ACADEMY OF MUSIC.-The annual meeting of the Stockholders of the American Academy of Music was held in the Foyer on Monday, at 4 o'clock, P. M. John B. Kenney, Esq., was called on to preside, and Michael Nisbet, Esq., appointed Secretary.

The report of the Board of Directors was resented, and read by the President, Jas. C. Hand, Esq., and the report on the Finances by the Treasurer. The reports were accepted by the meeting; and on motion of the president of the president, and the president of the president, page 12 and 12 a

John Eisenbrey, Esq., the thanks of the Stockholders were presented to the Board for their faithful and successful efforts to promote the interests of the Academy.

An election was then held for twelve Directors, to serve for the ensuing year, and Ward B. Haseltine and Benjamin F. Huddy, Esqs., appointed Tellers. Two hundred and thirty-seven votes, representing nearly fourteen hundred shares, were cast unanimously for the following-named gentlemen: Jas. C. Hand, John B. Budd, Ferdinand J. Dreer, James Traquair, John P. Steiner, George S. Pepper, Frederick Graff, Fairman Rogers, Thomas Sparks, James L. Claghorn, Daniel Haddock, Jr., William Camac, M. D. The report of the Tellers was accepted, and the meeting adjourned. At a meeting of the Board, held yesterday, the following officers were chosen: President, James C. Hand; Treasurer, Jas. Traquair; Solicitor, Aubrey H. Smith; Secretary, Michael Nisbet.

PROBST THE MURDERER.—The time of this wretched man is drawing to a close. He will be executed between the hours of ten and two to-morrow. We saw the con-demned man in his cell yesterday. He was in excellent health and expressed himself as being entirely resigned to his fate. The impression that has gone abroad to the effect that the prisoner is callous and un-moved by his awful situation, seems to be a mistaken one. His clerical attendants assure us that he fully appreciates the enorn ity of his crime; that he is earnestly re-per tant and perfectly willing to make the sacrifice of his own life as an atonement for his crimes. Within a day or two he assured one of the clergymen that if the doors of the prison were thrown open to him and he was free to go where he pleased, he would not leave his cell. He declared that the death meted out to him by the law was preferable to the horror of a life of remorse.

The execution will be conducted with all the privacy contemplated by the act of As-sembly, and Sheriff Howell has turned a determinedly deaf ear to the thousands of applications that have been made to him to go within the walls of the prison.

The rules of the Catholic Church forbid "Christian burial" to the culprit, and as Probst has signified his entire indifference as to what disposition is made of his body, it will probably be handed over to the sur-

THE BATH IS A LUXURY .- The sanitary influences of every variety of bathing upon the general health of humanity—wh diciously applied—are truths too well authenticated to dwell upon here. But a few facts may be dilated upon in reference to the uses of ablutions during the intense heat of our Summer weather. Its free use invigorates and hardens the skin, imparting to its surface a blooming glow, drawing the blood from the internal organs to activ flowing throughout the entire frame, thereby preventing fatal congestions. It thus operates in repelling the invasion of all diseases incidental to our unsteady climate, Such results can only be obtained by the precaution of keeping the skin in its natural state; that is, to ever keep the pores unobstructed, that perspiration in proper limits may freely perform its functions. These fundamental precautions in the healthy case of that armor of our bodies—the skin—are only secured by the daily affasions of shower and douches, and the other water our being the best of the best of the skin th auxiliaries of the bathing establishments. Besides all this, there is a sensation of ecstacy in the prolonged indulgence of the tepid bath, that lulls to dreamy sleep. Who would forego the best whom solidity here. the bath when solicited by such fancy dreams? None who desire to enjoy health, or to repair a broken consti-

A SUMMER LUXURY.—Summer weather has at last come upon us, causing many to retreat to rural residences and some to the sea-shore. Every available bathing place in the city was crowded yesterday, and there was a rush made towards the Natatorium, at Broad and Walnut streets, that gave ample proof of the value set upon the institution by the old subscribers. Dr. Jansen deserves the thanks of our citizens for the admirable arrangement of bathing bours. admirable arrangement of bathing hours. Business men and clerks can take the early baths from six to nine o'clock in the morning, or after business hours from three o'clock till ten at night. While ladies and sehool girls take the hours from ten A. M. fill two in the afternoon. First lessons in the art of swimming are given to ladies from ten till twelve, when no visitors will be admitted; after twelve o'clock ladies have the privilege of visiting the scholars and witnessing the astonishing grace and fearlessness of their swimming, diving, floating and plunging in the delightful baths. Families prevented from going to the sea-shore can find real consolation at the Natatorium.

RECEPTION OF A FIRE COMPANY .- A meeting of the Convention to make arrangements for the reception of the Pennsylvania Hose Company upon its return to the city from a visit abroad, was held last evening.

Mr. G. Hensler, of the Mechanic Engine Company, was chosen Chief Marshal, and Nicholas Stafford, Moyamensing Hose, Harry McIntyre, Philadelphia Engine, B. K. Afflick, Empire Hook, and Ladder, and Fred. Rentshler, Lafayette Hose, were elected assistants. The following route was agreed upon: Form on Walnut street and proceed up Walnut to Third, up Third to Girard avenue, out Girard avenue to Thirteenth, down Thirteenth to Brown, out Brown to Sixteenth, down Sixteenth to Spruce, down Spruce to Eighth, up Eighth to Green, and there dismiss.

GOVERNMENT HOSPITAL SOLD.—The Mc-Clellan Hospital, at Nicetown, has been sold at auction. The building was erected at the commencement of the rebellion, almost exclusively of wood, and was one of the larges and best regulated hospitals in the country At different times during the war about forty thousand sick and wounded soldiers were there accommodated. The wings attached at prices ranging from two hundred and fifty to four hundred dollars each. The entire proceeds of the sale amounted to about seven thousand dollars, a small sum compared with the original cost.

DEATH OF A COMPOSITOR.—We announce with regret the death, at an early hour this merning, of Mr. John W. Dorsey, who, for the past sixteen years, had been employed as a compositor in the BULLETIN office.
Mr. Dorsey was one of the best, quickest, and most valuable compositors in the establishment, and his death is a sad loss. He was a native of Somerset county, Mary-land. His disease was consumption, from which he had suffered for about two years. He leaves a family. He was 36 years of age.

ACCIDENT.-Joseph Sutherland, aged forty years, and Benjamin Howell, aged twentyone, while engaged in pulling down a por-tion of the Satterlee Hospital building in West Philadelphia, yesterday, wereseverely injured internally by the falling of a wall. They were taken to the Pennsylvania Hos-pital.

A FEMALE FIGHT. Mary Delaney, who resides at No. 4 Bedford street, got into a quarrel with another woman yesterday, and was struck upon the head with an iron bar. She was seriously injured and was taken to the Pennsylvania Hospital.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.—Hervey J. Batchelor. of Boston, Mass., who has resided at the Eagle Hotel, Third street, above Race, for the last six months, has been missing since Tuesday, May 29. He left the hotel about 4 o'clock that afternoon. He is about five feet nine inches high, slende built, black curly hair slightly mixed with grey, black moustache, dark complexion, very gentlemanly and unassuming in his manners. He wore a cap, and was genteely dressed. He had a gold watch, and attached to it a massive gold chain, worn around his neck; he also had a valuable diamond ring on his finger. It is feared that he has been foully dealt with. Any information in regard to him will be thank-fully received at the Eagle Hotel, Third st.

FROM MR. A. T. JOHNSON, Dentist, Lowell, FROM MR. A. T. JOHNSON, Dentist, Lowell, Mass. "Dear Sir. Two years since, a friend of mine from New York sent me a bottle of your centifrice very properly called SOZDONN, with the request that I should give it a trial. I did so, and was convinced it was destined to take the place of all preparations for the teeth. I have been engaged in the practice of Dentistry for the past seventeen (17) years, and during that time, among all the preparations for the teeth offsted to the public, I must say that, from personal experience, the Sozdon't bears off the palm. For my own use, I would not be without it for any consideration.

A THE GOLD BRICK! THE GOLD BRICK!

EVERYPRODY IS ADMINING AND PRAISING IT.

It is the best American novel published for years.

The press all over the country are unanimous in its praise. Orders are coming in from all sections of the country for second supplies of it. It is the Book of this year. All who have not read it should do so at once, it is a charming and fascinating work.

Bead what the Editor of the Tickburg Daily Journal says of it, editorially, in his paper of May Six.

Like good wine, the novels of Mrs. Stephens are productive of both pleasure and excitement. They are, moreover, always successful; for the reason, that while this gifted author is a conscientious follower of nature, she has also that ine artistic sense which teaches that naure, when shown within the lines of art, must be measurably heightened, colored and enlarged, for a picture of nature never appears so well on a close view as the original; this is the real secret of successful writing—a secret appreciated by such masters of fiction as Dickens and Thackeray.

Mrs. Stephens, in the work before us, begins her story in the Southern seas. The night looks down upon the frightful massacre on the shores of St. Domingo, of which a ship's crew in the offing are also silent, helpless spectators. They are powerless to save the great mass of helpless women and children; but two persons they do rescue—a boy and his slave. Upon the fate of this boy the story is built up. It is not our intention to give any further details, and thus deprive our readers of the pleasure awaiting them in the perusal of this story; only we will add, that no previous work of Mrs. Stephens is sofull of her peculiar power and genius—none other to absorbing in conception and development. Sent to any part of the United States, free of postage, on receipt of Two dollars.
