THE JEFF. DAVIS CASE.

A Hearing by Judge Underweed.

He Refuses the Bail.

THE RETREATING FENIANS. General Meade Will Not Carry Them,

THEY MUST PAY THEIR WAY.

From Washington.

[Special Despatch to the Bulletin.] WASHINGTON, June 11,-The special Memphis Committee returned to-day. Their report will develop some startling facts in connection with that affair.

Judge Underwood, up to the present writing, refuses to sign papers releasing Jeff. Davis. It is said that both Attorney General Speed and Chief Justice Chase favor his release on proper bail.

The Senate Finance Committee have come to no conclusion yet in regard to the cotton tax.The Ways and Means Committee have referred the tariff to a sub-committee.

The Case of Jefferson Davis. WASHINGTON, June 11th .- Judge Underwood, in chambers at the Attorney General's office, heard the arguments of Messrs. O'Conor and Shea, of the counsel of Jefferson Davis, this morning, why the prisoner should be admitted to bail. Attorney General Speed replied on the part of the Government. Judge Underwood has refused to admit Mr. Davis to bail, on the ground that he has no authority to do so, the accused being

The dead man was robbed of his watch and a small sum of money, and his daughter, also robbed of $40. No arrests have yet been made.

Mr. Grinnell (Iowa) rose to debate the resolution, and it therefore went over under the rule. Mr. Ancona (Pa.) offered the following preamble and resolution, and demanded the previous question: Whereas, The Irish people and their brothers and friends in this country are moved by a patriotic purpose to assert their independence and re-establish the nationality of Ireland; and whereas, the active sympathies of the people of the United States are naturally with all men who struggle to achieve such ends, more especially when those engaged therein are the known when those engaged therein are the known friends of our Government, as are the peo-ple of the Irish race, they having shed their hlood in defence of our flag in every bat-tle in which the Republic has been engaged; and whereas, the British Government, against which they are struggling, is enti-tled to no other or greater consideration from us as a nation than that demand-from us as a nation that new struct letter. ed by the strict letter of interna-tional law, for the reason that during our late civil law that Government did in our late civil law that Government did in effect by its conduct repeal its neutrality laws; and whereas, reparation is demanded for damages to our commerce resulting from the wilful neglect of Great Britain to enforce the same, she arrogantly denies all responsibility and claims to be the judge in her own cause:

in her own cause; And, whereas. The existence of our neutraility law of 1818, compels the Executive department of this Government to discrimi-nate most harshly against those who have ever been and are now our friends, in favor of those who have been faithless, not only to the general principles of comity which should exist between friendly States, but also the written law of their own nation on this subject. Therefore, be it Resolved, That, the Committee on Foreign Affairs be instructed to report a bill repeal-ing an act approved April 20th, 1818, being the neutrality law under the terms of which the President's proclamation against the Fenians was issued.

Mr. Hale moved to lay the preamble and resolution on the table. Mr. Rogers demanded the yeas and nays on that motion. Messrs. Banks, Wilson (Iowa) and others sought to offer sugestions, but Mr. Ancons, having moved the previous question, re-fused to permit them to be made. He, fused to permit them to be made. He, however, modified his resolution so as to make it read that "the Committee on Foreign Affairs be instructed to inquire into the expediency of reporting such a bill," The House refused to lay the resolution on the table by a vote of 4 yeas to 113 nays. The yeas were Messrs. Cobb, Davis, and Grinnell-Mr. Grinnell stating that he voted so because he understood the resolution as a reproof to the Administration.

The Media and West Chester Railroad was again yesterday, occupied by Sunday laborers, engaged in laying new rails. Below, a growing nuisance ought to be ob-viated at once. In the rear of the car house, within a square and a half of Market street some fifty young idlers were assembled, playing base ball, and but a short distance below, in the rear of Murphy & Allison's Junction car works another band of Young Junction car works another band of Young Americans were assembling for a similar purpsoe. This ought to have an end. The Chestnut street bridge is still slowly on the advance. The whole affair has been ALMS HOUSE .- This afternoon the Board of Guardians of the Poor hold their meeting. We give the statistics in advance of the morning papers. Dispensing with the details of Saturday's business there were 95 admissions, 93 discharges, 25 deaths, 5 births, 33 elopements, and one bound out. Census, 2,893. Last year, 2,506. Relative increase, 387. Sunday there were 5 admis-sions, males; deaths 3, 2 in children's, 1 in Lunatic Asylum and 4 eloped. The census to-day is 2,891. Last year, 2,482. Increase, 409. The seeming increase in population, taking into view the 387 of Saturday, arises from the fact that there were larger num-bers in proportion admitted or remaining inmates in 1865 than in 1866.

Kendall & Co., Bankers, of this city, inform us of a small swindling game which is extensively carried on as follows: a woman purchased of Kendall & Co. a draft for $7 on New York, and after altering it to a $70 draft offered it at the First National Bank, at Hornelleville. Suspecting that something lature, the city of Camden was divided into culverting districts, by which property owners in each district shall be equally as-sessed for the construction of all culverts in Hornellsville. Suspecting that something was wrong, the Bank officers had the woman arrested. She is now held to answer. The them. Under this law two have already been ordered, and preliminary steps taken in others; one in Mickle and one in Stevens street same game is being extensively practised.

XXXIXTH CONGRESS-FIRST SESSION. WASHINGTON, June 11. SENATE.-Mr. Wilson (Mass.), from th

Committee on Military Affairs, reported the bill to continue in force the Freedmen's Bureau, with amendments. The section confirming the titles to Sea Islands, under Gen. Sherman's order, is stricken out, and in lieu of it, there is a provision by which, under certain circumstances, these lands can be reserved by their former owners. Such of the lands as were forfeited for nonpayment of taxes are reserved by the Govrnment, and are to be distributed among the colored occupants, in sixteen lots. Mr. Trumbull (III.) moved that 50,000 steamers which have been introduced in Camden by the Weccacoe and Indepencopies of the Reconstruction Report be Printing. Mr. Edmunds (Vt.) called up a bill to dence Engine Companies, have done away with the use of the old hand engines, and the City Council have ordered the Committee on Fire Apparatus to sell the two hand machines belonging to the United States and the Weccacoe companies.

provide for the safety of the lives of passen-gers on board of steam vessels, and to regu-late the salaries of steamboat inspectors. HOUSE.—The States being called for resolutions, Mr. Coffroth (Pa.) moved a preamble and resolutions calling for the appointment of Commissioners to ascertain what damages were sustained by the citi-zens of the Sixteenth Congressional district of Pennsylvania on the various rebel invasions of the district, with a view to legislan order to contribute to the sanitary condi-ion of the city, and anthorized the Board of Health, in conjunction with the Sanitary Committee, to perform the work. There are Mr. Delano (Ohio) moved to lay the pre-amble and resolutions on the table, stating that the whole subject was before the Commany places which need their attention.

Pending the vote by tellers, Mr. Coffroth amended the resolution by instructing the Committee on Claims to inquire into the propriety of appointing such commissioners
