CITY BULLETIN.

"THE BOYS IN BLUE"—MASS MEETING.—An open-air mass meeting of the Eighteenth Ward "Boys in Blue" took place last evening, on Frankford road, below Belgrade street. A large stage had been erected for the benefit of the speakers, officers, and others. The street, for many yards around the stage, was crowded with spectators, who gave evidence of their appreciations of what was done and said by frequent manifestations of applause. The meeting was organized by electing Capt. Jacob S. Stretch as president; also, a number of vice presidents and secretaries. The following preamble and resolutions were presented and unanimously adopted:

Whereas, It has been stated that the soldiers and sailors of the war of the rebellion are now in favor of the enemies of the Union; therefore be it

Resolved, That the soldiers and sailors of the Eighteenth Ward recognize the issues of the war, and are not willing that the enemies of the Union should dictate terms to their conquerors.

Resolved, That we, as soldiers and sailors, do insist that where all qualifications are equal, the protector of his country must have the preference.

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the action of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention, held at Pittsburgh, June 5, 1866, and are prepared to combat our enemies at the polls as we did our enemies in the field.

Gen. Joshua T. Owen was then introduced to the vast concourse of people by the president of the meeting. The General was enthusiastically received. He alluded in eloquent terms to the brave deeds accomplished by the soldiers of the Union against those who endeavored to divide the States which have so long been united. The importance of contending at the polls against those who sympathized with Southern traitors during the war was then briefly alluded to.

Let us, said the General, demand that the arch traitor Jeff. Davis be accursed forever. He has forfeited his life, and let him die the death of the traitor and the rebel. [Great applause.] And let a great many more of them die.

At this point some individual on the rear of the stage cried out, "No!" Gen. Owen asked, "And who are you?" The unknown individual replied, "A soldier." The General again asked, "What is it you want?" The unknown replied, "I do not want him to die." "Who," inquired the General. "Johnson," replied the unknown. The General then turned to the audience, and immediately remarked, "I alluded to that other traitor." These words were received with laughter and applause. The General then advocated the election of Gen. Geary to the position of Governor of Pennsylvania.

Col. James Givens, Col. John K. Murphy and others addressed the meeting, which adjourned about 10½ o'clock. Letters were received from Gen. C. H. T. Collis, W. M. Cooper, Esq., and Hon. Leonard Myers. Mr. Myers's letter was as follows:

WASHINGTON, June 12, 1866.—To the "Boys in Blue" of the Eighteenth Ward—GENTLEMEN: Your polite favor of the 10th inst., is received. My duties will prevent my being present at the meeting of the "Boys in Blue" of the Eighteenth Ward to which you kindly invite me, nor could my presence give them better cheer than the message I now send—that the fruits of their victories will not be scattered to the winds by the Union Representatives of the people, nor the country they did so much to save be betrayed in peace to those who failed to ruin it by war and treason.

With the best wishes for your success,

I am, very truly yours
LEONARD MYERS.

During the evening the participants in the meeting were delightfully entertained with music by the Liberty Cornet Band, which had been engaged especially for the occasion.

A NEW PHILADELPHIA ENTERPRISE.—The new steamer Roman, of the Philadelphia and BostonSteam Mail-ship Company, made her trial trip yesterday from the wharf of Messrs. Reaney, Son & Archbold, at Chester, on the Delaware river, where her machinery was built. A number of gentlemen of this city, Col. Wm. B. Thomas, Mr. A. G. Cattell, Mr. A. F. Cheesebrough, Mr. F. Flanigan, President of the Southern Mail Steamship Company, Mr. Wood, Messrs. Wm. H. Bull and M. P. Henry, Esqrs., of the Philadelphia bar, and Messrs. William Steams, D. S. Dietrich and the Messrs. Windsor & Jons were on board.

Messrs. Reaney and Archbold, J. P. Greig, and Wm. Ward, Esq., from Chester, also joined in the excursion. The Roman started from Chester against a strong floodtide, passed below the mouth of the Christianna, and returned to the city about 5½ o'clock P. M. The most careful arrangements had been perfected for the guests, and a special car had been arranged both for the reaching of Chester and return to the city. The vessel is a model of naval architecture, and the woodwork, which is of the most elaborate construction, reflects the highest credit upon its constructors. The machinery worked to a charm. Messrs. Colonel William B. Thomas, Cattell, Cheesebrough, Bull, Henry and Wood, of Philadelphia, and Ward, of Chester, made most excellent speeches, and after a superb collation the company returned to the city in the 7.36 train from Chester in the greatest good feeling.

BEQUESTS FOR CHARITABLE PURPOSES.—Among the bequests in the will of Mrs. Ann Hertzog, of Philadelphia, are the following; To the Peter Hertzog Theological Hall, $10,000; Philadelphia Bible Society, $3,000; Philadelphia Tract Society, $3,000; Third Reformed Dutch Church, $1,500; Third Reformed Dutch Church Benevolent Fund, $3,000; Third Reformed Dutch Church, fuel for poor, $3,000; Third Reformed Dutch Church Sabbath School, $3,000; Pennsylvania Seamen's Fuel Society, $5,000: Merchants' Fund, $3,000; Philadelphia Association for Relief of Disabled Firemen, $3,000; Northern Home for Friendless Children, $3,000; Union School and Children's Home of Philadelphia, $3,000; Northern Dispensary, $3,000; Northern Soup Society, $3,000; American Sunday School Union, $2,000; Union Benevolent Association, $3,000; Philadelphia Society for Employment and Instruction of Poor, $2,000; Foster Home, $2,000; Philadelphia Sabbath Association, $2,000; Contribution to Pennsylvania Hospital, $2,000; Philadelphia Female Domestic Mission Society, $1,000; Pennsylvania Asylum for Indigent Widows, $2,000; Pennsylvania Institution for the Blind, $3,000; Pennsylvania Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, $3,000.

ANOTHER FIREMEN'S PARADE.—The Wm. Penn Hose Company, which intends to visit Salem, Mass., will return to the city on the seventh of July, and a convention to make arrangements for a reception, was held, last evening, at the Taylor Hose House. Geo. Hensler, of the Mechanic Engine, presided. The following companies were represented: Taylor Hose, Humane Hose, Pennsylvania Hose, Philadelphia Fire Company, Independence Hose, Neptune Hose, U. States Hose, Northern Liberty Engine, South Penn Hose, Assistance Engine, Lincoln Hose, Mantua Hook and Ladder, Franklin Hose, Hibernia Engine, Mechanic Engine, Friendship Engine, Vigilant Engine, Good Intent Engine, Kensington Hose Company. A Committee of Arrangements was appointed and the meeting adjourned until the 28th instant.

FINE ARTS—VALUABLE COLLECTION OF OIL PAINTINGS.—This evening, continuing to-morrow and Monday evenings, there will take place at Scott's Art Gallery, 1020 Chestnut street, a sale of a choice and valuable collection of Oil Paintings, Pastels and Crystal Medallions, belonging to the American Art Gallery, of New York, embracing 250 varied and pleasing subjects by some of the most talented artists. The Pastels are really handsome and very fine. The Crystal Medallions in the collection are oil paintings painted on canvass attached to convex crystal glass, something new and beautiful. This sale is of extraordinary merit, and we advise those who wish good pictures to attend the sale.

KICKED BY A HORSE.—George Egner, aged twelve years, residing on the Darby road, near Blue Bell Tavern, Twenty-fourth Ward, was kicked in the forehead by a horse, fracturing his skull badly. He was taken to the Pennsylvania Hospital.

AMERICAN PROTESTANT ASSOCIATION.—The Right Worthy Grand Lodge American Protestant Association adjourned sine die last evening. Probably this has been one of the most important sessions ever held, as many changes in the initiatory ceremonies of the order were under consideration.

A committee was appointed to revise and re-arrange the Constitution and By-Laws of the R. W. G. Lodge, and report at the next annual session, which will be held in Philadelphia on the second Monday of June, 1867.

A new token was adopted and will be promulgated at the earliest possible moment to the various lodges throughout the country.

ANNIVERSARY MEETING.—The Old Man's Home, a charitable institution of a religious but not denominational character, situated at Powelton avenue and Thirty-ninth street, West Philadelphia, celebrated its second anniversary yesterday afternoon. Professor Saunders, D. D., opened the exercises, and addresses were delivered by Rev. Drs. Richard Newton, George D. Boardman, Alexander Reed, and J. Wheaton Smith, and by Rev. Messrs. Lybrand and Allen. At the close Dr. Saunders read a letter from Mayor McMichael, regretting the latter's inability to be present, and expressing his interest in the institution. The Home was originated and is superintended by ladies.

ASSAULT UPON COLORED PEOPLE.—Thos. Doyle, Terrence Glancy, Daniel Bagan and John Hoge have been held in $1,500 bail, by Alderman Thomas, to answer the charge of riot. It seems that a party of Irishmen, among whom were the accused, attacked the colored people residing in Centre street in Germantown. Stones were thrown at the houses and the windows were badly damaged. The negroes finally collected together and retaliated upon the Irishmen. The latter rather got the worst of the fight. Two of them had their heads severely cut, and those mentioned above fell into the hands of the police.

ALLEGED KIDNAPPING. — Catharine Mackey was arrested, yesterday afternoon, at Broad and South streets, on the charge of attempting to kidnap a child of a Mrs. Hess. The latter discovered the accused in the act of carrying the child away, and demanded it. Catharine refused to give up the child, saying that she would rather kill it first. She was then arrested, and after a hearing before Alderman Tittermary, was committed to prison.

THE SUCCESSFUL COMPANY.—The United States Hose Company won the cylinder of new hose which was voted for at the fair of the Odd Fellows' Encampment. The vote was: United States, open ballot, 678; secret ballot, 2,347; total, 3,025. Fame Hose, open ballat, 121; secret ballot, 2; total, 123. Majority of the United States, 2,902. The presentation was made by Chief Engineer Lyle.

CHARGED WITH ROBBERY.—August Scheifler was arrested at Third and Race streets, upon the charge of having robbed a man of $104. He was taken before Alderman Hurley, and was held in $600 to answer at Court.

DROWNED.—A boy, named Joseph McDonough, aged ten years, was drowned in the Schuylkill yesterday, near Girard avenue bridge. His body was recovered and taken to the residence of his parents, 1416 Barclay street.

DISHONEST DOMESTIC.—A young colored girl named Sarah Dare, employed as a domestic in a house in the Seventh Ward, was arrested yesterday, for having robbed her employer of $14. She was sent to the House of Refuge by Alderman Beitler.

ALLEGED CHICKEN THIEF.—John C. Blaker, hailing from Bucks county, was arrested in Frankford and taken before Alderman Holme, upon the charge of the larceny of a lot of chickens which he had in his possession. He was sent to prison.

BENEFITS THIS EVENING.—For her benefit at the Arch Miss Ettie Henderson appears in "The Hidden Hand" and in "Stratagems of an Actress." At the Walnut Mr. Booth enacts Othello, in Shakspeare's play of that name. He will be ably supported. At the American the Hanlons take their benefit, presenting a bill of remarkable attractiveness, both in the gymnastic and the dramatic line.

SIGNOR BLITZ appears to-night at the Assembly Building, with new feats, including the famous double-headed Sphynx.

MISS EFFIE GERMON'S testimonial benefit will shortly take place at the Walnut. "Jessie Brown, of Lucknow," and other attractions will be offered, which will make the occasion a memorable one.
