THE DAILY EVENING BULLETIN ; PHILADELPHIA, WEDNESDAY JUNE. 6, 1866.

OITY BULLETIN.

THE INCREASED ASSESSMENTS .- Applications for divisions of property and the abatement of assessments are now being heard by the Board of Revision. Upwards of five hundred persons have, thus far, asked for a division of property so that the same can be assessed in their own names. The assessors have been directed to make a duplicate of the assessment of new property and additions made to old buildings. This ment has added about $1,400,000 to the real estate for 1866, upon which the present rate of tax will have to be paid. The abate-ments, duplicate assessments; and errors of quantity of land, &c., made thus far will not amount to one-third of the sum that has been added to the duplicate since the organization of the Board.

MISSIONARY MEETING.-A meeting of the Missionary Society connected with the African M. E. Church washeld last evening, in the Bethel Church, Rev. Stephen Smith presided. An address by Rev. John D. Brown, Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Missions, showed that the African M. E. Church in Vlrginia, North Carolina, South Church in Virginia, North Catoling growing. Carolina and Georgia is rapidly growing. In some of the States there is a very large membership, and the Church property is quite valuable. Bishop Campbell, who has been traveling in the Southwest for two years past, spoke in reference to the freedmen, and showed the great need of mission-aries in the valley of the Mississippi and the means to support them. Rev. J. Walker Jackson and Rev. Alfred Cookman also delivered addresses.

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL .- From an announcement elsewhere it will be seen that a Strawberry Festival and fair, for the sale of fancy and useful articles, began in the Lec-ture-room of the First Reformed Dutch Church, corner of Seventh and Spring Garden streets, yesterday. From a circular, it appears that the ladies and gentlemen en-gaged in this church enterprise have deter-mined to make it unusually mercantile in its character, as they are prepared to sell, by sample, a large variety of articles at the regular market prices, such as coal, medi-cines, washing-machines, furniture, coal oil, photographs, groceries, stationery, con-fections, perfumery, et cetera. In such a display our citizens will have the opportunity of spending their money to advantage, and contributing to a worthy object at the same time.

ODD FELLOWS.—The annual report of this erganization shows that there are in the State of Pennsylvania 470 lodges. During the past year there were 9,407 initiations into the order; number rejected, 911; ad-mitted by card, 513; withdrawing by card, 744; number reinstated, 747; deaths, 588; Past Guards, 8,845; number of members at present time, 51,778. The receipts of the year were $393,399 67. Number of brothers relieved, 5,980; number of widows' families relieved, 605; number of brothers buried, 523; amount paid for relief of brothers, $118,167 57; amount paid for relief of widows families, $11,567 16; amount paid for burial of brothers, $30,781 35. Total amount paid for relief, $160,516 08.

ROBBERY OF BONDS .--- The liquor store of Casper Heft, No. 225 North Third street. was robbed a few nights ago of several cer-tificates of city loan, of Germantown and Commonwealth Bank Stock, and other valuables. The property was taken from the fire-proof vault, the thieves breaking out the brickwork alongside the iron door jamb, and opening the inner iron door without disturbing the outside door. A sufficiently large piece of the wall was broken away to admit of a man passing through.

MASONIC GRAND LODGE OF PENNSYL-VANIA.-The Quarterly Communication of the Grand Lodge closed last evening, after a session of much interest to the Brotherhood throughout the jurisdiction. Action on the amendments to Ahiman Rezon was deferred, and referred to a special commit-

DIVOBOES .--- According to the report of the Ohio Commissioners of Statistics for 1885, the whole number of divorces in that State reach the number of BE PUBLISHED ON SATURDAY -eight hundred and thirty seven in one year. This, at the present population of the State, is one to three thousand persons, and one divorce to twenty-six of the annual number of marriages. It would be difficult to divorce W. W. Alter, the great coal dealer, from the affections of his customers, as his coal is the best and cheapest in Philadelphia. Rarely do we see a drama so well cast, and rarely do we witness so masterly an exhibition of passion and power as that exhibited by Mr. Booth in this wonderful part. Pride, scorn, despair, hate, love and penitence all are depicted with a feeling and a force which are perfectly marvellous, and which hold the auditare a force which are perfectly marvellous, and which hold the audience literally enwhich hold the audience literally en-chained. The theatre was crowded to suffo-cation last evening by one of those intelli-gent audiences so characteristic of the Wal-nut, and every spectator seemed to be swayed at the will of the hero to sympathy with every phase of passion. We regard Bertuccio as Mr. Booth's greatest effort. Miss Germon and the gentlemen of the com-pany all acted admirably. "The Fool's Popany all acted admirably. "The Fool's Re-venge" will be repeated to-morrow evening. To-night we have "The Stranger" and "The Honey Moon."
