From Washington.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—Mr. O'Connor has received assurance from the Government that Jeff. Davis will be bailed.

The Finance Committee of the House made considerable progress to-day with the tax bill and expect to finish it to-morrow.

The probabilities are that they will occur in the House amendment taking cotton five cents per pound.

The friends of the Air-line road to New York are very sanguine of passing their bill whenever it is called up.

Senator Grimes from the naval Committee intends to take up the League Island bill at an early day and pass it if possible.

The Fenian Advances into Canada.

BOSTON, June 8.—The St. Alban's correspondent of the Journal says the Fenian advance into Canada: The arrest of Gen. Sweeney had dispirited the men. He made a speech, however, to cheer them up.

He told them that they were going to fight their own enemies. He said they must not molest women or children, but should give them no instructions as to what they might do with men who might fall into their hands.

Not more than one-fourth of the Fenian troops into Canada are armed. They went into a field and encamped a short distance beyond the line. Gen. Spear had been drinking, and was somewhat intoxicated.

Some of his men had obtained whisky and were feeling well, notwithstanding the dispiriting circumstances. Others were disheartened, as they had very little to eat.

About 150 had purchased meals at the hotels, others ate crackers and codfish. They went into a field and encamped a short distance beyond the line. Gen. Spear had been drinking, and was somewhat intoxicated.

CITY BULLETIN.

FATAL RAILROAD DISASTER. A Train Thrown Down an Embankment.

Two Persons Killed. Several Others Severely Wounded.

The regular mail train on the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad from Fottaville, due in the city at 7 o'clock, last evening ran off the track near Valley Forge.

The accident was caused by a switch being left open by an up freight train.

The train to which the disaster happened, was composed of a locomotive and tender, a mail and baggage car and five passenger cars. The latter were filled with people.

The whole train was thrown down an embankment twelve feet in height. The engine was turned over on its side, the tender was upset, and the first passenger car was driven into the baggage car.

The greatest consternation prevailed among the passengers for some time, and it is miraculous that a hundred were not killed or maimed.

One young girl had her legs broken, but none of the other passengers sustained any serious injuries. Many were bruised by being pitched about the car during the tumble down the embankment.

Thomas Dorman, who has the contract for carrying the mails through Philadelphia, was riding in the baggage car. He was thrown under the tender, and was frightfully mangled.

He was brought to his residence on Spruce street near Fifth, where he died at six o'clock this morning.

Mr. Dorman was well known in Schuylkill county, where he formerly resided.

The baggage master who was in the same car with Mr. Dorman, strange to say, escaped without a scratch.

The fireman of the train was thrown under the tender and some time elapsed before he could be extricated. When taken out he was dead.

We could not ascertain his name. He belonged to Reading.

The engineer escaped injury beyond a few bruises.

The passengers by the ill-fated train were brought to the city by the Reading Accommodation train, which is due a few hours later than the mail train.

The Philadelphia and Reading is one of the best managed roads in the country, and accidents to a passenger train are very rare.

In fact, this is the only one during the past twelve years. It is probable that the careless employ who left the switch open will be severely dealt with by the company.

WEST PHILADELPHIA.—At the police station, this morning, Alderman Allen had three cases before him, two of breach of the peace, and one of violation of ordinance.

The parties were severally fined.

A large number of burglaries occurred in Chestnut street, on the sides of the railroad tracks, the second of which is being completed.

The company are now engaged in erecting a temporary depot on the north side of the street, immediately below Forty-second.

Prof. F. W. Hastings, (Mantua Academy, corner of Thirty-fourth street and Poplar Avenue), gave a most successful entertainment, last evening at the Commissioner's Hall.

His institution numbers considerably over a hundred pupils, inclusive of scholars, and thirty permanent boarders.

Military tuition, a la West Point, is one of the leading features of the school. The recitations and declamations of the scholars, elicited great applause from a highly interested audience.

—not only of parents and friends, but West Philadelphians generally. The beauty of the school was the great attraction.

The benefit of the Soldier's Home, Sixteenth and Filbert streets, and not an individual adventured.
