Beaure gard Visits the Liverpool Exchange, and is Beceived with Applause.

NEW YORK, June 10.—The steamships Allemania, Malta, Denmark and Edinburgh, all arrived from Europe to-day. The Pal-myra arrived out on the 28th ult., and the England, City of Paris, Peruvian and William Penn on the 29th. The latter was at Plymouth short of coals.

GREAT BRITAIN. The Government has been beaten by 10 on the vote, on Mr. Bouverie's motion of in-struction, looking to the better prevention of bribery and corruption at elections. The Consolidated Bank of London had stopped

GERMANY AND AUSTRIA. The invitations to the Congress have all been accepted and it will shortly meet in Paris. Prussia, Austria and Italy are still arming. The Italian volunteers are mobilizing rapidly. Austria has mobilized 600, -000 men. The Austrian parks of artillery and siege artillery are ready. The Prussians are concentrating at Glatz and Landsbut. Prussia and Italy will postpone hostilities until the Congress has proved a failure. The orders for a second conscription in Vienna produced great discontent. Italy engages not to attack during the conference. Hopes of the war being avoided are being believed in only by a minority.

The Paris Pays says Austria's compensaria tion for the loss of Venetia will be found in the territory on the Adriatic coast. Prussia is to have the Elbe duchies, and Denmark to have northern Schleswig. The Rhine provinces are to be made a State attached to the Germanic confederation. The Aus trian General Benedek has issued instructioffs how the troops are to behave in the enemy's country. Italy is rebuilding her forts to resist the new artillery. The Austrian army commenced marching towards Venetia on the 25th of May. Turkey will not occupy the Danubian principalities in consequence of the Russian and French declaration against Turkish intervention. Still Later-The Hibernian at Father derry June 1st.

The Merrimac arrived out on the 31st ult, and the China on the 1stof June. Continental affairs are unchanged. The time for the meeting of the conference has not yet been fixed. La Russe believes that Napoleon will preside.

The European Crisis.

Telegrams from various points confirm the statements that Austria, Prussia and Italy have accepted the invitation to the conference. A committee of the Federal diet has resolved to accept the invitation to the German confederation to the conference, and would probably elect Baron Von Der Pfordsen, Bayarian minister for foreign affairs, as their representative.

Communications are being interchanged for arranging the day for the first meeting. It is stated that the different ministers of foreign affairs would represent their respec-tive governments. From Vienna, however, it is stated that Austria would not be represented by Count Mensderff, but by Prince Metternich, Count Blorne or Baron Meysenberg. Various conflicting statements were made as to the programme for the conference and the terms of acceptance of the armed powers. It is asserted that Austria categorically re-fuses all propositions relative to the cession of Venetia, and that she calls for the convo-cation of the estates of the duchies to settle. the Schleswig-Holstein question, and de-mands that Congress shall not be competent to discuss any proposal for the reform of the committed by men of bus Federal Constitution. Prussia is also said with the property of others. to demand that the conference shall not disenss questions relating exclusively to the internal interests of Germany, and that its deliberations shall speedily prove that a real prospect exists for the preservation of peace.

The note of the French Government, inviting the Federal diet to send a represenviting the rederal diet to send a represen-tative to the Congress, is published at Frankfort. It states the objects of the con-ference to be a diplomatic settlement of the questions of Schleswig-Holstein and Venetia, and also of a federal reform, so far as it affects European equilibrium. The note concludes as follows:
The Government of the Emperor trusts that the powers who have made preparations for war will, if they accept the proposed conference, suspend their armaments, even if they should scruple to restore their military establishments to a peace footing.

There is no indication of any relaxation in warlike preparations. A Vienna despatch of May 30th says: Preparations for war continue in all parts of the empire, but the execution of the late decree for a levy of fresh troops will not be proceeded with at present, the requirements having already been fully met by the recent large enrollment of volunteers. Many thousand men are already engaged on the fortifications of vienna. The army headquarters will shortly be transferred to Prague, where Field Marshal Benedek will shortly inspect the troops.

A telegram from Kiel reports an affray between the Austrian and Prussian troops, but no deaths occurred. An official inquiry has been instituted. A Prussian patrol had endeavored to inspect the Austrian troops on the frontier Nachad. A decree has been issued at Florence for the formation of twenty additional battalions of volunteers, two battalions of berseglieri and a squadron of guides. Communications received in London on the 30th ult., assert that Garibaldi is still at Caprera, and has no immediate intention of leaving.

The Austrian Government had ordered a forced loan of 12,000,000 floring in Lombar-do Venetia.

The British journals assert that Austria is in treaty with a Polish leader who distinguished himself in the Pelish insurrection, with a view of placing him at the head of a revolution in Prussian Poland.

Financial affairs continue to exhibit steady progress in recovery, and a gradual return of confidence. The pressure for discount at the Bank of England was diminishing, although it was still extremely large, and the rate remained at 10 per cent. Rumors of assistance from the Bank of France, with its immense accumulation of specie, to the Bank of England were not authentic. The Times says such a step in the height of the crisis might have proved beneficial, but is now unnecessary. Funds and secu-rities generally exhibited a decided firmness. H. J. Enthover & Son, of London, princi-pally engaged in the metal trade, have suspended, with liabilities of £300,00 thought their assets will be ample. with liabilities of £300,000. It is

He was applauded on leaving, and considerable numbers of people followed him through the streets. It is said that the object of the General's visit to England is to advance a railway project in the United States. The cholera has entirely disappeared from

SUSPENSION OF THE CONSOLIDATED BANK OF LONDON. The undersigned directors of the "Consolidated Bank" of London (limited), not having had time to communicate with their colleagues, have taken on themselves the grave responsibility of closing it as the only just and honorable course, under the following circumstances:

In their recent arrangement with the Bank of London the directors determined from the first to take no liabilities on behalf of that bank except such as were fully covered by available assets placed in their hands; but they have since found that se-rious errors existed in the list of assets submitted to them, in consequence of which they felt compelled, on Saturday evening last, to give notice to the Bank of London that they no longer held themselves bound by the arrangement. At the same time a suit was commenced in chancery to have it decided that the arrangement involved an undue preference of certain classes of the creditors of the Bank of London, and an interim order was made by the court on that principle, notwithstanding that the under-signed had been advised by two eminent counsel that the arrangement was not open to such objection. The difficulties arising out of this state of things, combined with what had already been done under the arrangement, have oc-cupied the earnest attention of the undersigned during the whole of to-day, and they have been led to the painful conclusion that it would not be possible to conduct the bu-siness of the Consolidated Bank in the face of those difficulties without contracting further engagements to an extent which would have compromised the interest of their cus-

The undersigned have the satisfaction of stating that they have ample assets of the Bank of London to meet all obligations actually incurred by this bank under the recent arrangement. Apart from that arrangement the Consolidated Bank was financially so strong that no difficulty would have been experienced in conducting its operations, and the directors have now in their hands the whole of the assets of this bank in an almost immediately available form.

This is signed by eight directors.

The authorized capital was $2,000,000, of which £1,500,000 was subscribed and £600,000 paid up.

Titusville, Pa., June 10.—About noon to-day a young man, named John Dale, left home in a wagon to be married to a Miss Hattle Matthieron, living about six miles north of here. When about two miles n the road he received a rifle ball through his body. He fell from the wagon, and turned the horse loose, thinking by this means to call assistance. Two gentlemen passing at the time carried him to a house in the vicinity, but he died before medical aid could be procured. The rifle was found near where ie was shot. A rival for the hand of the Satterthwaite's circular of the evening of young woman had threatened to shoot him, and is supposed to be the guilty party. He has not yet been arrested, but probably will be before morning.

[CLOSE OF SATURDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.] House,-In general debate on the President's message, Mr. Wilson (Iowa) said he was not very well informed as to the manner in which the Indian affairs of the Government had been conducted, but he had been long of opinion that the Indians had been "more sinned against than sinning." He proceeded to read extracts from speeches made by two Indian chiefs before the House Committee of Indian Affairs, charging all sorts of frauds and corruptions against one Burleigh, an Indian agent, who turned out to be present as a Delegate from Dakota, who had just addressed the House. Mr. Allison made a few remarks, repel-ling the insinuations against the President, the Secretary of the Interior, and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, contained in the speech of Mr. Burleigh.

Mr. Clarke (Ohio) made a speech on the subject of reconstruction, taking the Conressional view of the question. Mr. Van Aernam followed on the same Mr. Boutwell gave notice that on Wednesday next the Senate amendments to the constitutional amendment would be called up for action in the House.

Mr. Garfield presented memorials from the Boards of Levee Commissioners of the States of Louisiana and Mississippi, in behalf of the people of these States, asking national aid and assistance on the recon-struction of levees on the Mississippi river. how much they excel the ordinary medicines in use.
They purge out the foul burnors which breed and grow distemper, atmulate sleggish or disordered organs into their natural scotton, and impart a healty tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of everybody, but also formilable and dangerous disasses.
While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses the safest and besi physic that can be employed for children. Being sugarcoated, they are pleasant to take; and, being purely vegetable, are tree from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief, were they not suistantisted by men ofeu-h exalted position and character, as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many emicent clerg men and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of our remedies,

THE GREAT AMERICAN DEODORIZER AND DISINFECTANT.
This article owes its peculiar value as a DEODORIZER to the fact that it decomposes and destroys all noxious gases and vapors that are given off from putrifying animal or vegetable matter
DE. W. E. A. AIKIN, Professor of Chemistry in the University of Maryland, says: "For an efficient and reliable Deodorizer and Disinfectant, slawsys ready for use, and not liable to any change, equally valuable in the sick room and in the foul sink, it has, in my opinion, no equal.
This opinion is concurred in by Drs. Miltenberger, Johnson, Chew, McSherry, Butler, and Dr. Van Biber, who made the report to the National Statistry and Quarantine Convention of 1850, says:
"It is the best decdorant of which have any knowledge: "A said-villed professor."
