XXXIXTH CONGRESS—FIRST SESSION.

[CLOSE OF YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.]

SENATE.—Mr. Anthony (R. I.) introduced a bill in amendment of the act to provide for the better organization of the Pay Department of the Navy, approved May 3, 1866.

Mr. Fessenden (Me.), from the Finance Committee, reported a bill to supply deficiencies in the contingent fund of the House, which was passed.

On motion of Mr. Grimes (Iowa), the Senate, at 12.10, postponed all prior orders, and took up the reconstruction resolution.

The pending question was on the substitute proposed by Mr. Williams for the second section:

The question was then taken on the amendment of Mr. Williams.

Mr. Williams modified his amendment by striking out the words "held under the Constitution and laws of the United States, or of any State," and inserting in lieu thereof, "for Electors of President and Vice President, Executive and Judicial Officers, or the members of the Legislature thereof." Agreed to.

Mr. Clark (R. I.) presented the following as a substitute for the fourth and fifth sections:

SECTION —. The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for the payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of the insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave but all such debts obligations and claims shall be held illegal and void. Agreed to.

Mr. Fessenden (Me.) moved to insert in the first section, after the word "born," the words "or naturalized." Agreed to.

The joint resolution was then put upon its passage.

YEAS—Messrs. Anthony, Chandler, Clark, Conness, Cragin, Cresswell, Edmunds, Fessenden, Foster, Grimes, Harris, Henderson, Howard, Howe, Kirkwood, Lane (Ind.), Lane (Kansas), Morgan, Morrill, Nye, Poland, Pomeroy, Ramsey, Sherman, Sprague, Stewart, Sumner, Trumbull, Wade, Willey, Williams, Wilson and Yates —33.

NAYS—Messrs. Cowan, Davis, Doolittle, Guthrie, Hendricks, Johnson, McDougal, Norton, Riddle, Saulsbury and Van Winkle —11.

ABSENT—Messrs. Brown, Dixon, Nesmith and Wright—4.

The Chair (Mr. Pomeroy) announced that the joint resolution having received more than a two-third vote, had passed the Senate.

The Senate at five thirty adjourned, to meet on Monday next.

HOUSE.—The House proceeded to the consideration of the bill reported by Mr. Garfield, from the Committee on Education, to establish a Department of Education at the city of Washington.

The bill gave rise to considerable discussion.

Mr. Grinnell (Iowa) moved an amendment to reduce the salary of the Commissioner of Education from $5,000 to $4,000 per annum, and to reduce the clerical force provided for. After some further debate the amendment was adopted. The bill was then rejected; yeas 59, nays 61.

Mr. Stevens (Pa.) from the Committee on Reconstruction, presented a written report, which was laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Raymond (N. Y.) from the Conference Committee on the Fortification bill, recommended that the House agree to the Senate amendment appropriating fifty thousand dollars for Fort Popham, on the Kennebec river, Maine.

The amendment was concurred in. It was the only point of disagreement between the two Houses.

The House, at 4.15 adjourned.

Fortress Monroe—Jeff. Davis and his Counsel.

FORTRESS MONROE, June 8.—William B. Reed, counsel for Jeff. Davis, arrived here last night from Richmond, and, by permission of the Government, was in close consultation with him last night and to-day. He went North to-night in the steamer. He gave no definite information respecting his interview with Jeff. Davis, either as to being admitted to bail by the Government, as many anticipated, or his release from imprisonment in any manner whatever, merely stating that, in connection with his client, all the counsel regretted exceedingly that the trial had been postponed until October, as every arrangement had been perfected by them to insure no delay on their part in conducting the defence.

Judge Underwood arrived here from Richmond to-day and went to Baltimore without stopping long.

FORTRESS MONROE, June 7.—The steamer Lavacca, Captain Livingston, seven days from New Orleans, arrived this morning, with a detachment of four companies (300 men) of the 10th U. S. colored troops, commanded by Major Wm. F. Baker, on their way for City Point, Va., to be mustered out of the service. The steamer Norwich, with the balance of the regiment, sailed twenty-eight hours before the Lavacca, and should have arrived here before this time.

This regiment was the last regiment raised in Virginia to leave Texas, of Major General Weitzel's expedition. It was organized in the vicinity of Hampton in December, 1863, under the direction of Colonel John A. Nelson. It was but two months in being equipped and got ready to take the field, and started with Major General Butler's expedition to Bermuda Hundred. Upwards of a year prior to the fall of Richmond, the regiment was stationed at General Grant's headquarters, doing duty under the Provost Marshal General of the Army of the Potomac. In the summer of 1865 it was sent to Texas with General Weitzel's expedition, and landed at Corpus Christi 15th of July. Since that time the troops have been performing duty at Corpus Christi and Galveston.

The health of the troops is remarkably good, and on the 29th and 30th May they embarked on the two steamers above-named, at New Orleans. The officers state that but two colored regiments, the 19th and 7th, 1,200 men altogether, now remain in Texas. The former regiment is scattered along the coast, and the latter stationed principally at Indianola.

Steamer General Sherman, from New Orleans, sailed for Baltimore.

Steamer Lavacca, from New Orleans, sailed for Philadelphia.

Bark Arab, Capt. Braham, from Peru, cargo of 3,280 bags saltpetre, arrived in the harbor this afternoon, and awaits orders.

Weather clear. Wind about northwest.

Col. James Curry, chief commissary at this point, to-day opened proposals for upwards of 9,000 gallons of molasses. There were thirty-one bidders, and the molasses was awarded to the purchasers at prices ranging between thirty-six and forty cents per gallon.

SPEER'S SAMBURG PORT WINE.—We have been too long palled by the villainous trash sold as pure wine. Our bons vivants will be pleased with the rich taste, agreeable flavor, and fragrant bouquet of the Samburg Port wine. It is especially recommended to weak and sickly ladies, by physicians, for its purity, non-intoxicating qualities and tonic and restorative properties. A wine glassful of this wine, with a fresh raw egg or new milk, taken first thing in the morning, is said to prove highly beneficial in cases of Pulmonary Consumption.

Polygamy and Citizenship.

[From the Salt Lake Vidette, May 3.]

The regular term of the United States Court for the Judicial District of Utah was held at Provo City, commencing on Tuesday, 24th inst. and ending on Thursday, 26th inst., Associate Judge Drake being the presiding officer.

The question of the right and power of the Probate Courts of Utah to issue naturalization papers to persons desiring to become citizens of the United States, was brought before the Court for decision. Judge Drake decided that the Probate Courts had no legal right or power in the premises, and that all naturalization papers issued by the Probate Courts of Utah were illegal, void and of no effect; that no man could claim, or legally exercise the rights of American citizenship by reason of any so-termed naturalization papers issued to him from the Probate Courts within the Territory of Utah.

Upon an application made to the Court for naturalization papers, Judge Drake refused to issue them to any man practising poligamy, either prior or subsequent to the act of Congress on that subject. It was held that any man who defied the anti-polygamy act of Congress, or any other law of the country, and persistently refuses to obey the law of the United States, was in no way entitled to citizenship or any of the benefits accruing therefrom.

We are proud to record that the United States Judges of this Territory are firm in the discharge of official duty, and are determined to maintain the majesty of the law so far as it is possible for them to do so. The United States Courts in Utah are now considered an honor to the country.

THE LATE CALVIN FLETCHER, of Indianapolis, whose death was announced last week, was one of the pioneers of Indiana. Born in Vermont, he was compelled to give up a classic education during the financial troubles of the war of 1812, but by employing every moment of leisure during his duties, both as a teacher and as a private tutor, he acquired knowledge far beyond that usually obtained in a college course. He entered the Supreme Court of Virginia in 1819, but such were his conscientious scruples in regard to the subject of slavery, that he left fine opportunities in the Old Dominion, and took up his residence in the new capital of Indiana in 1821. For a quarter of a century he was the first lawyer of the State. Twenty years ago he retired from the law and became one of the largest bankers and agriculturists in the West. His anti-slavery sympathies have, without noise, been ever practically manifested in his adopted State, and during the rebellion he once wrote—"I will lay every penny of my wealth on the altar of my country, and will leave my grand children liberty, if I do not leave my children a fortune." His private charities, though unostentatious, were very great during his life-time. They were ever regulated by the highest Christian motives. Besides sending five sons to Brown University, it was said at his funeral that he had given a college education to no less than sixteen meritorious young men at different institutions in our country. He amassed a large fortune and left it unincumbered by debt.

VOLCANO IN CALIFORNIA.—On the eastern slope of Iron Mountain, near Shasta, California, a volcanic fissure has been discovered. A miner thus describes the scene: "When I got there I found the smoke rising, just as the Ingin said. It came up out of a fissure in the rocks that was about three inches wide and six or eight feet long The smoke is hot and smells sulphury. It couldn't have been going on smoking that way long, or I should have heard of it; and what's more, the dead critters I see laying around there would all have been scattered. Why, Cap'n, there was rattlesnakes enough laying there dead to fill a two bushel bag. And these little owls and ground squirrels, thicker'n grass. There wasn't nothin lay'n round like lava nor cinders, nor nothing of that kind. I tell you what, Cap'n, I think something has ketched afire down in there by—by—' (we suggested 'spontaneous combustion.') 'Yes, that's it—spontaneous 'bustion, and its just found a chimney ready made, or we'd had an earthquake; and all them dead things was living in that crack.'

"Iron Mountain presents every evidence of having been the scene of volcanic eruptions.

CONSCIENCE MONEY.—The Secretary of the Treasury received yesterday two contributions. One was post-marked Boston, June 4th, and contained fifteen hundred dollars, with the statement that the inclosed amount was due the United States Treasury, and requesting it to be placed to the credit of the same. The communication stated the sum inclosed to be twenty-five hundred dollars, but the words "twenty-five," which were written with ink, had been crossed over with a pencil and the word "fifteen" written with a pencil above it. The other letter was post-marked Philadelphia, June 5th, and contained seventy dollars, with the explanation that the inclosed was due the Government for revenue tax, and requesting the Secretary to appropriate it accordingly, and oblige one who wanted to live honestly.

INSTRUCTIONS TO NAVAL PAYMASTERS.—The Second Comptroller has given directions to paymasters in the navy, instructing them that in the discharge of their duties, under General Orders, No. 75, they will observe the following decisions: Clerks to commanding officers and paymasters in the navy are entitled to the benefit of the provisions of the General Order, No. 75, issued May 23, 1866. Officers attached to receiving ships, not being provided with quarters on shore, are also entitled. Naval constructors and storekeepers are not regarded as officers, and are not entitled, except they are commissioned officers of the navy. Heads of Bureaus of the Navy Department are not, by virtue of their appointment, naval officers, and cannot obtain both salary as civilians and commutations of allowances under the same.

BRIBERY IN MEXICO.—An American direct from Saltillo says that that city is completely hemmed in by Liberals, who, in small bands, occupy every road leading to the city. The Imperialists are not strong enough to drive off the Liberals, nor is the force of the latter sufficient to warrant an attack upon the city. The diligence had been stopped from running for several days—but, finally, the proprietor of the line, by paying a handsome bonus to the Liberal commander, was allowed to pass through the lines with his coach, passengers and baggage, but carrying mail matter was utterly prohibited. The Liberals, in overhauling the stages, upon one occasion, found the coach lamps filled with letters; this again suspended operations, and nearly cost the driver his life; but another bribe set matters all right, and the diligence from Saltillo now makes its regular trips unmolested.

THE RETURN OF THE FRANCO-MEXICAN TROOPS.—It is understood at the State Department that a contract has been made by the French Government with the Transatlantic Steamship Company for the re-transportation of the first returning detachment of the army in Mexico, from Vera Cruz to St. Nazaire, in October next, and that Marshal Bazaine is to leave Mexico with that detachment.

THE DOUGLAS MONUMENT.—Mr. Seward has promised to attend the Douglas monument ceremonies at Chicago, announced to take place on the 4th of July. The President also agrees positively to attend, provided Congress shall have adjourned in the meantime, or long enough before the time fixed to enable him to get to Chicago. The delegates, in view of this suggested contingency, proposed a postponement of the ceremony until after the adjournment of Congress. The President replied that if such arrangement were made he would attend.
