadman and Fullerton had an interesting conference to-day with the freedmen and a number of prominent citizens. The Commissioners stated the object of their visit, and asked the freedmen to give their views pro and con regarding the Bureau. The freedmen testified to the kindness and justice of their late masters. Speeches were made by General Steadman and Fullerton. The Bureau is better administered in Georgia than in any other State, and equal justice is given the freedmen before the Courts.

From Fort Monroe. FORT MONROE, June 3.—General Grant's order, regarding honors to the memory of Gen. Scott, was carried into effect to-day. From sunrise to seven P. M., at intervals of thirty minutes, cannon were fired. At ten A. M., the troops of the garrison were assembled on parade and the order read to them, and the flags displayed before them. General Milford arrived from Richmond to-day, making a brief visit and then returning. Some two hundred colored people, part of the product of the revival in progress amongst this class, were baptized to-day at Hampton.

SPEECH OF HON. CHARLES O'NEILL AGAINST THE EXTENSION OF THE CLEVELAND AND MAHONING RAILROAD.

Validation of the Liberty of the State of Pennsylvania in granting Proper Franchises.

On Thursday last, in the House at Washington, upon a bill to authorize the Cleveland and Mahoning Railroad Company (an Ohio corporation) to continue their road through the State of Pennsylvania, notwithstanding the repeal, by the Legislature of that State, of the franchise formerly conferred, under certain stipulations, with the said company, and which was accepted by the Legislature of this State, Mr. O'Neill spoke as follows. The information on this interesting subject conveyed by Mr. O'Neill, showed that he had had great experience by his service in the State Legislature. His defence of the Legislature of our State, and its liberality to other States in railroad matters was commensurate with great ability.

Mr. O'Neill, Mr. Speaker, I am surprised at the remark which fell from my colleague from the Pittsburgh district (Mr. Moorhead). I understood him to say that the State of Pennsylvania, by her legislation, had the right to interfere with the construction of railroads running into or through that State. Does the gentleman forget that Pennsylvania has given, time and again, the right of way to the railroad companies incorporated by States adjoining her? Does he forget that she gave the New York and Erie railroad the right to run through a portion of the State before her great line of railroad connecting Philadelphia and Pittsburgh was finished, and before connecting her eastern and western borders or extending her communications with the West and North-west?

Mr. Moorhead—I do not forget, either, that she has taken back that grant in violation of charter rights. Mr. O'Neill—I only wanted to show the House that she has taken back that grant in violation of charter rights. road had been built and not a mile surveyed, and even now this company do not mean to build the road, as originally intended, through Lawrence county. It asks now to be allowed to get to Pittsburgh by any route it chooses to adopt, so as to save its own bills. The State of Pennsylvania did not intend to revoke this charter. No one can complain of it. It was done in open day. There is the law upon the subject. There are the reasons for it set forth. I rise here only to defend the course of the Commonwealth in this matter, and to assert that she has a right to confer franchises upon such corporations as she pleases, and where she pleases. She has the sole right, and I do not think that it is within the power of Congress, on the pretence of establishing military roads, or any other pretence, to take that right from her.

HARD ON WARREN COUNTY.—The Jersey City Times tells a story of an old lady in Webster, Mass., who upon having gas pipes introduced to her residence artlessly inquired how often she must put in new wicks, and when answered that they were not quite so good as the story of the member of our Legislature, two or three years long since, from Warren county. He sat for long a time, the first evening of the session, and then said wonderingly to his next neighbor, "What are the gas contrivances, but how in thunder do they get the gas into the darned thing?"—Trenton Gazette.
